Ua Mau Ke Ea Sovereignty Endures David Keanu Sai, Pū'ā Foundation, 2011-07-12 The Cambridge History of the Pacific Ocean: Volume 2, The Pacific Ocean since 1800 Anne Perez Hattori, Jane Samson, 2023-01-05 Volume II of The Cambridge History of the Pacific Ocean focuses on the latest era of Pacific history examining the period from 1800 to the present day This volume discusses advances and emerging trends in the historiography of the colonial era before outlining the main themes of the twentieth century when the idea of a Pacific centred century emerged It concludes by exploring how history and the past inform preparations for the emerging challenges of the future These essays emphasise the importance of understanding how the postcolonial period shaped the modern Pacific and its historians Paradoxes of Hawaiian Sovereignty J. Kehaulani Kauanui, 2018-10-18 J K haulani Kauanui examines contradictions of indigeneity and self determination in U S domestic policy and international law showing how Hawaiian elites approaches to reforming land gender and sexual regulation in the early nineteenth century that paved the way for sovereign recognition of the kingdom complicate contemporary nationalist activism which too often includes disavowing the indigeneity of indigenous Hawaiians

The Oxford Handbook of Asian American History David Yoo, Eiichiro Azuma, 2016 The Oxford Handbook of Asian American History brings together 27 essays that engage the state of the field with historiographically informed but creative approaches to this diverse and vibrant area The chapters trace Asian American history from the beginning of the migration flows toward the Pacific Islands and the American continent to Japanese American incarceration and Asian American participation in World War II from the experience of exclusion violence and racism to the social and political activism of the late twentieth century The authors explore many of the key aspects of the Asian American experience including politics economy intellectual life the arts education religion labor gender family urban development and legal history

Unconquered States H. E. Chehabi, David Motadel, 2024-11-25 In the heyday of empire most of the world was ruled directly or indirectly by the European powers Unconquered States explores the struggles for sovereignty of the few nominally independent non Western states in the imperial age It examines the ways in which countries such as China Ethiopia Japan the Ottoman Empire Persia and Siam managed to keep European imperialism at bay whereas others such as Hawaii i Korea Madagascar Morocco and Tonga long struggled but ultimately failed to maintain their sovereignty The chapters in this book address four major aspects of the relations these countries had with the Western imperial powers armed conflict and military reform unequal treaties and capitulations diplomatic encounters and royal diplomacy Bringing together scholars from five continents this book provides the first comprehensive global history of the engagement of the independent non European states with the European empires reshaping our understanding of sovereignty territoriality and hierarchy in the modern world order Hawaii's Past in a World of Pacific Islands James M. Bayman, Thomas S. Dye, 2013-03-12 Given its relatively late encounter with the West Hawaii offers an exciting opportunity to study a society whose traditional lifeways and technologies were recorded in native oral traditions and written documents before they were changed by contact with non Polynesian cultures This book in the SAA Press Current Perspectives Series chronicles the role of archaeology in constructing a narrative of Hawaii s cultural past focusing on material evidence dating from the Polynesians first arrival on Hawaii s shores about a millennium ago to the early decades of settlement by Americans and Europeans in the nineteenth century A final chapter discusses new directions taken by native Hawaiians toward changing the practice of archaeology in the islands today

The Reflexivity of Pain and Privilege Ellis Hurd,2019-01-21 The Reflexivity of Pain and Privilege offers a fresh and critical perspective to people of indigenous and or marginalized identifications It highlights the research shared experiences and personal stories and the artistic collections of those who are of mixed heritage and or identity as well as the perspectives of young adolescents who identify as being of mixed racial socio economic linguistic and ethno cultural backgrounds and experiences These auto ethnographic collections serve as an impetus for the untold stories of millions of marginalized people who may find solace here and in the stories of others who are of mixed identity

Neo-Colonial Injustice and the Mass Imprisonment of Indigenous Women Lily George,Adele N. Norris,Antje Deckert,Juan Tauri,2020-09-26 This book closes a gap in decolonizing intersectional and comparative research by addressing issues around the mass incarceration of Indigenous women in the US Australia Canada and Aotearoa New Zealand This edited collection seeks to add to the criminological discourse by increasing public awareness of the social problem of disproportionate incarceration rates It illuminates how settler colonial societies continue to deny many Indigenous peoples the life relatively free from state interference which most citizens enjoy The authors explore how White settler supremacy is exercised and preserved through neo colonial institutions policies and laws leading to failures in social and criminal justice reform and the impact of women s incarceration on their children partners families and communities It also explores the tools of activism and resistance that Indigenous peoples use to resist neo colonial marginalisation tactics to decolonise their lives and communities With most contributors embedded in their indigenous communities this collection is written from academic as well as community and experiential perspectives It will be a comprehensive resource for academics and students of criminology sociology Indigenous studies women and gender studies and related academic disciplines as well as non academic audiences offering new knowledge and insider insights both nationally and internationally

