Twilight Los Angeles 199:

The Melancholy of Race Anne Anlin Cheng, 2001 Cheng proposes that racial identification is itself already a melancholic act a social category that is imaginatively supported through a dynamic of loss and compensation by which the racial other is at once rejected and retained Using psychoanalytic theories on mourning and melancholia as inroads into her subject Cheng offers a closely observed and carefully reasoned account of the minority experience as expressed in works of art by and about Asian Americans and African Americans She argues that the racial minority and dominant American culture both suffer from racial melancholia and that this insight is crucial to a productive reimagining of progressive politics

Performance and Activism Kamran Afary, 2009-01-01 This book is a study of grassroots performances and activism in the aftermath of the 1992 Los Angeles riots documenting efforts toward establishing truce between warring street gangs networks of support by mothers of incarcerated youth and the theatrical production of Anna Deavere Smith's Twilight Los Angeles 1992 It situates these developments in the interdisciplinary context of performance studies rooted in the history and political economy of Los Angeles

Contemporary American Drama Annette Saddik, 2007-09-13 This book explores the development of contemporary theatre in the United States in its historical political and theoretical dimensions It focuses on representative plays and performance texts that experiment with form and content discussing influential playwrights and performance artists such as Tennessee Williams Adrienne Kennedy Sam Shepard Tony Kushner Charles Ludlum Anna Deavere Smith Karen Finley and Will Power alongside avant garde theatre groups Saddik traces the development of contemporary drama since 1945 and discusses the cross cultural impact of postwar British and European innovations on American theatre from the 1950s to the present day in order to examine the performance of American identity She argues that contemporary American theatre is primarily a postmodern drama of inclusion and diversity that destabilizes the notion of fixed identity and questions the nature of reality

Beyond the Boundaries Theodore Shank, 2002 An update of this popular history of experimental American theater

The Feminist Spectator in Action Jill S. Dolan, 2017-09-16 Based on her award winning blog The Feminist Spectator Jill Dolan presents a lively feminist perspective in reviews and essays on a variety of theatre productions films and television series from The Social Network and Homeland to Split Britches Lost Lounge Demonstrating the importance of critiquing mainstream culture through a feminist lens Dolan also offers invaluable advice on how to develop feminist critical thinking and writing skills This is an essential read for budding critics and any avid spectator of the stage and screen      Modern American Drama, 1945-2000 C. W. E. Bigsby, 2000-12-21 In this new edition of the widely acclaimed Modern American Drama Christopher Bigsby completes his survey of postwar and contemporary theatre and brings the reader up to 2000 While retaining the key elements of the first edition including surveys of those major figures who have shaped postwar American drama such as Eugene O'Neill Tennessee Williams Arthur Miller Edward Albee David Mamet and Sam Shepard Bigsby also explores the most recent works and performances these include plays by established dramatists such as Miller's The Ride down Mount Morgan and Albee's Three Tall Women as well as works by relatively new playwrights Paula Vogel Tony Kushner and Terrence McNally among others Bigsby also provides a new chapter Beyond Broadway and offers an analysis of how theatre has formed and influenced the millennial culture of America

Whispers on the Color Line Gary Alan Fine, Patricia A. Turner, 2023-09-01 Legends are arguably the most common narrative form of folklore in American society From sex acts to business transactions from fashion to food from heroes to heroin rumors and legends take on every charged topic Children circulate texts about toys and candy teenagers share stories about sex drugs and rock and roll young professionals commiserate over the hazards of the work world These stories address aspects of life about which we receive mixed or ambiguous messages Given that matters relevant to race remain confused and divisive in many corridors of American society it is not surprising that rumors and legends that reflect racial misunderstanding and mistrust frequently circulate Whispers on the Color Line focuses on a wide array of tales told in black and white communities across America Topics run the gamut from alleged governmental conspiracies possible food tampering gang violence and the sex lives of celebrities Such beliefs travel by word of mouth in print and increasingly over the Internet In many instances these stories reflect the tenacious level of racial misunderstanding that continues to vex efforts to foster racial harmony creating separate racialized pools of knowledge The authors have spent over twenty years collecting and analyzing rumors and contemporary legends from the ever durable Kentucky Fried Rat cycle to persistent beliefs about athletic footwear manufacturers and their support for white supremacist regimes These implausible stories serve many purposes they assuage anxieties entertain friends increase our sense of control all without directly proclaiming our own attitudes Fine and Turner consider how these tales reflect attitudes that blacks and whites have both about each other and about the world they face In an engaging and penetrating narrative they brilliantly demonstrate how by transforming unacceptable impulses into a narrative that is claimed to have actually happened we are able to express the inexpressible Legends are arguably the most common narrative form of folklore in American society From sex acts to business transactions from fashion to food from heroes to heroin rumors and legends take on every charged topic Children circulate texts about toys a      Theory of Racelessness Sheena Michele Mason, 2022-05-27 This book presents a skeptical eliminativist philosophy of race and the theory of racelessness a methodological and pedagogical framework for analyzing race and racism It explores the history of skeptical eliminativism and constructionist eliminativism within the history of African American philosophy and literary studies and its consistent connection with movements for civil rights Sheena M Mason considers how current anti racist efforts reflect naturalist conservationist and constructionist reconstructionist philosophies of race that prevent more people from fully confronting the problem of racism not race thereby enabling racism to persist She then offers a three part solution for how scholars and people aspiring toward anti racism can avoid unintentionally upholding racism using literary studies as a case study to show how race often translates into racism itself The theory of racelessness helps more people undo racism by undoing the belief in race Tony Kushner in Conversation Tony Kushner,1998 The premier American playwright of this decade speaks out about art sexuality and social justice

