Kālacakra and the Tibetan Calendar Edward Henning, 2007 Kalacakra and the Tibetan Calendar describes the contents of current Tibetan almanacs from basic mathematics to symbolic and historical information Essential for understanding the Kalacakra Tantra s first chapter this book describes the origin of the calendrical systems in this Tantra and translates and elucidates the relevant sections from its famous commentary the Vimalaprabha The main calendars in use in Tibet today have remained unchanged since the 15th century when lamas in several different traditions tried to make sense of the calculation systems they had inherited from India and to adjust them to remove increasingly obvious errors This book analyzes the main systems that survive today assessing their accuracy and comparing them with the methods described in the original Tantra Published by American Institute of Buddhist Studies AIBS

Frontier Tibet Stéphane Gros, 2025-10-01 Frontier Tibet Patterns of Change in the Sino Tibetan Borderlands addresses a historical sequence that sealed the future of the Sino Tibetan borderlands It considers how starting in the late nineteenth century imperial formations and emerging nation states developed competing schemes of integration and debated about where the border between China and Tibet should be It also ponders the ways in which this border is internalised today creating within the People s Republic of China a space that retains some characteristics of a historical frontier The region of eastern Tibet called Kham the focus of this volume is a productive lens through which processes of place making and frontier dynamics can be analysed Using historical records and ethnography the authors challenge purely externalist approaches to convey a sense of Kham s own centrality and the agency of the actors involved They contribute to a history from below that is relevant to the history of China and Tibet and of comparative value for borderland studies

My Appeal to the World His Holiness The Dalai Lama, 2015-03-10 His Holiness the Fourteenth Dalai Lama is the foremost spokesperson for the people of the Tibetan Plateau although his home is in India in the Himalayan foothills where he has been forced to live in exile since 1959 As a Buddhist monk his main focus has been the spiritual life and the leadership of his people in exile ensuring their survival and preserving their unique Buddhist culture while appealing to the world to stop the destruction of their homeland and the six million Tibetans oppressed within it Every March 10th from 1961 until 2011 in commemoration of the greatest uprising of the Tibetan people against the Chinese military occupation the Dalai Lama delivered an appeal to the world on behalf of his people Each statement is a heartfelt call to recognize the truth and the factual reality of Tibet s history and situation a cry for help a plea for justice and a pledge of determination to withstand the worst and to overcome In these annual addresses he began to articulate and fully express his overarching appeal to humanity All of the Dalai Lama s March 10th speeches at their most poignant and eloquent are collected here introduced and historically contextualized by Sofia Stril Rever an author and scholar of Tibetan history and culture and Buddhist spirituality who has long served as his French translator Here in this book is his appeal to us all The people of all nations have heard it and have tried to help but their governments still have not dared to stand up effectively for justice on behalf of the Tibetan people and for recognition of the basic human rights to which we all are entitled The question therefore remains Who will finally respond to this appeal in time to prevent the ultimate disaster that is looming on the roof of the world

One-Volume Libraries: Composite and Multiple-Text Manuscripts Michael Friedrich, Cosima Schwarke, 2016-11-07 Composite and multiple text manuscripts are traditionally studied for their individual texts but recent trends in codicology have paved the way for a more comprehensive approach Manuscripts are unique artefacts which reveal how they were produced and used as physical objects While multiple text manuscripts codicologically are to be considered as production units i.e. they were originally planned and realized in order to carry more than one text composites consist of formerly independent codicological units and were put together at a later stage with intentions that might be completely different from those of its original parts Both sub types of manuscripts are still sometimes called miscellanies a term relating to the texts only The codicological difference is important for reconstructing why and how these manuscripts which in many cases resemble or contain a small library were produced and used Contributions on the manuscript cultures of China India Africa the Islamic world and European traditions lead not only to the conclusion that one volume libraries have been produced in many manuscript cultures but allow also for the identification of certain types of uses
