Samuel Bing

Tiffany Glas Vazen Lampen Meubels Sieraden:

Eigen huis & interieur, 1989 De oorsprong van l'art nouveau Gabriel P Weisberg, Edwin Becker, Évelyne Possémé, 2004 The opening of Sigmund Bing's gallery L'Art Nouveau had been an eagerly expected event in the Paris art world throughout the latter half of 1895 since Bing first announced that he would be soon exhibiting artistic furniture. The doors finally opened on 26 December 1895 as visitors poured in at 22 Rue de Provence to admire Bing's collection. Beginning with Bing's special feeling for Asian art, the author discusses his many other eclectic interests in art. Over 300 colour illustrations show the objects that were traded in his gallery: Tiffany glass paintings and sculptures by Henri Toulouse-Lautrec, Rodin, Claudel and Vuillard, as well as furniture, ceramics and jewellery by Van de Velde, Colonna De Feure and Gaillard. The book is based on extensive archive research tracing destinations of the art objects that Bing traded to collectors and museums or sponsored personally. The authors show how one man, an art dealer, became an international trendsetter who influenced the canon in Europe and the US. The result is a renewed appreciation of Sigmund Bing's role as the principal founder of the new style that carries the name of his gallery, Art Nouveau.

Experts in the field have made a selection of exceptional lamps, many of which have rarely been seen or published, and each one has been newly photographed with the latest photographic techniques to reveal in extraordinary detail the artistic quality and high craftsmanship of these masterpieces of decorative art. Martin Eidelberg and Alice Cooney Frelinghuysen have contributed essays on the history of the lamps, enlarging our understanding of Louis Comfort Tiffany's achievement. They have also drawn upon a host of previously unpublished photographs, paintings and watercolors by Tiffany and other artists in his employ, as well as on working drawings and studio photographs to evoke the lost gardens and interiors of Tiffany's country estate, Laurelton Hall, that so inspired him. They outline the development and manufacture of the Tiffany lamp, from freehand sketch to the finished form, as well as the chief decorative themes in Tiffany's glass masterpieces and their relation to the work of other fin de siècle glassmakers. In this book, light, color and the inspiration of nature combine to produce a deliciously sensuous experience.