Documentary and Verbatim Theatre Stuart Young, 2025-12-12 Documentary and Verbatim Theatre surveys the emergence and rise of work based on real life in contemporary theatre exploring the artists methodologies plays and central themes that have characterised its enduring popularity After charting the recent history of modern documentary theatre in the twentieth century and the debates that have surrounded it in the past thirty years each chapter examines in depth key practices such as headphone verbatim and extreme verbatim and practitioners from Anna Deavere Smith and David Hare to The Civilians and DV8 Physical Theatre Practitioners chosen topics playwriting process and engagement with sometimes fraught debates in the field are brought to the fore Focusing on the various dramaturgical and theatrical strategies used to create and stage documentary theatre this book provides a practice centric understanding of some of the principal issues related to the form including the tensions between fidelity to the documentary or verbatim record and the exercise of artistic licence the ethical issues entailed in representing living people the implications for actors and our understanding of acting and our assumptions about aesthetic distancing This is an essential introduction to documentary and verbatim theatre for theatre studies students teachers and scholars as well as theatre practitioners

The Palgrave Handbook of the History of Women on Stage Jan Sewell, Clare Smout, 2020-04-29 This book brings together nearly 40 academics and theatre practitioners to chronicle and celebrate the courage determination and achievements of women on stage across the ages and around the globe The collection stretches from ancient Greece to present day Australasia via the United States Soviet Russia Europe India South Africa and Japan offering a series of analytical snapshots of women performers their work and the conditions in which they produced it Individual chapters provide in depth consideration of specific moments in time and geography while the volume as a whole and its juxtapositions stimulate consideration of the bigger picture underlining the challenges women have faced across cultures in establishing themselves as performers and the range of ways in which they gained access to the stage Organised chronologically the volume looks not just to the past but the future it challenges the very notions of history stage and even the definition of women itself

Beyond the White Negro Kimberly Chabot Davis, 2014-07-15 Critics often characterize white consumption of African American culture as a form of theft that echoes the fantasies of 1950s era bohemians or White Negroes who romanticized black culture as anarchic and sexually potent In Beyond the White Negro Kimberly Chabot Davis claims such a view fails to describe the varied politics of racial crossover in the past fifteen years Davis analyzes how white engagement with African American novels film narratives and hip hop can help form anti racist attitudes that may catalyze social change and racial justice Though acknowledging past failures to establish cross racial empathy she focuses on examples that show avenues for future progress and change Her study of ethnographic data from book clubs and college classrooms shows how engagement with African American culture and pedagogical support can lead to the kinds of white self examination that make empathy possible The result is a groundbreaking text that challenges the trend of focusing on society's failures in achieving cross racial empathy and instead explores possible avenues for change

Letters to a Young Actor Robert Brustein, 2009-04-28 The founder and director of the Yale Repertory Theater as well as Harvard's American Repertory Theater and the drama critic for The New Republic for going on thirty years Robert Brustein is a living legend in theatrical circles In Letters to a Young Actor he not only seeks to inspire the multitudes of struggling dramatists out pounding the pavement but also to reinvigorate the very state of the art of acting itself Brustein is a man of strong opinions and formidable intellect Stocked with a wealth of stories about the now rich and famous he has at various points in his career cultivated such talent as actors Meryl Streep Marisa Tomei Cherry Jones Debra Winger Sigourney Weaver Christopher Walken Tony Shalhoub Henry Winkler Christopher Lloyd Claire Bloom and many many more he brings both passion and a peerless authority to his subject His telling anecdotes from decades of experience help explain how and why those who made it big are the successes they are today and what struggles they faced along the way From why Method acting is not the answer to the critical importance of paying attention in English Lit classes Brustein's advice is clear persuasive and inspiring

Documentary Theatre and Performance Andy Lavender, 2024-07-25 What distinguishes documentary theatre from other forms of drama How has it integrated different media across the years and to what effect What is its relationship to truth and reality and defining moments of civic unrest and political change In this short authoritative book Andy Lavender surveys a century of documentary theatre and performance and analyses key productions

Arranged in 3 sections that take a broadly chronological approach the volume considers the nature of documenting forms of intervention through theatre the presentation of lived experience and issues of truth reality and representation The book includes a variety of case studies beginning with Piscator's In Spite of Everything 1925 and tracing the work that followed in Europe and America including the tribunal and testimony plays of the 1990s and 2000s It examines the relationship of 3 key productions to moments of civic and political crisis Fires in the Mirror Crown Heights Brooklyn and Other Identities 1992 Twilight Los Angeles 1992 1993 and The Colour of Justice The Stephen Lawrence Enquiry 1999 Finally it looks at the impact of digital technologies social media and hybrid artforms in the 21st century to explore the engagement of documentary performance with mediations and experiences of cultural change and shifting identities across a range of case studies
