the company's business plan. "We're not going to be a one-trick pony," says the president. "We're going to be a multi-trick pony."

McDonald's is not alone in its efforts to diversify. In fact, many other companies are looking for ways to expand their product lines and reach new markets. This is a natural progression for many businesses, as they seek to grow and remain competitive in a crowded market.

One of the most common ways to diversify is through product development. This involves creating new products or services that complement the existing ones. Another common strategy is market expansion, which involves entering new geographic areas or targeting different customer segments.

There are many other ways to diversify, and each company will need to find the right strategy for its specific situation. However, the key is to be proactive and innovative, and to always be looking for new opportunities to grow and expand.
