Thriller Theater Large Print:

The Thriller Theater Tim Hunt, Kathy Hunt, 2015-11-29 There was this feeling a foreboding It only lasted a moment then everything changed I stood there overlooking the town I grew up in Rochelle Kansas So much had happened since I last looked down on this little hamlet I listened and smiled as I heard the town hall clock strike twelve My name is Christopher Blake My Father and his brother started The Thriller Theater here in the town many many years ago The Blake brothers were known for putting on quite a show People would come from all over to watch an old black and white horror flick When my father David Blake was killed my mother moved us as far away as she could get Uncle Dean made sure that mom got dad's cut from the theater so we always had enough but I always hated that building It kept dad away from home It was always creepy and everyone said it was haunted After all the house they tore down to build it was haunted Lots of murder in there I think the biggest reason was that my father died there And then there was that thing in the back of the building I'm getting ahead of myself let me tell you my story of my return to The Thriller Theater
