Twofold Use Of The Law And Gospel:

Twofold Use of the Law & Gospel Martin Luther, 2015-11-27 Martin Luther was one of the most influential men of the last millennium and the man most responsible for the Reformation that split the Catholic Church in the 16th century A German theologian Luther wrote at length criticizing the Church and sparked the Reformation all while being one of the most read authors on the continent in his lifetime His teachings included important departures from Church dogma including the claim that absolution of sin could not be purchased Today his 95 Theses are among the most famous works in the world Martin Luther's Theology Bernhard Lohse, 1999-01-01 This definitive analysis of the theology of Martin Luther surveys its development during the crises of Luther's life then offers a systematic survey by topics Containing a wealth of quotations from less known writings by Luther and written in a way that will interest both scholar and novice Lohse's magisterial volume is the first to evaluate Luther's theology in both ways Lohse's historical analysis takes up Luther's early exegetical works and then his debates with traditions important to him in the context of the various controversies leading up to his dispute with the Antinomians The systematic treatment shows how the meaning of ancient Christian doctrines took their place within the central teaching of justification by faith Philip Melancthon, Speaker of the Reformation Timothy J. Wengert, 2024-10-28 The studies in this volume illuminate the thought and life of Philip Melancthon one of the most neglected major figures in Reformation history and theology Melancthon was one of the most widely published and respected thinkers in his own day who authored some of the sixteenth century's most important books on Latin and Greek grammar rhetoric dialectics and history to say nothing of his theological output which included the first overview of Protestant theology the first Protestant commentaries on Romans 1 2 Corinthians and John He was also the chief drafter of the Augsburg Confession and wrote its defense the Apology These essays written over the past twenty years commemorate the 450th anniversary of Melancthon's death in 2010 The articles provide a wide ranging picture of Melancthon's thought and life with topics including his view of free will approaches to biblical interpretation his perspective on the church fathers and world history and comparisons to other important figures of the age including Calvin Luther and Erasmus

Recovering the Ecumenical Bonhoeffer Javier A. Garcia, 2019-10-14 In Recovering the Ecumenical Bonhoeffer Javier Garcia explores the possibilities for Dietrich Bonhoeffer's theology to revitalize interest in the ecumenical movement and Christian unity today Although many commentators have lamented the waning interest in the ecumenical movement since the 1960s the celebration of the 500th anniversary of the Protestant Reformation in 2017 coupled with recent inroads such as the ecumenical efforts of Pope Francis have opened new possibilities for the ecumenical project In this context Garcia presents Bonhoeffer as a helpful model for contemporary ecumenical dialogue He finds important points of convergence between Bonhoeffer and Calvin thereby establishing potential areas of rapprochement between the Lutheran and Reformed traditions Beyond examining the state of ecumenism and unfolding the ecumenical promise of Bonhoeffer's thought Garcia assesses the future of ecumenical engagement in a secular age Altogether he proposes a recovery of the ecumenical Bonhoeffer for envisioning new possibilities for church unity in our day Richard Hooker, Reformer and Platonist W.J. Torrance Kirby, 2016-04-08 This book explores key aspects of Richard Hooker's philosophical and theological discourse in the context of currents of thought prevalent in the Magisterial Reformation of the sixteenth century Hooker's treatment of natural law his dependence upon the philosophical discourse and traditional cosmology of Christian Neoplatonism and his appeal to the authority of patristic sources are all closely examined Challenging the received exceptionalist model of much of the twentieth century interpretation of Hooker in particular the concept of his supposed defence of the English Reformation as striking a via media between Rome and mainstream Protestant reform W J Torrance Kirby argues that Hooker adheres to principles of magisterial reform while building upon the assumptions of a distinctively Protestant version of Platonism

Life in Christ Mark A. Garcia, 2008-04-01 In three wide ranging case studies Mark A Garcia offers a comprehensive yet focused analysis of the centrality of union with Christ in Calvin's thought It explains not only the distinctive nature of Calvin's response to Rome on justification but why this response must be carefully distinguished from that of his Lutheran counterparts The fruit of these investigations is the first extensive demonstration that Calvin's exposition of union with Christ in relating justification and sanctification points to an emerging Reformed theology of justification that diverges from the Lutheran tradition Calvin's exegetical and theological model of union with Christ accents the importance in the early Reformed tradition of the relationship between Christology and salvation

Martin Luther's Two Ways of Viewing Life and the Educational Foundation of a Lutheran Ethos Leonard S. Smith, 2011-01-01 Like Leonard Smith's larger study Religion and the Rise of History this essay Martin Luther's Two Ways of Viewing Life asserts that Luther's well known at the same time simul or paradoxical way of viewing life does not capture Luther's thought as a whole because it does not represent his deeply incarnational and dynamic mystical and holistic particularizing and historical way of viewing life based on the power of the Word and the Spirit of God either in his own life or in human history Smith contends 1 that the best way to capture Luther's second basic way of thinking and of viewing life is through the connected prepositions connected especially for Lutherans in with and under 2 that this second basic way was based primarily on the Gospel of John and its great Prologue which shows how God is acting creating and redeeming and how Jesus is the Word become flesh and 3 that understanding both of Luther's ways of viewing life is helpful for understanding Lutheran education and a Lutheran ethos since the sixteenth century Since this brief essay is written primarily for a general audience it can easily be used as a text or supplementary reading for a class seminary or group discussion

The Lord's Prayer; And, The Doctrine of the Two Covenants Ezekiel HOPKINS (successively Bishop of Raphoe and of Derry.), 1846 Two Kingdoms and Two Cities Robert C. Crouse, 2017-07-15 The recent emergence of two kingdoms and two cities approaches to Christian social thinking are shown to have a key and often unacknowledged connection to Luther's reshaping of the Augustinian paradigm The project works for a better understanding of Luther's own thought to help understand the convergences and divergences of Christian political theology in the twentieth century and today In particular Luther's two kingdom thinking issued forth in a strong distinction of law and gospel that was also worked out in twofold pairs of Israel and church general and special revelation creation and redemption and especially the outward and inward life The work traces this legacy through acceptance and modification by Niebuhr and Bonhoeffer Lutheran and Catholic neoconservatives Reformed two kingdom proponents Augustinian liberals and finally Oliver O Donovan The conclusion reflects on both the historical narrative and its connection to an account of modern liberalism as well as a theological reflection on hermeneutical decisions of the twoness of Christian theology Duplex Regnum Christi Jonathon D. Beeke, 2020-09-25 In this historical study Jonathon D Beeke considers the various sixteenth and seventeenth century Reformed expressions regarding the duplex regnum Christi the twofold kingdom of Christ or as especially denominated in the Lutheran context the doctrine of the two kingdoms While a sampling of patristic and medieval sources is considered the focus is on select magisterial Reformers of the sixteenth century and representative intellectual centers of the seventeenth century Leiden Geneva and Edinburgh A primary concern is to examine the development of these formulations over the two centuries in question and relate its maturation to the theological and political context of the early modern period Various conclusions are offered that address the contemporary two kingdoms debate within the Reformed tradition The Paradoxical Vision Robert Benne, 1995 What are the implications of a person's faith for Christian social ethics Robert Benne elaborates a basic theological ethical framework for engaging the Christian vision with its surrounding public environment political ethical cultural and intellectual He offers practical ways in which religious traditions do in fact engage the public environment
