Goering, Paul L. Thomas, 2018-04-16 This edited collection is not a response to the 2016 United States Presidential Election so much as it is a response to the issues highlighted through that single event and since when incredibly smart sophisticated and intelligent members of our society were confused by misinformation campaigns While media literacy and critical media literacy are ideas with long histories in formal education including K 12 students and higher education the need for increased attention to these issues has never reached a flash point like the present The essays collected here are confrontations of post truth fake news mainstream media and traditional approaches to formal schooling But there are no simple answers or quick fixes Critical media literacy we argue here may well be the only thing between a free people and their freedom Adman's Dilemma Paul Rutherford, 2018-01-01 The Adman's Dilemma is a cultural biography that explores the rise and fall of the advertising man as a figure who became effectively a licensed deceiver in the process of governing the lives of American consumers Apparently this personage was caught up in a contradiction both compelled to deceive yet supposed to tell the truth It was this moral condition and its consequences that made the adman so interesting to critics novelists and eventually filmmakers The biography tracks his saga from its origins in the exaggerated doings of P T Barnum the emergence of a new profession in the 1920s the heyday of the adman's influence during the post WW2 era the later rebranding of the adman as artist until the apparent demise of the figure symbolized by the triumph of that consummate huckster Donald Trump In The Adman's Dilemma author Paul Rutherford explores how people inside and outside the advertising industry have understood the conflict between artifice and authenticity The book employs a range of fictional and nonfictional sources including memoirs novels movies TV shows websites and museum exhibits to suggest how the adman embodied some of the strange realities of modernity

The Teacher's Guide to Media Literacy Cyndy Scheibe, Faith Rogow, 2012 A Deeper Sense of Literacy is the first book to suggest that media literacy is both a content area and an approach to teaching that can be integrated into any subject area It combines theory and practical application in a way that addresses the most important questions related to media literacy in education today what is it why is it important how can you teach it across a wide range of curriculum areas and grade levels and does it work Rather than focusing on how to teach media literacy Scheibe and Rogow focus on actually using media literacy to teach lessons across the content areas

Saving American Elections, Mind Over Media Renee Hobbs, 2020-10-20 Winner of the AAP 2021 PROSE Award for Excellence in Social Sciences Propaganda is inescapable It's everywhere Students need to analyze resist critique and create Media literacy educators have always insisted that we are both creators and receivers of media messages The truth of this is even more apparent in today's digital environment with children and adults alike participating in a ubiquitous nonstop stream of social media Clearly students need the tools to interpret news and information critically not just for school but for life in a post truth world where the lines blur between entertainment information and persuasion Renee Hobbs demonstrates how a global perspective on contemporary propaganda enables educators to stimulate both the intellectual curiosity and the cultural sensitivities of students Replete with classroom and online learning activities and samples of student work Mind Over Media provides a state of the art look at the theory and practice of propaganda in contemporary society and shows how to build learners critical thinking and communication skills on topics including computational propaganda content marketing fake news and disinformation
