

The background of the slide is a painting of a dense, lush forest. In the center, there is a small, light-colored building with a dark roof, possibly a cabin or a small house, nestled among the trees. A path or clearing leads towards the building. The trees are tall and have thick foliage, creating a sense of depth and mystery. The lighting is soft, suggesting a misty or early morning atmosphere. The overall tone is serene and somewhat somber.

Turquerie And The Politics Of Representation 1728-1876:

'Turquerie' and the Politics of Representation, 1728-1876 Nebahat Avcioglu, 2011 Devoted explicitly to the examination of Ottoman Turkish inspired architecture in Western Europe during the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries in this study Nebahat Avcioglu rethinks the question of cultural frontiers not as separations but as a rapport of heterogeneities Reclaiming turquerie as cross cultural art from the confines of the inconsequential exoticism it is often reduced to Avcioglu analyses hitherto neglected constructions and links them to notions of self representation and politics "Turquerie and the Politics of Representation, 1728-1876" Nebahat Avcioglu, 2017-07-05 In this first full length study devoted explicitly to the examination of Ottoman Turkish inspired architecture in Western Europe during the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries Nebahat Avcioglu rethinks the question of cultural frontiers not as separations but as a rapport of heterogeneities Reclaiming turquerie as cross cultural art from the confines of the inconsequential exoticism it is often reduced to Avcioglu analyses hitherto neglected images designs and constructions and links Western interest in the Ottoman Empire to notions of self representation and national politics In investigating why and to what effect Europeans turned to the Turk for inspiration Avcioglu provides a far reaching cultural reinterpretation of art and architecture in this period Presented as a series of case studies focusing on three specific building types kiosks mosques and baths chosen on the basis that each represents the first full fledged manifestations of their respective genres to be constructed in Western Europe the study delves into the cultural politics of architectural forms and styles The author argues that the appropriation of those building types was neither accidental nor did it merely reflect European domination of another culture The process was essentially dialectical and contributed to transculturation in both the West and the East The Mobility of People and Things in the Early Modern Mediterranean Elisabeth A. Fraser, 2019-07-23 For centuries artists diplomats and merchants served as cultural intermediaries in the Mediterranean Stationed in port cities and other entrepôts of the Mediterranean these go betweens forged intercultural connections even as they negotiated and sometimes promoted cultural misunderstandings They also moved objects of all kinds across time and space This volume considers how the mobility of art and material culture is intertwined with greater Mediterranean networks from 1580 to 1880 Contributors see the movement of people and objects as transformational emphasizing the trajectory of objects over single points of origin multiplicity over unity and mutability over stasis Picturing Marie Leszczinska (1703-1768) Jennifer G. Germann, 2017-07-05 Portraits of Queen Marie Leszczinska 1703-1768 were highly visible in eighteenth century France Appearing in royal châteaux and after 1737 in the Parisian Salons the queen's image was central to the visual construction of the monarchy Her earliest portraits negotiated aspects of her ethnic difference French gender norms and royal rank to craft an image of an appropriate consort to the king Later portraits by Maurice Quentin de La Tour Carl van Loo and Jean Marc Nattier contributed to changing notions of queenship over the course of her 43 year tenure Whether as royal wife devout consort or devoted mother Marie Leszczinska's image mattered

While she has often been seen as a weak consort this study argues that queenly images were powerful and even necessary for Louis XV's projection of authority. This is the first study dedicated to analyzing the queen's portraits. It engages feminist theory while setting the queen's image in the context of portraiture in France, courtly factional conflict and the history of the French monarchy. While this investigation is historically specific, it raises the larger problem of the power of women's images versus the empowerment of women, a challenge that continues to plague the representation of political women today.

The Oxford Handbook of the Baroque John D. Lyons, 2019. Baroque, the cultural period extending from the mid sixteenth to the mid eighteenth century, created some of the world's most striking monuments, music, artworks, and literature. This Handbook goes beyond all existing studies by presenting Baroque not only as a style but also as a global cultural phenomenon arising in response to enormous religious, political, and technological changes.

