Unsettled Belonging Educating Palestinian American:

Unsettled Belonging Thea Renda Abu El-Haj, 2015-11-27 Tells the stories of young Palestinian Americans as they navigate and construct lives as American citizens Following these youth throughout their school days Thea Abu El Haj examines citizenship as lived experience dependent on various social cultural and political memberships She illustrates the complex ways social identities are bound up with questions of belonging and citizenship and she details the processes through which immigrant youth are racialized via everyday nationalistic practices publisher description Unsettled Belonging Thea Renda Abu El-Haj, 2015-11-27 Unsettled Belonging tells the stories of young Palestinian Americans as they navigate and construct lives as American citizens Following these youth throughout their school days Thea Abu El Haj examines citizenship as lived experience dependent on various social cultural and political memberships For them she shows life is characterized by a fundamental schism between their sense of transnational belonging and the exclusionary politics of routine American nationalism that ultimately cast them as impossible subjects Abu El Haj explores the school as the primary site where young people from immigrant communities encounter the central discourses about what it means to be American She illustrates the complex ways social identities are bound up with questions of belonging and citizenship and she details the processes through which immigrant youth are racialized via everyday nationalistic practices Finally she raises a series of crucial questions about how we educate for active citizenship in contemporary times when more and more people's lives are shaped within transnational contexts A compelling account of post 9 11 immigrant life Unsettled Belonging is a steadfast look at the disjunctures of modern citizenship Native Presence and Sovereignty in College Amanda R. Tachine, 2022-04-29 What is at stake when our young people attempt to belong to a college environment that reflects a world that does not want them for who they are In this compelling book Navajo scholar Amanda Tachine takes a personal look at 10 Navajo teenagers following their experiences during their last year in high school and into their first year in college It is common to think of this life transition as a time for creating new connections to a campus community but what if there are systemic mechanisms lurking in that community that hurt Native students chances of earning a degree Tachine describes these mechanisms as systemic monsters and shows how campus environments can be sites of harm for Indigenous students due to factors that she terms monsters sense of belonging namely assimilating diminishing harming the worldviews of those not rooted in White supremacy heteropatriarchy capitalism racism and Indigenous erasure This book addresses the nature of those monsters and details the Indigenous weapons that students use to defeat them Rooted in love life sacredness and sovereignty these weapons reawaken students presence and power Book Features Introduces an Indigenous methodological approach called story rug that demonstrates how research can be expanded to encompass all our senses Weaves together Navajo youths stories of struggle and hope in educational settings making visible systemic monsters and Indigenous weaponry Draws from Navajo knowledge systems as an analytic tool to connect history to present and future realities Speaks to the contemporary situation of Native peoples illuminating the challenges that Native students face in making the transition to college Examines historical and contemporary realities of Navajo systemic monsters such as the financial hardship monster deficit not enough monster failure monster and in visibility monster Offers insights for higher education institutions that are seeking ways to create belonging for diverse students Global Latin(o) Americanos Mark Overmyer-Velázquez, Enrique Sepúlveda, 2018 Global Latin o Americanos addresses and reframes a central issue of our time the challenge of incorporating immigrants into Western societies and economies which too often frame immigrants as the problem How Latino immigrants respond and exercise agency under familiar and unfamiliar global conditions is of critical importance on several fronts including the health of democratic societies and the diverse expressions of citizenship across the Latino diaspora Building on the scholarship of new migratory destinations of people from Latin America and the Caribbean Global Latin o Americanos moves toward studies of diasporic citizenship this shift not only de centers U S dominant interpretations but also places less emphasis on the nation state and its economic systems as units of analysis The book includes work by leading scholars of migration in Latin America Asia Europe and the United States It examines a wide range of intraregional and transoceanic migratory flows and addresses critical themes from several disciplinary perspectives Research and Reflections on Southeast Asian American Education and Advancement Wayne E. Wright, Vikrant Chap, Phitsamay S. Uy, Chhany Sak-Humphry, Vichet Chhuon, Bryan Thao Worra, 2025-05-15 This book is in commemoration of the twentieth anniversary of the Journal of Southeast Asian American Education and Advancement JSAAEA and the fiftieth anniversary of Southeast Asian American refugee resettlement in the United States Pivotal research articles reviews and creative works from past issues of JSAAEA have been selected for this volume to document the history and experiences of Cambodian Laotian Hmong and Vietnamese Americans since initial refugee resettlement began in the United States in 1975 as well as the experiences of more recent Southeast Asian immigrant and refugee groups Reviews of academic books novels memoirs children s books and motion pictures further highlight Southeast Asian American perspectives and experiences Creative works including poetry and short stories by Cambodian Laotian Hmong Vietnamese Thai and Burmese American writers provide additional and often intimate insights and reflections on the Southeast Asian American experience Critical Youth Research in Education Arshad Imtiaz Ali, Teresa L. McCarty, 2020-04-23 Critical studies of youth play an increasingly important