Unthinking Eurocentrism Multiculturalism And The Media Sightlines:

Unthinking Eurocentrism Ella Shohat, Robert Stam, 2013-09-27 This excellent book corrects eurocentric criticism from media studies in the past by examining Hollywood movie genres such as the western and the musical from a multicultural perspective

Unthinking Eurocentrism Ella Shohat, Robert Stam, 2014-06-05 Unthinking Eurocentrism a seminal and award winning work in postcolonial studies first published in 1994 explored Eurocentrism as an interlocking network of buried premises embedded narratives and submerged tropes that constituted a broadly shared epistemology Within a transdisciplinary study the authors argued that the debates about Eurocentrism and post coloniality must be considered within a broad historical sweep that goes at least as far back as the various 1492s the Inquisition the Expulsion of Jews and Muslims the Conquest of the Americas and the Transatlantic slave trade a process which culminates in the post War attempts to radically decolonize global culture Ranging over multiple geographies the book deprovincialized media cultural studies through a polycentric approach while analysing in depth such issues as postcolonial hybridity antinomies of Enlightenment the tropes of empire gender and rescue fantasies the racial politics of casting and the limitations of positive image analysis The substantial new afterword in this 20th anniversary new edition brings these issues into the present by charting recent transformations of the intellectual debates as terms such as the transnational the commons indigeneity and the Red Atlantic have come to the fore The afterword also explores some cinematic trends such as indigenous media and postcolonial adaptations that have gained strength over the past two decades along with others such as Nollywood that have emerged with startling force Winner of the Katherine Kovacs Singer Best Film Book Award the book has been translated in full or in its entirety into diverse languages from Spanish to Farsi This expanded edition of a ground breaking text proposes analytical grids relevant to a wide variety of fields including postcolonial studies literary studies anthropology media studies cultural studies and critical race studies

Kartemquin Films Patricia Aufderheide, 2024-09-10 How filmmaker philosophers brought the dream of making documentaries and strengthening democracy to award winning reality with help from nuns gang members skateboarders artists disability activists and more The evolution of Kartemquin Films Peabody Emmy and Sundance awarded and Oscar nominated makers of such hits as Hoop Dreams and Minding the Gap is also the story of U S independent documentary film over the last seventy years Patricia Aufderheide reveals the untold story of how Kartemquin developed as an institution that confronts the brutal realities of the industry and society while empowering people to claim their right to democracy Kartemquin filmmakers inspired by pragmatic philosopher John Dewey made their studio a Chicago area institution Activists for a more public media they boldly confronted in their own productions the realities of gender race and class They negotiated the harsh terms and demands of commercial media from 16mm through the streaming era while holding fast to their democratic vision Drawing on archival research interviews and personal experience Aufderheide tells an inspiring story of how to make media that matters in a cynical world of the proliferation of historical novels in English Canadian literature over the last thirty years Canadian Multiculturalism @50 Augie Fleras, 2021-07-26 Choice Award 2022 Outstanding Academic Title The multiculturalization of Canada has catapulted it into the front ranks of countries in advancing a principled diversity governance Fifty years after the inception of a multicultural governance model that seemingly works and is relatively popular Canada remains one of the few countries in the world to believe in multiculturalism Yet the irony is inescapable Notwithstanding its lofty status as a Canadian icon and an aspirational ideal an official multiculturalism remains misunderstood both in Canada and abroad in terms of what it means how it works and for whom and why it endures If anything as the book explains the idea of multiculturalism remains shrouded in the conceptual fog of a riddle wrapped in a mystery inside an enigma An interplay of polite fictions that mask inconvenient truths puts the onus on deconstructing Canadian multiculturalism by conceptualizing strengths including a probe into why multiculturalism ostensibly works in Canada but rarely elsewhere analyzing weaknesses critically assessing its worth and envisioning its future in responding to the new realities and demands of a post multicultural world That Canada's multiculturalism remains a work in progress albeit one with innovative possibilities provides a fitting tribute Understanding Digital Racism Sanjay Sharma, 2023-11-13 Digital technologies are proliferating and transforming racism complicating our understanding and making contemporary racism increasingly harder to challenge Digital racism takes many forms such as viral memes circulating via social media platforms the swarming of networked users targeting people of colour hidden algorithmic classification and sorting and the racial profiling of policing and surveillance systems The variance and complexity of technologically mediated racisms begs the question of whether adequate attention has been paid to digital processes and environments through which race materializes Understanding Digital Racism analyzes the digital realm as a race making technology by exploring the rise dissemination and evolution of contemporary racism Sanjay Sharma offers an innovative approach for understanding how racism as informational and immaterial post racial phenomena is manifested and remade through digital technologies Digital racism is grasped through foregrounding the sociotechnical entanglements of racism and digital technologies An analysis of networked relations information flows subjectivation and affects are critical to addressing the production of digital racism MisReading America Vincent L. Wimbush, Lalruatkima, Melissa Renee Reid, 2013-07-09 MisReading America presents original research on and conversation about reading formations in American communities of color using the phenomenon of the reading of scriptures scripturalizing as an analytical wedge Scriptures here are understood as shorthand for complex social phenomena practices and dynamics The authors take up scripturalizing as a window onto the self understandings politics practices and orientations of marginalized communities These communities have in common the context that is the United States with the challenges it holds for all regarding pressure to conform to conventional canonical forms of communication representation and embodiment mimicry opportunities to speak back to and confront and overturn conventionality interruptions and the need to experience ongoing meaningful and complex relationships reorientation to the centering politics practices and myths that define America

