Up from Slavery Booker Washington, 2015-05-13 Nineteenth century African American businessman activist and educator Booker Taliaferro Washington s Up from Slavery is one of the greatest American autobiographies ever written Its mantras of black economic empowerment land ownership and self help inspired generations of black leaders including Marcus Garvey Elijah Muhammad Malcolm X and Louis Farrakhan In rags to riches fashion Washington recounts his ascendance from early life as a mulatto slave in Virginia to a 34 year term as president of the influential agriculturally based Tuskegee Institute in Alabama From that position Washington reigned as the most important leader of his people with slogans like cast down your buckets which emphasized vocational merit rather than the academic and political excellence championed by his contemporary rival W E B Du Bois Though many considered him too accommodating to segregationists Washington as he said in his historic Atlanta Compromise speech of 1895 believed that political agitation alone would not save the Negro and that property industry skill intelligence and character would prove necessary to black Americans success The potency of his philosophies are alive today in the nationalist and conservative camps that compose the complex quilt of black American society Slave Stories American Slavery Up from Slavery: an Autobiography by Booker T. Washington Booker T. Washington,J. Mitchell,2013-02-02 IT HAS been my fortune to be associated all my life with a problem a hard perplexing but important problem There was a time when I looked upon this fact as a great misfortune It seemed to me a great hardship that I was born poor and it seemed an even greater hardship that I should have been born a Negro I did not like to admit even to myself that I felt this way about the matter because it seemed to me an indication of weakness and cowardice for any man to complain about the condition he was born to Later I came to the conclusion that it was not only weak and cowardly but that it was a mistake to think of the matter in the way in which I had done I came to see that along with his disadvantages the Negro in America had some advantages and I made up my mind that opportunities that had been denied him from without could be more than made up by greater concentration and power within