A Power in the World Lorenz Gonschor,2019-06-30 Few people today know that in the nineteenth century Hawai i was not only an internationally recognized independent nation but played a crucial role in the entire Pacific region and left an important legacy throughout Oceania As the first non Western state to gain full recognition as a coequal of the Western powers yet at the same time grounded in indigenous tradition and identity the Hawaiian Kingdom occupied a unique position in the late nineteenth century world order From this position Hawai i s leaders were able to promote the building of independent states based on their country s model throughout the Pacific envisioning the region to become politically unified Such a pan Oceanian polity would be able to withstand foreign colonialism and become in the words of one of the idea's pioneers a Power in the World After being developed over three decades among both native and non native intellectuals close to the Hawaiian court King Kalikoua's government started implementing this vision in 1887 by concluding a treaty of confederation with Samoa a first step toward a larger Hawaiian led pan Oceanian federation Political unrest and Western imperialist interference in both Hawaii and Samoa prevented the project from advancing further at the time and a long interlude of colonialism and occupation has obscured its legacy for over a century Nonetheless it remains an inspiring historical precedent for movements toward greater political and economic integration in the Pacific Islands region today Lorenz Gonschor examines two intertwined historical processes The development of a Hawaii based pan Oceanian policy and underlying ideology which in turn provided the rationale for the second process the spread of the Hawaiian Kingdom's constitutional model to other Pacific archipelagos He argues that the legacy of this visionary policy is today re-emerging in the form of two interconnected movements namely a growing movement in Hawaii to reclaim its legacy as Oceania's historically leading nation state on one hand and an increasingly assertive Oceanian regionalism emanating mainly from Fiji and other postcolonial states in the Southwestern Pacific on the other As a historical reference for both nineteenth century Hawaiian policy serves as an inspiration and guideline for envisioning de colonial futures for the Pacific region

A Nation Rising Noelani Goodyear-Kaopua, Ikaika Hussey, Erin Kahunawaika'ala Wright, 2014-08-27 A Nation Rising chronicles the political struggles and grassroots initiatives collectively known as the Hawaiian sovereignty movement raising issues that resonate far beyond the Hawaiian archipelago issues such as Indigenous cultural revitalization environmental justice and demilitarization

Asian Pacific American Politics Andrew Aoki, Pei-te Lien, 2020-06-29 Asian Pacific American Politics presents some of the most recent research on Asian American politics including both quantitative and qualitative examinations of the role of Asian and Pacific Islander Americans in some of today's major political controversies In the highly polarized politics of the United States in the early 21st century non Black racial minorities such as Asian Americans and Pacific Islander Americans will increasingly find themselves swept into the epicenter of many of the divisive controversies This timely volume presents the latest scholarly research on some of these issues examining questions such as Asian American support for Black Lives Matter responses to racially charged attacks and the differences in the political socialization politicization and community based activism within and across sectors of the Asian American population In addition to examining political identity voting participation political mobilization transnational politics and partisan formation the volume also investigates important but little discussed issues such as the Native Hawaiian sovereignty movement political incorporation of Filipino Americans and the struggle to establish comfort women memorials in the United States Contributors also examine through dialogues how Asian Americans fit into the larger world of American racial politics the extent to which they are likely to build coalitions with other communities of color and the boundaries and contours of Asian American political theory Exploring and Expanding the Political World Pioneered by Don T Nakanishi Asian Pacific

American Politics will be of great interest to scholars of race and ethnicity in American politics immigration and minority incorporation ethnic identity politics and political participation and democratic inclusion of Asians The chapters were originally published in Politics Groups and Identities Prejudice, Stigma, Privilege, and Oppression Lorraine T. Benuto, Melanie P. Duckworth, Akihiko Masuda, William O'Donohue, 2020-05-11 This book addresses the ways in which clinical psychologists ought to conceptualize and respond to the prejudice and oppression that their clients experience Thus the link between prejudice and oppression to psychopathology is explored Basic scientific information about prejudice is reviewed and the current status of the major minority groups is explored Chapters examine the role of prejudice and oppression in institutional structures such as the Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders and professional organizations The discussion addresses ways to assess these phenomena in individual cases and how to intervene in psychotherapy The book ventures to evaluate the status of the profession of psychology with respect to prejudice stigmatization and oppression by critically examining evidence that the profession has responded adequately to these social problems These issues are hard to talk about and are not well talked about in the field This book is a push in the right direction Bridging the Divide between Bible and Practical Theology Denise Dombkowski Hopkins, Michael S. Koppel, 2019-01-10 This volume contributes to closing the unfortunate divide that still exists today between the so called practical and classical disciplines in seminary curricula It builds a bridge across a chasm that should not exist The chapters reflect working on the bridge through a collegial model of sustained conversation out of the contributors different disciplines within Bible and Practical Theology The authors in this volume desire to break out of academic silos that too often lead to fragmented student learning and disjointed ministry practices in the hope that the imaginations of students scholars and ministers may be stimulated in the service of holistic ministry The book is divided into two sections I Theoretical Frameworks in which the authors invite the reader to look more broadly at issues of method context geography and culture as biblical texts and practical theology are brought into dialog and II Reading Biblical Texts which explores biblical books or texts while wearing the lenses of practical theology to mine the intersections and complexities of the encounter across disciplines Whether singly or jointly authored these essays model a dynamic interactive reading of human situations and biblical texts in order to reveal their multivalent complexities

