Thuis in de late middeleeuwen Provinciaal Overijssels Museum, 1980 At Home in Renaissance Bruges Julie De Groot, 2022-03-29 Domestic materiality in a remarkable European city How did citizens in Bruges create a home What did an ordinary domestic interior look like in the sixteenth century And more importantly how does one study the domestic culture of bygone times by analysing documents such as probate inventories These questions seem straightforward yet few endeavours are more challenging than reconstructing a sixteenth century domestic reality from written sources This book takes full advantage of the inventory and convincingly frames household objects in their original context of use Meticulously connecting objects people and domestic spaces the book introduces the reader to the rich material world of Bruges citizens in the Renaissance their sensory engagement their religious practice the role of women and other social factors By weaving insights from material culture studies with urban history At Home in Renaissance Bruges offers an appealing and holistic mixture of in depth socio economic cultural and material analysis In its approach the book goes beyond heavy handed theories and stereotypes about the exquisite taste of aristocratic elites focusing instead on the domestic materiality of Bruges middling groups Evocatively illustrated with contemporary paintings from Bruges and beyond this monograph shows a nuanced picture of domestic materiality in a remarkable European city Manors and Markets Bas van Bavel, 2010-03-25 Exploring the Low Countries at a regional level van Bavel highlights the importance of localized structures for determining the nature of social transitions and economic growth Single Life and the City 1200-1900 Isabelle Devos, Julie De Groot, Ariadne Schmidt, 2015-07-23 By taking on a long term perspective a large geographical scope and moving beyond the homogeneous treatment of single people this book fleshes out the particularities of urban singles and allows for a better understanding of the attitudes and values underlying this lifestyle in the European past The Technology of Salvation and the Art of Geertgen tot Sint Jans John R. Decker, 2017-07-05 Investigating the complex interactions between devotional imagery and Church doctrine in the Low Countries during the fifteenth century this book demonstrates how the pictorial arts intersected with popular religious practice The author reconstructs the conceptual frameworks underlying the use and production of religious art in this period and provides a more nuanced understanding of the use of images in the process of soul formation This study delves into the complexity of the early modern system of personal justification and argues that religious images and objects were part of a larger Technology of Salvation In order to make these connections clearer the author analyzes selected works by Geertgen tot Sint Jans Little Gerard at St John s and shows how they functioned within their larger social and historical milieu Medieval Archaeology in the Netherlands J. C. Besteman, Johannes Maria Bos, H. A. Heidinga, 1990 The Fifteenth Century Netherlandish Schools National Gallery (Great Britain), Lorne Campbell, 1998 Leven te Leuven in de late middeleeuwen Lutgarde Bessemans, 1998 The Antiquaries Journal , 1988 Pre-Eyckian Panel Painting in the Low Countries Dominique Deneffe, Famke Peters, Wim Fremout, 2009 Surviving pre

Eyckian panel painting of around 1400 is in short supply but more remains than was thought At present the list of works to be studied includes some thirty objects in collections in Belgium and elsewhere In the first volume ten objects which in fact constitute the majority of pre Eyckian works in Belgian collections are documented as thoroughly as possible Their interpretation is underpinned not only by classic art historical analysis but also by macro photography X radiography infrared photography and reflectography dendrochronological data and in so far as was feasible or justifiable laboratory analysis of pigments and binding media The research has benefited to the full from the expertise of the many specialists of the IRPA KIK In volume two of this publication are a number of individual contributions by guest authors They cover diverse topics ranging from specific technical observations regarding one noteworthy feature or group of works to historical context peripheral iconographic phenomena aspects of restoration and the exploration of Ghent s archives by way of a case study

Public and Private Spaces John Loughman, John Michael Montias, 2000 The seventeenth century in the Northern Netherlands was a period that saw the widespread domestication of easel pictures when paintings were acquired in significant numbers by a broad cross section of society as a means of decorating the home This is the first extended study to look at the role and function of paintings and other works of art in Dutch homes of the seventeenth century In what numbers were paintings dispersed throughout the various rooms of the house Were certain subjects regarded as more appropriate than others for display in a particular room In what arrangements were paintings hung on the walls and how did this affect the way in which they were apprehended A wide range of contemporary sources are drawn upon including estate inventories and other archival material published texts on art architecture and social manners and images of the domestic interior In one chapter a close analysis is made of a small number of individual inventories which are fully transcribed in the appendices investigating the motivations that lie behind the display of works of art and their relationship to other furnishings

The Flemish Primitives Musées royaux des beaux-arts de Belgique, Anne Dubois, 1996 The fifth volume examines all the works painted by anonymous masters Most works of the 15th and early 16th centuries are not signed Several of these works have not proved possible to attribute to a known painter or to a master with a provisional name These works labelled as anonymous have been little studied until now because they are in general thought to be of lesser quality and because researchers have prioritised the study of more important masters It is however becoming increasingly apparent that these reflect the ongoing production of the time in the Southern Netherlands Beside the fact that these paintings represent the themes that enjoyed a certain popularity at the time their study opens perspectives onto the socio economic context and workshop practice These paintings could be destined for a broad market and betray different working methods allowing for swift execution in several copies Furthermore two of these anonymous works dating from around 1400 or a little bit later rank amongst the rare representatives of pictorial production in the Southern Netherlands prior to the technical innovations introduced by the Flemish Primitives This production is by