Handbook of Research on Contemporary Approaches to Orientalism in Media and Beyond Tombul, Işıl, Sarı, Gülşah, 2021-05-28. Orientalism is about much more than just information gathered about the East within its general postcolonial period. In this period, orientalism is a Western discourse that dominated and shaped the view of the East. There is otherization in the way the West has historically looked at the East, and within the information presented about it. These original stories of travelers in the past and previous telling about the East are facing a reconstruction through modern types of media: Cinema, television, news, newspaper, magazine, internet, social media, photography, literature, and more are transforming the way the East is presented and viewed. Under the headings of post-orientalism, neo-orientalism, or self-orientalism, these new orientalist forms of work, in combination with both new and traditional media, are redefining orientalism in the media and beyond. The Handbook of Research on Contemporary Approaches to Orientalism in Media and Beyond shows how both new media and traditional media deal with orientalism today through the presentation of gender, race, religion, and culture that make up orientalist theory. The chapters focus on how orientalism is presented in the media, cinema, TV, photography, and more. This book is ideal for communications theorists, media analysts, practitioners, researchers, academicians, and students working in fields that include mass media, communications, film studies, ethnic studies, history, sociology, and cultural studies.

The Afterlife of Used Things Ariane Fennetaux, Amélie Junqua, Sophie Vasset, 2014-10-03. Recycling is not a concept that is usually applied to the eighteenth century. The environment may not have existed as a notion then, yet practices of re-use and transformation obviously shaped the early modern world. Still, this period of booming commerce and exchange was also marked by scarcity and want. This book reveals the fascinating variety and ingenuity of recycling processes that may be observed in the commerce, crafts, literature, and medicine of the eighteenth century. Recycling is used as a thought-provoking means to revisit subjects such as consumption, the new science, or novel writing and cast them in a new light where the waste of some becomes the luxury of others. Clothes worn to rags are turned into paper and into books, and scientific breakthroughs are carried out in old kitchen pans.

Museums, Transculturality, and the Nation-State Susanne Leeb, Nina Samuel, 2022-03-07. While the nation state gave rise to the advent of museums its influence in times of transculturality and post decolonial studies appears to have vanished But is this really the case With case studies from various geo and sociopolitical contexts from around the globe the contributors investigate which roles the nation state continues to play in museums collections and heritage They answer the question to which degree the nation state still determines practices of collection and circulation and its amount of power to shape contemporary narratives The volume thus examines the contradictions at play when the necessary claim for transculturality meets the institutions of the nation state With contributions by Stanislas Spero Adotevi Sebasti n Eduardo D vila Natasha Ginwala Monica Hanna Rajkamal Kahlon Suzana Milevska Mirjam Shatanawi Kavita Singh Ruth Stamm Andrea Witcomb

Intimate Interiors Tara Zanardi, Christopher M. S. Johns, 2023-03-23 A desire for intimacy in domestic spaces motivated by a growing sense of individualistic expression an incentive to conceal the labor or enslavement taking place and an appetite for solace and comfort led to interiors taking on more specific roles in the eighteenth century By examining the architectural visual and material culture of eighteenth century spaces Intimate Interiors foregrounds the interrelated concepts of intimacy privacy informality and sociability in order to show how these ideas played an increasingly integral role in the period s architectural and material design Across eleven innovative chapters that explore issues of gender politics travel exoticism imperialism sensorial experiences identity interiority and modernity this volume demonstrates how intimacy was a fundamental goal in the planning of private quarters In doing so the political nature of private spaces is uncovered whilst highlighting the contradictions and complexities of these highly performative private interiors Employing distinct methodological perspectives across various geographical sites from Turkey to Versailles Britain to Benin Intimate Interiors draws as yet untraced connections between Enlightenment Europe imperial outposts and major metropolitan centers across the globe