Mysteries and Dreams: the French in Oceania Sylvie Largeaud-Ortega, Lorenz Gonschor, 2025-10-14 Oceania has been the source of mysteries and dreams from the first contact with Europe onwards both for Indigenous Oceanians and outsiders Mysteries and Dreams The French in Oceania is a collection of cross disciplinary essays that explore the mysteries allures and questionings raised by Indigenous Oceanians and French people about their mutually different worldviews as well as their dreams aspirations or disillusion as they navigate their relationships With a strong focus on reciprocity this original project analyzes diverse forms of French association with Oceania and the responses engendered by Indigenous communities authors and artists as they reshape French narratives Organized along three lines history literature and arts this innovative

Glazier,2019-05-10 This book addresses the complex socio political context of natural resource management in coastal and marine environments throughout the contemporary Pacific Islands and provides lessons that can be applied around the globe The author spotlights one particular case in which Native Hawaiians worked successfully to develop a formal policy mechanism through which to advise government agencies in the State of Hawaii on matters regarding traditional and customary use and management of the island s natural resources Glazier describes historic traditional aspects of natural resource use and management in the Hawaiian Islands and the challenging process that was employed to enhance the capacity of modern Hawaiians to influence the course of their future This process successfully broached and addressed truly difficult challenges including but not limited to the convening of representatives of a complex society of indigenous persons in order to elicit traditional place based knowledge and varying perspectives on the appropriate use and management of natural resources the incorporation of such knowledge and perspectives into the modern natural resource management and policy context and the need to balance the interests of indigenous persons and those of more recently arriving persons around the island chain The lessons learned were many and varied and are particularly germane for resource managers scientists policymakers and indigenous persons seeking to undertake balanced natural resource policy decisions in island coastal and indigenous settings around the Pacific and beyond Rethinking Freire and Illich Rosa Bruno-Jofré,Michael

Attridge,Jon Igelmo Zaldívar,2023-10-02 Marking the fiftieth anniversary of two of the most influential books in modern educational and social theory Rethinking Freire and Illich introduces readers to the results of the symposium of Paulo Freire s Pedagogy of the Oppressed and Ivan Illich s Deschooling Society The collection uniquely analyses Freire and Illich together although not in a comparative way It acknowledges that both Freire and Illich led in different ways to a new approach to perceiving and understanding the concept of liberation as a human condition while also presenting current criticisms of their work from a gendered perspective and by Indigenous scholars in the US and Canada Drawing on contributions from historians of education theologians digital experts and philosophers of education the book offers a historical analysis using extensive primary sources and an originality of topics It introduces the ways in which the current generation reads the overall works of Freire and Illich in the search for a reconstructed democratic education As a result Rethinking Freire and Illich presents Freire and Illich in light of contemporary issues in this generation and offers renewed searches for a good and just life and a reconstructed democratic education Cooling the Tropics Hi'ilei Julia Kawehipuaakahaopulani

Hobart,2022-11-21 Beginning in the mid 1800s Americans hauled frozen pond water then glacial ice and then ice machines to Hawai'i all in an effort to reshape the islands in the service of Western pleasure and profit Marketed as essential for white occupants of the nineteenth century Pacific ice quickly permeated the foodscape through advancements in freezing and refrigeration technologies In Cooling the Tropics Hi'ilei Julia Kawehipuaakahaopulani Hobart charts the social history of ice in Hawai'i to show how the interlinked concepts of freshness and refreshment mark colonial relationships to the tropics From chilled drinks and sweets to machinery she shows how ice and refrigeration underpinned settler colonial ideas about race environment and the senses By outlining how ice shaped Hawai'i's food system in accordance with racial and environmental imaginaries Hobart demonstrates that thermal technologies can and must be attended to in struggles for food sovereignty and political self determination in Hawai'i and beyond Duke University Press Scholars of Color First Book Award Recipient
