his sociobiography of Jacques Offenbach in Paris Kracauer 1889 1966 often associated with the Frankfurt School and the intellectual milieu of Walter Benjamin is best known for his writings on cinema and the philosophy of history Reeh examines Kracauer's lesser known early work much of it written for the trendsetting newspaper Frankfurter Zeitung in the 1920s and early 1930s and analyzes Kracauer's continuing reflections on modern urban life through the pivotal idea of ornament Kracauer deciphers the subjective experience of the city by viewing fragments of the city as dynamic ornaments an employment exchange a day shelter for the homeless a movie theater and an amusement park become urban microcosms Reeh focuses on three substantial works written by Kracauer before his emigration to the United States in 1940 In the early autobiographical novel Ginster Written by Himself a young architect finds aesthetic pleasure in the ornamental forms that are largely unused in the profession of the time The collection Streets of Berlin and Elsewhere with many essays from Kracauer's years in Berlin documents the subjectiveness of urban life Finally Jacques Offenbach and the Paris of His Time shows how the superficial in a sense ornamental milieu of the operetta evolved into a critical force during the Second Empire Reeh argues that Kracauer's novel essays and historiography all suggest ways in which the subjective can reappropriate urban life The book also includes a series of photographs by the author that reflect the ornamental experience of the metropolis in Paris Frankfurt and other cities