Ariosto, the Orlando Furioso and English Culture Jane E. Everson, Andrew Hiscock, Stefano Jossa, 2019-01-31 The Orlando Furioso remains a masterpiece of Italian literature and stands as a key contribution to European Renaissance culture as a whole This collection brings together cutting edge research by international scholars and examines why Ariosto s magnum opus continues to excite cultural interest even today

The Sun King at Sea Meredith Martin, Gillian Weiss, 2022-01-04 This richly illustrated volume the first devoted to maritime art and galley slavery in early modern France shows how royal propagandists used the image and labor of enslaved Muslims to glorify Louis XIV Mediterranean maritime art and the forced labor on which it depended were fundamental to the politics and propaganda of France s King Louis XIV r 1643 1715 Yet most studies of French art in this period focus on Paris and Versailles overlooking the presence or portrayal of galley slaves on the kingdom s coasts By examining a wide range of artistic productions ship design artillery sculpture medals paintings and prints Meredith Martin and Gillian Weiss uncover a vital aspect of royal representation and unsettle a standard picture of art and power in early modern France With an abundant selection of startling images many never before published The Sun King at Sea emphasizes the role of esclaves turcs enslaved Turks rowers who were captured or purchased from Islamic lands in building and decorating ships and other art objects that circulated on land and by sea to glorify the Crown Challenging the notion that human bondage vanished from continental France this cross disciplinary volume invites a reassessment of servitude as a visible condition mode of representation and symbol of sovereignty during Louis XIV s reign

Entangled Landscapes Yue Zhuang,Andrea Riemenschnitter,2017-08-31 The exchange of landscape practice between China and Europe from 1500 1800 is an important chapter in art history While the material forms of the outcome of this exchange like jardin anglo chinoisand Europ enerie are well documented this book moves further to examine the role of the exchange in identity formation in early modern China and Europe Proposing the new paradigm of entangled landscapes drawing from the concept of entangled histories this book looks at landscape design cartography literature philosophy and material culture of the period Challenging simplistic binary treatments of the movements of influences between China and Europe Entangled Landscapes reveals how landscape exchanges entailed complex processes of appropriation crossover and transformation through which Chinese and European identities were formed Exploring these complex processes via three themes empire building mediators constraints and aesthetic negotiations this work breaks new ground in landscape and East West studies Interdisciplinary and revisionist in its thrust it will also benefit scholars of history human geography and postcolonial studies

A Provincial History of the Ottoman Empire Marc Aymes,2013-08-15 Provincializing the history of the Ottoman Empire this book provides a critical approach to the projects of modernity that took place in the Eastern Mediterranean over the past two centuries Leaving their mark on this period are the turmoil of insurgency in Greece and Egypt a growing intervention of European Powers in Eastern Mediterranean politics and the unfolding of large reform projects within the administration of the Ottoman Empire Whilst these developments have prompted enduring debates over Middle Eastern paths of transformation the case of Cyprus has remained isolated from these discussions something this book seeks to address One of the first research monographs to appear in English on Cyprus during the eventful times of the Ottoman long 19th century this book consistently seeks to provide a dialogue between source analyses and theoretical frameworks Exploring the myriad relationships between this singular locality and the regional not to say global dynamics of empire trade and social change at that time A Provincial History of the Ottoman Empire will be of interest to students and scholars with an interest in the Middle East and Modern History

Making Light Raymond Knapp,2018-02-07 Raymond Knapp traces the musical legacy of German Idealism as it led to the declining prestige of composers such as Haydn while influencing the development of American popular music in the nineteenth century showing how the existence of camp in Haydn and American music offer ways of reassessing Haydn s oeuvre

