Tut Pretoria Campus Courses For 2014:

Understanding and mitigating cyberfraud in Africa Oluwatoyin E. Akinbowale, Mariann P. Mashigo, Mulatu F. Zerihun, 2024-06-30 The book covers the overview of cyberfraud and the associated global statistics. It demonstrates practicable techniques that financial institutions can employ to make effective decisions geared towards cyberfraud mitigation. Furthermore, the book contains some emerging technologies such as information and communication technologies, ICT forensic accounting, big data technologies, tools and analytics employed in fraud mitigation. In addition, it highlights the implementation of some techniques such as the fuzzy analytical hierarchy process (FAHP) and system thinking approach to address information and security challenges. The book combines a case study, empirical findings, a systematic literature review, and theoretical and conceptual concepts to provide practicable solutions to mitigate cyberfraud. The major contributions of this book include the demonstration of digital and emerging techniques such as forensic accounting for cyber fraud mitigation. It also provides in-depth statistics about cyber fraud, its causes, its threat actors, practicable mitigation solutions, and the application of a theoretical framework for fraud profiling and mitigation. Innovation for inclusive development and transformation in South Africa Charles Hongoro, Cyril Adonis, Konosoang Sobane, 2023-03-01 Science, technology, and innovation (STI) are generally accepted as major drivers of growth and can help address poverty and directly improve the well-being of different groups in society. However, under certain circumstances, STI can reinforce social exclusion and inequalities. This book explores discourses around directionality and the importance of Innovation for Inclusive Development (IID) in addressing policy questions that explore the relationship between IID with inequalities in income and opportunities. It seeks to unpack the concept of IID and what it means in a country such as South Africa, a country characterised by endemic poverty, deepening inequality, and high levels of unemployment. The book is largely original and based on a critique of existing literature to expose specific issues or bolster specific arguments about the role of IID in equitable and inclusive development. This book has been written by various scholars who understand the various notions of IID and how it can possibly be applied and the relevance of such knowledge for policy programmes and practice.

Socio-ecological-economic reflections on the impacts of COVID-19 in Africa Willie Chinyamurindi, Philani Moyo, 2025-02-28 This scholarly book magnifies reflections from young scientists in South Africa, Africa, and beyond around the COVID-19 pandemic. With contributions by upcoming scientists, this scholarly book provides a synopsis of socio-ecological and economic views on the impact of COVID-19. Through its chapters, the book takes a multi-disciplinary approach to reflecting on what it was like to be a scientist during the COVID-19 pandemic. By doing so, each chapter reimagines science from the viewpoint of its discipline, offering insights from the perspective of young scientists that could benefit other scholars, academics, and policymakers. Directory of Geoscience Departments 2015 Carolyn Wilson, 2015-02-27 The Directory of Geoscience Departments 50th Edition is the most comprehensive directory and source of information about geosciences.

Corrupted Jonathan D Jansen,2023-02 Through investigatory reports and interviews Jonathan Jansen reveals the structural conditions for chronic dysfunction in a sample of South African universities He reveals the political economy at work and the intense competition for resources on campuses He also provides interventions for these fragile institutions Why do some universities seem to be in a constant state of turmoil and dysfunction Jonathan Jansen explores the root causes of chronic instability in a sample of South African universities Through scrutiny of investigatory reports and interviews with more than 100 university managers and government officials Jansen finds that at the heart of the dysfunction in universities is an intense and sometimes deadly competition for resources especially on campuses located in impoverished communities. It is not the lack of institutional resources but their concentration in a university that draws a mix of corrupt actors from local politicians and taxi operators to members of council and management into a never ending run on the material such as money for infrastructure and symbolic namely graduation certificates for sale. Assets of these institutions, Jansen argues, that the problem won't be solved through investments in capacity building alone because the combination of institutional capacity and institutional integrity contributes to serial instability in universities. Jansen makes an important intervention to understanding the root causes and offers interventions to produce stabilities such as the depoliticisation of university councils and appointing academics of integrity and capacity in the management and leadership of these fragile institutions. This groundbreaking and long overdue study will offer a promising way forward for universities to better serve their communities and the country more broadly.

Inclusive Teaching in South Africa Tsediso Michael Makoele, 2016-08-31
 Inclusive education presupposes an all inclusive approach where all learners are taught in regular classrooms regardless of background disability or social context. While there has been much debate, indications are that inclusive education has been gaining momentum. The book is divided into six coherent sections that address the how of inclusive education both inside and outside of the classroom.

King Lewanika Akashambatwa Mbikusita-Lewanika, 2017-02-15
 This book expands into the neglected history of Pan African Cross Border and African traditional leadership in the Southern African liberation struggle. It pays homage to the seven African Kings appointed as Honorary Presidents of Congress at its founding at Bloemfontein on January 8, 1912. These were Dalindyebo of the Thembus, Montsioa of the Barolong, Lewanika of Barotseland, Letsie II of Lesotho, Khama of Mangwato of Botswana, Marclane of Pondoland, and Mopei of the Bakgatla. King Lewanika of Barotseland is the subject of the memorial lecture Nelson Mandela named his second son Makgatho Lewanika in honour of Sefako Mapogo Makgatho, the second President of the ANC, and King Lewanika of Barotseland. In his biography of Barotseland's sovereign ruler from 1878 to 1916, King Lewanika, the First Gervas Clay writes that his life began in exile while his heritage lay under alien rule. He had seen the usurper defeated and annihilated and some of his royal relatives in turn enthroned in triumph and overthrown into despair and death. He had seen the country he loved torn by internecine wars and had himself barely escaped with his life into further exile. His triumphant return, he knew, would be without permanency of stability unless he discovered a new way to rule. He had learnt a better way and become popular with his people whom he had led to treaties with the dominant colonial power of the age He died full of honour loved and respected by his people Leaving the heart of his country reserved to the Barotse by treaty rights and his own family secure on the throne No African ruler of his time achieved more and none was more regretted by all who had known him In SiLozi the hybrid SeSotho based national lingua franca commonly shared language of Barotseland the head of the national state the King goes by the title Mulena Yo Muhulu meaning Supreme Ruler In the Siluyana language which is the language of the founding leadership of Barotseland the King goes by the title Mbumu wa Litunga or simply Litunga Following the 1884 outbreak of civil war and after the 1885 triumph of being re instated on the throne Lubosi was referred to as Mbumu wa Litunga Lewanika la Matunga Mwana Kokoma Milonga meaning the Supreme Lord of the Land Unifier of Realms and Great Conqueror From the first communications encounters and treaties the British Government and its colonial authorities and agents acknowledged Litunga Lewanika as King Lewanika of Barotseland Words of the last stanza of the Barotse National Anthem say it all Imutakwandu Mulena Muhulu Oh our late long serving Great King Yo lu mu fiwe ki Muhauheli Given to us by the grace of God Ha lu punyuhile ha lu iketile That we have survived that we are at peace
