Upstream Or Downstream Issues In Environmental Ethics:

Upstream/downstream Donald Scherer, 1990 Contains essays that explore non reciprocated relationships with regard to the environment This work includes contributions that discuss moral issues that arise when decisions by individuals corporations or governments cause changes in the environment that affect those who do not participate in the decisions

Canadian Issues in Environmental Ethics Wesley Cragg, Allan Greenbaum, Alex Wellington, 1997-06-10 Is it possible to design a forest policy that satisfies ethical and environmental concerns and is acceptable to business labour and First Nations representatives What is the best path through the tangle of ethical issues surrounding the collapse of the east coast fishery What sort of obligations does a rich nation such as Canada have to satisfy the claims of global environmental justice These are the sorts of issues in applied ethics that are tackled in this collection of essays the vast majority of which have been written especially for this volume It is the first Canadian collection of its kind The book is divided in to sections detailing with such topics as the environment and the economy ethical issues relating to non human animals issues of gender and issues relating to native peoples Most of the authors are philosophers though specialists in geography geology and the social sciences are also among the contributors Frequent reference is made to theoretical ethical concerns but the focus throughout is on applied ethics and a variety of case studies are included Examples include essays on animal rights and the case of native hunters surface mining in Northern Ontario the Quebec arctic and fishing communities in the Maritimes Comparisons are frequently drawn to policies and ethical questions arising in other countries most prominently the United States

Environmental Ethics and the Global Marketplace Dorinda G. Dallmeyer, Albert F. Ike, 1998 The global market is the largest and most powerful socioeconomic institution on the planet and as such it demands that those who desire to benefit from it or those who seek to regulate it realize the economic and environmental consequences of their actions The contributors to Environmental Ethics and the Global Marketplace argue that the health of the environment is inextricably linked to the health of the economy and economic strength depends on the preservation of environmental values Ultimately economic and environmental sciences must merge more completely if we are to arrive at ethically justified principles as the basis for national and international environmental policy process enabling environmental ethics to move beyond academic venues into domestic and international decision making

Environmental Ethics Robert Elliot, 1995 This latest addition to the acclaimed Oxford Readings in Philosophy series offers a selection of some of the best articles on ethics and the environment written in the last twenty years Focusing on the philosophical issues underlying this key topic the contributions cover duties to future people resource conservation species and wilderness preservation the relevance of ecology to ethics ecofeminism and the tension between political liberalism and environmentalism Including writings by Baird Callicot Colleen D Clements Mary Midgley John Passmore Holmes Rolston III Mark Sagoff Elliott Sober Mary B Williams Andrew Brennan Freya Matthews Val Plumwood and Richard Routley this accessible and timely book makes a perfect introduction to the main debates in this area Environmental Ethics and Forestry Peter C. List, 2000 During the past twenty five years North American forestry has received increasingly vigorous scrutiny Critics including the environmentalists environmental scientists representatives of public interest groups and many individual citizens have expressed concerns about forestry's basic assumptions and methods as well as its practical outcomes Criticism has centered on such issues as the exploitation of forests for timber production the reduction and fragmentation of old growth habitats the destruction of biodiversity the degradation of grasslands through grazing practices lack of government attention to recreation facilities silvicultural methods like clearcutting and the use of herbicides and pesticides the exportation of industrial forestry techniques to other parts of the world and the use of public monies to provide services for private resource companies as in the creation of logging roads This rising tide of public scrutiny has led many foresters to suspect that their contract with society to manage forests using their best professional judgment had been undermined Some of these professionals as well as some of their critics have begun to reexamine their old beliefs and to look for new ways of practicing forestry Part of this reflective process has entailed new directions in environmental ethics and environmental philosophy This reader brings together some of the new thinking in this area Here students of the applied environmental and natural resource sciences as well as the interested general reader will discover a rich sampling of writings in environmental ethics and philosophy as they apply to forestry Readings focus on basic ethical systems in forestry and forest management philosophical issues in forestry ethics codes of ethics in forestry and related natural resource sciences such as fisheries science and wildlife biology Aldo Leopold's land ethic in forestry ethical advocacy and whistleblowing in government resource agencies the ethics of new forestry ecoforestry and public debate in forestry as well as ethical issues in global forestry such as the responsibilities of forest corporations environmentalists and individual wood consumers This volume contains materials from the founders of forestry ethics such as Bernhard Fernow Gifford Pinchot John Muir and Aldo Leopold from such organizations as the Society of American Foresters the Wildlife Society the American Fisheries Society Forest Service Employees for Environmental Ethics and the Ecoforesters group in addition to writings by a variety of well known environmental philosophers and foresters including Holmes Rolston Robin Attfield Lawrence Johnson Michael McDonald Paul Wood James E Coufal Raymond Craig Kristin Shrader Frechette Jeff DeBonis Jim L Bowyer Alasdair Gunn Goug Gaigle Alan G McQuillan Stephanie Kaza Alan Dregson Duncan Taylor and Kathleen Dean Moore Author note Peter C List is Professor of Philosophy at Oregon State University where he teaches courses on environmental ethics ethical issues in the natural resource sciences and sustainable forestry He is the author of articles on Aldo Leopold's land ethic and co author of several articles on public attitudes about federal forests and forest management published in the Journal of Forestry and Society and Natural Resources Postmodern Environmental Ethics Max Oelschlaeger, 1995-08-17 This book explains the role of language in causing and in resolving the ecocrisis showing that ecologically adaptive behavior can be facilitated through language The authors explore the discourses of deep ecology ecofeminism Judeo Christianity quantum theory and Native American world views all to the end of empowering ecosocial change Applied Ethics in a Troubled World Edgar Morscher, Otto Neumaier, Peter M. Simons, Peter Simons, 1998-03-31 The 23 papers that were prepared for a 1991 symposium that was cancelled beneath the weight of public and professional protests at some of the speakers invited particularly Peter Singer They analyze the application of theoretical considerations arising from philosophical reflection to particular concrete cases and situations of moral conflict in such fields as the environment biology and medicine business and professions politics law and society Among the topics are a philosophical critique of legal rights for natural objects comparing the value of human and nonhuman life business ethics as a goal rights system liberal society and planned morality and moral philosophy and its function No subject index Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Biodiversity and Democracy Paul Malcolm Wood, 2000 This work argues that the problem of extinction can be traced to how we think about biodiversity and democratic societies While biodiversity is usually confused with biological resources Wood argues that it should be conceived as an essential environmental condition

Climate Change and Liberal Priorities Gideon Calder, Catriona McKinnon, 2013-09-13 Can and should liberalism make itself hospitable to a politics which does justice to climate change To what extent are the values methods and assumptions of liberalism adaptable to the challenges raised Liberal thinking broadly construed may dominate the Academy and the political landscape Are the environmental priorities that are thrown into relief by climate change a threat to it or are they an opportunity for it to show its worth This book explores fresh arguments by leading scholars both of whom are sceptical of liberalism's capacity to meet these challenges and sympathetic to the project of developing liberal values so as to create a liberal approach that can deliver climate change justice The chapters appeal to new insights and considerations reveal the complexity of the issues at stake in the real world of climate change politics They make the political theory of climate change justice available to decision makers whose practice will determine whether we achieve it This book was previously published as a special issue of Critical Review of International Social and Political Economy Preparing for an Uncertain Climate, 1993