Textile in Architecture Didem Ekici,Patricia Blessing,Basile Baudez,2023-06-30 This book investigates the interconnections between textile and architecture via a variety of case studies from the Middle Ages through the twentieth century and from diverse geographic contexts Among the oldest human technologies building and weaving have intertwined histories Textile structures go back to Palaeolithic times and are still in use today and textile furnishings have long been used in interiors Beyond its use as a material textile has offered a captivating model and metaphor for architecture through its ability to enclose tie together weave communicate and adorn Recently architects have shown a renewed interest in the textile medium due to the use of computer aided design digital fabrication and innovative materials and engineering The essays edited and compiled here work across disciplines to provide new insights into the enduring relationship between textiles and architecture The contributors critically explore the spatial and material qualities of textiles as well as cultural and political significance of textile artifacts patterns and metaphors in architecture Textile in Architecture is organized into three sections Ritual Spaces which examines the role of textiles in the formation and performance of socio political religious and civic rituals Public and Private Interiors explores how textiles transformed interiors corresponding to changing aesthetics cultural values and material practices and Materiality and Material Translations which considers textile as metaphor and model in the materiality of built environment Including cases from Morocco Samoa France India the UK Spain the Ancient Andes and the Ottoman Empire this is essential reading for any student or researcher interested in textiles in architecture through the ages Palaces of Reason Robin L.

Thomas,2023-11-28 Palaces of Reason traces the fascinating history of three royal residences built outside of Naples in the eighteenth century at Capodimonte Portici and Caserta Commissioned by King Charles of Bourbon and Queen Maria Amalia of Saxony who reigned over the Kingdom of the Two Sicilies these buildings were far more than residences for the monarchs They were designed to help reshape the economic and cultural fortunes of the realm The palaces at Capodimonte Portici and Caserta are among the most complex architectural commissions of the eighteenth century Considering the architecture and decoration of these complexes within their political cultural and economic contexts Robin L Thomas argues that Enlightenment ideas spurred their construction and influenced their decoration These modes of thinking saw the palaces as more than just centers of royal pleasure or muscular assertions of the crown s power Indeed writers and royal ministers viewed them as active agents in improving the cultural political social and economic health of the kingdom By casting the palaces within this narrative Thomas counters the assumption that they were imitations of Versailles and the swan songs of absolutism while expanding our understanding of the eighteenth century European palace more broadly Original and convincing Thomas s book will be of interest to historians of art and architectural history and eighteenth century studies

Central Europe and the Non-European World in the Long 19th Century Markéta Křížová,Jitka Malečková,2022-08-01 Central Europe and the Non European World in the Long 19th Century explores various ways in which inhabitants of the Austro Hungarian Monarchy perceived and depicted the outside world during the era of European imperialism Focusing particularly on the Czech Lands Hungary and Slovakia with other nations as comparative examples this collection shows how Central Europeans viewed other regions and their populations from the Balkans and the Middle East to Africa China and America Although the societies under Habsburg rule found themselves with rare exceptions outside the realm of colonialism their inhabitants also engaged in colonial projects and benefited from these interactions Rather than taking one Central European approach the volume draws upon accounts not only by writers and travelers but by painters missionaries and other observers reflecting the diversity that characterized both the region itself and its views of non Western cultures

Making Modernity in the Islamic Mediterranean Margaret S. Graves,Alex Dika Seggerman,2022-04-19 The Islamic world s artistic traditions experienced profound transformation in the 19th century as rapidly developing technologies and globalizing markets ushered in drastic changes in technique style and content Despite the importance and ingenuity of these developments the 19th century remains a gap in the history of Islamic art To fill this opening in art historical scholarship Making Modernity in the Islamic Mediterranean charts transformations in image making architecture and craft production in the Islamic world from Fez to Istanbul Contributors focus on the shifting methods of production reproduction circulation and exchange artists faced as they worked in fields such as photography weaving design metalwork ceramics and even transportation Covering a range of media and a wide geographical spread Making Modernity in the Islamic Mediterranean reveals how 19th century artists in the Middle East and North Africa reckoned with new tools materials and tastes from local perspectives