Speculative Fictions Herb Wyile, 2002 An exploration

Doing Digital Migration Studies Koen Leurs, Sandra Ponzanesi, 2025-10-01

Doing Digital Migration presents a comprehensive entry point to the variety of theoretical debates, methodological interventions, political discussions, and ethical debates around migrant forms of belonging as articulated through digital practices. Digital technologies impact upon everyday migrant lives while vice versa migrants play a key role in technological developments be it when negotiating the communicative affordances of platforms and devices as consumers of particular commercial services such as sending remittances as platform gig workers or test cases for new advanced surveillance technologies. With its international scope, this anthology invites scholars to pluralize understandings of the migrant and the digital. The anthology is organized in five different sections: Creative Practices, Digital Diasporas and Placemaking, Affect and Belonging, Visuality and digital media, and Datafication, Infrastructuring and Securitization. These sections are dedicated to emerging key topics and debates in digital migration studies and sections are each introduced by international experts.

I The emphasis on reflective doing of digital migration studies. So far scholarship in this interdisciplinary focus area has remained relatively silent on the topic of accountability and questions of decision making in the research process.

II The truly transdisciplinary and international scope of the volume distinguishes this volume from the disciplinary oriented special issues and monographs published in the field of media and communication anthropology, migration studies, and refugee studies. Digital migration creates new challenges for cross disciplinary dialogues that require an integration of ethnography with digital methods and critical data studies in order to look at the formation of identity and experience, representation, community building, and creating spaces of belongingness.

III The innovative emphasis on everyday lived experiences and practices sheds much needed light on the ways in which increasingly documented infrastructures of datafication and digitization are lived, negotiated, and contested. For this purpose, the volume pays particular attention to the everyday use of digital media for the support of transnational lives, emotional bonds, and cosmopolitan affiliations, focusing also on the role technologies such as social media and smartphones play in shaping local urban and national diasporic formations. This is because it becomes increasingly important to give everyday digital media usage a central role in investigations of transnational belonging, digital intimacy, diasporic community, reproduction, migrant subject formation, long distance political participation, urban social integration, and local national self organization.

The Anthem Handbook of Screen Theory Hunter Vaughan, Tom Conley, 2018-07-30

The Anthem Handbook of Screen Theory offers a unique and progressive survey of screen theory and how it can be applied to a range of moving image texts and sociocultural contexts. Focusing on the handbook angle, the book includes only original essays from established authors in the field and new scholars on the cutting edge of helping screen theory evolve for the twenty-first century vistas of new media, social shifts, and geopolitical change. This method guarantees a strong foundation and clarity for the canon of film theory while also situating it as part of a larger genealogy of art theories and critical thought and reveals the relevance and utility of film theories and concepts to a wide array of expressive practices and specified arguments The Anthem Handbook of Screen Theory is at once inclusive applicable and a chance for writers to innovate and really play with where they think the field is can and should be heading The Misogynistic Backlash Against Women-Strong Films Dana Schowalter, Shannon Stevens, Daniel L. Horvath, 2021-11-29 This book is an exploration of the political struggle for visibility engendered by the growing number of women centered popular films and a critical analysis of the intensifying misogynistic backlash that have accompanied such advances in the depiction of women on screen The book draws from a variety of theoretical and methodological tools to provide critical cultural analysis and alternative readings of women strong films and their important role in society The authors engage with popular culture and the popular press media studies and rhetorical criticism examining new modes of communication while providing historical context to help make sense of these oppositional readings The book includes case studies on Mad Max Fury Road Wonder Woman Atomic Blonde Star Wars and Ghostbusters to analyze critical responses men s rights activist boycotting campaigns online harassment and the political economy that precede and accompany the creation and presentation of these films This is an accessible and timely analysis of the rise of feminist friendly and women led films and the inevitable counterculture of misogyny It is suitable for students and researchers in Media and Communication Studies Gender and Media and Cultural Studies