role in educational research This volume adds to that ongoing conversation by addressing the methodological lessons learned from key scholars in the field With a focus on the doing of critical youth studies in ways that center praxis and relational care in work with youth and their communities the volume showcases scholars discussing their research and reflecting on the practical strategies they have used to operationalize their conceptions of knowledge in youth centered research projects Each chapter addresses the research features challenges tensions and debates of the project engagement with communities and relationality reciprocity and responsibility to participants The focus throughout is on qualitative approaches that are humanizing anti colonial and transformative Handbook of Children and Youth Studies Johanna Wyn, Helen Cahill, Hernán Cuervo, 2024-08-20 This second edition of the handbook gives a new scientific perspective to youth and childhood studies as multi scientific and interdisciplinary subjects which as such have not yet found their own framing in a particular discipline It provides theoretical and methodological key debates and issues that develop and add an understanding of childhood and youth research discipline from a broader perspective The Handbook on Children and Youth Studies draws on current thinking but also challenges theoretical and conceptual orthodoxies in the field drawing on interdisciplinary thinking and critical perspectives It focuses on childhood and youth to address the emerging consensus that the boundaries between childhood youth and adulthood are blurred The view that defining youth and childhood largely in terms of problem topics is out dated Instead the handbook focuses on 16 themes that are open to international perspectives and to different conceptual approaches Each theme is edited by a pair of field editors thereby capturing a plurality of views The 16 themes as a starting point are globally timely and they need scientific debates on the boundaries between childhoods youth and adulthood This handbook will meet the needs of childhood and youth researchers and the academics in the field It recognizes the changing social context of the lives of children and young people while developing theoretical frameworks and discussing about the core substantive issues of Children and Youth Studies Frontiers of Belonging Annika Lems, 2022-07-05 As unprecedented numbers of unaccompanied African minors requested asylum in Europe in 2015 Annika Lems witnessed a peculiar dynamic despite inclusionary language in official policy and broader society these children faced a deluge of exclusionary practices in the classroom and beyond Frontiers of Belonging traces the educational paths of refugee youth arriving in Switzerland amid the shifting sociopolitical terrain of the refugee crisis and the underlying hierarchies of deservingness Lems reveals how these minors sought protection and support especially in educational settings but were instead treated as threats to the economic and cultural integrity of Switzerland Each chapter highlights a specific child s story Jamila Meron Samuel and more as they found themselves left out while on paper being allowed in The result is a highly ambiguous social reality for young refugees resulting in stressful existential balancing acts A captivating ethnography Frontiers of Belonging allows readers into the Swiss classrooms where unspoken distinctions between self and other guest and host refugee and resident were formed policed and challenged Educating African Immigrant Youth Vaughn W. M. Watson, Michelle G. Knight-Manuel, Patriann Smith, 2024 This book illuminates emerging perspectives and possibilities of the vibrant schooling and civic lives of Black African youth and communities in the United States Canada and globally Chapters present key research on how to develop and enact teaching methodologies and research approaches that support Black African immigrant and refugee students The contributors illuminate contours of the Framework for Educating African Immigrant Youth which focuses on four complementary approaches for teaching and learning emboldening tellings of diaspora narratives navigating pasts presence and futures of teaching and learning enacting social civic literacies to extend complex identities and affirming and extending cultural heritage and embodied knowledges languages and practices The frameworks and practices will strengthen how educators address the interplay of identities presented by African and by extension Black immigrant populations Disciplinary perspectives include literacy and language social studies civics mathematics and higher education university and community partnerships teacher education global and comparative education and after school initiatives Contributors Susan Akello Ogwal Sibel Akin Sabuncu Irteza Anwara Mohyuddi OreOluwa Badaki Joel Berends Jasmine L Blanks Jones David Bwire Nyimasata Damba Danjo Liv T D vila Priscila Dias Corr a Maryann J Dreas Shaikha Patrick Keegan Dinamic Kubangana James Alan Oloo Lakeya Omogun Oyemolade Osibodu Natacha Roberts

Education Transformation in Muslim Societies Ilham Nasser, 2022-09-06 Hope is a complex concept one academics use to accept the unknown while also expressing optimism However it can also be an action oriented framework with measurable outcomes In Education Transformation in Muslim Societies scholars from around the world offer a wealth of perspectives for incorporating hope in the education of students from kindergarten through university to stimulate change dialogue and transformation in their communities For instance though progress has been made in Muslim societies on early education and girls enrollment it is not well documented By examining effective educational initiatives and analyzing how they work educators policymakers and government officials can create a catalyst for positive educational reform and transformation Adopting strength based educational discourse contributors to Education Transformation in Muslim Societies reveal how critical the whole person approach is for enriching the brain and the spirit and instilling hope back into the teaching and learning spaces of many Muslim societies and communities Education Transformation in Muslim Societies is a copub with the International Institute of Islamic Thought
