Two Coots In A Canoe An Unusual Story Of Friendship:

Two Coots in a Canoe David E. Morine, Paul Flint, 2011-05-03 A journey of whim humor and self discovery along the Connecticut River When retired CEO Ramsay Peard 61 called his old friend David Morine 59 and asked the longtime conservationist if he wanted to canoe the Connecticut River Morine said he d do it under one condition no camping We ll rely on the kindness of strangers And that s what they did Mooching their way down the river and staying with strangers every night Morine and Peard got an inside look at such issues as the demise of farming the loss of manufacturing gay rights and Wal Mart versus Main Street and they were able to delve deep into the lives of complete strangers But Morine soon realized the one life he never dug into was Peard s After spending a month with him in a canoe he had no idea that his friend s innermost thoughts had taken a fateful course Written in the tradition of Bill Bryson s A Walk in the Woods this book will be treasured by conservationists canoeists and old friends still seeking a thrill Everyone else will be delightfully entertained Vacationland David E. Morine, 2015-10-30 David Morine s long love affair with Maine began when he was a boy in 1946 and his parents rented their first lakeside cabin in Fryeburg At first skeptical about the cost and the lack of plumbing or electricity the Morines quickly felt right at home There was plenty of good fishing and good company to fill the long summer days Although David didn t know it at the time his career began to take shape that summer when he first splashed his feet in the pristine waters of Lovewell Pond He went on to become an internationally recognized conservationist and served for fifteen years as the head of land acquisition for The Nature Conservancy He is also a natural storyteller and he recounts the fondly remembered pleasures of family vacations and reveals many adventures and misadventures he had along the way This second edition of Vacationland includes the same wonderful quirky personal stories as the first edition along with four new funny and nostalgia filled tales about summering in Maine Memory Lands Christine M.  Native American to travel down the smooth river of life with one foot in each of two canoes one canoe representing tribal heritage and way of life and the other western thinking and living committing fully to neither as long as the river is smooth without rocks challenges or bends But when adversity strikes or a proverbial bend in the river appears a person must then jump into one philosophical canoe or the other embracing their own culture or denying their heritage The alternative to making a choice is to float swim or sink drowning in the river of life Whatever You Do, Don't Go Near that Canoe! Julie
