Tijdschrift Voor Geschiedenis Deel 1 1985:

Variation and Reconstruction Thomas D. Cravens, 2006 The relation of language variation to reconstructed languages and to the methodology of reconstruction has long been neglected In this volume the relationship between language and variation is considered from a number of different angles looking at evidence from various language families In doing so the papers in this volume address a number of interconnected issues which are of current concern in comparative and historical linguistics New Serial Titles ,1992 Duizend jaar Gouda P. of the Stichting Unger van Brero Fonds In de put Bart Delbroek,2016 In de put gaat over de dagelijkse werking van de arbeidsmarkt voor mijnwerkers in Belgisch Limburg In zijn onderzoek is Bart Delbroek uitgegaan van het idee van de arbeidsmarkt als arena met daarin een centrale rol voor machts en afhankelijkheidsrelaties Die waren in het Kempense mijnbekken overduidelijk in het voordeel van de mijndirecties Het arbeidsmarktbeleid van de mijndirecties werd gekenmerkt door een paternalistische en autoritaire visie op de arbeidsverhoudingen Toch waren er grenzen aan hun machtspositie Deze werden in de eerste plaats bepaald door de regulering van de arbeidsverhoudingen door de overheid Maar de grootste hinderpaal voor de mijnmaatschappijen vormde de aard van het mijnwerkersberoep zelf De schaarste aan arbeidskrachten leidde tot scherpe concurrentie op de arbeidsmarkt tussen de werkgevers onderling zowel binnen Limburg als daarbuiten Dat bood mijnwerkers de mogelijkheid om hun eigen positie te verbeteren 0 Inclusive Commons and the

Sustainability of Peasant Communities in the Medieval Low Countries Maïka De Keyzer,2018-04-24 Is inclusiveness in the commons and sustainability a paradox Late medieval and Early Modern rural societies encountered challenges because of growing population pressure urbanisation and commercialisation While some regions went along this path and commercialised and intensified production others sailed a different course maintaining communal property and managing resources via common pool resource institutions To prevent overexploitation and free riding it was generally believed that strong formalised institutions strict access regimes and restricted use rights were essential By looking at the late medieval Campine area a sandy infertile and fragile region dominated by communal property and located at the core of the densely populated and commercialised Low Countries it has become clear that sustainability economic success and inclusiveness can be compatible Because of a balanced distribution of power between smallholders and elites strong property claims a predominance of long term agricultural strategies and the vitality of informal institutions and conflict resolution mechanisms the Campine peasant communities were able to avert ecological distress while maintaining a positive economic climate

Tussen commercieel en sociaal krediet H. A. J. Maassen,1994 Two Centuries of Solidarity K.P. Companje,R.H.M. Hendriks,K.F.E. Veraghtert,B.E.M. Widdershoven,2025-10-01 Today health insurance is a key component in the system of social security in most European Union countries In many of these countries modern health insurance funds and healthcare insurers play an essential role in implementing the public health insurance system Many of these health insurance funds have a long and fascinating history of which clear traces can be seen today in the organisation and structure of health insurance as well as health insurance funds and insurers In Two centuries of solidarity the authors compare the systems of health insurance health insurance funds and healthcare insurers in Germany Belgium and the Netherlands Given the similar political economic and social development that these countries have undergone in the past 60 years and the availability of a qualitatively high level of health care one might expect a high degree of similarity between these countries healthcare insurance systems However the dissimilarities are surprising In fact these differences are currently becoming ever more apparent between systems in general and the structure and operation of the health insurance funds and health care insurers in particular. The differences include the compulsory nature of insurance, the extent of coverage, premiums, entrepreneurship, competition, and the degree of private insurance. Many of these national singularities can be understood and explained only by considering the historical background of the health insurance systems, the insurers and their evolution over the past two centuries. This study adopts an institutional and political perspective towards a further understanding of the development of health insurance and of how this ultimately determined the specific nature of the healthcare insurers and funds and the way they currently operate in Germany, Belgium, and the Netherlands. Geschiedenis van Holland Thimo de Nijs, Eelco Beukers, 2002

Leven Op de Pof Bart Willems, 2009-12-23. De economie in het ancien régime had te kampen met grote onzekerheden. In een wereld van onstabiele markten, zwakke financiële instellingen en de afwezigheid van echte regulering, speelde krediet een cruciale rol. In dit boek wordt onderzocht op welke manier kleine producenten en winkeliers in de vroegmoderne periode een antwoord hebben trachten te vinden op de altijd aanwezige kredietcrisis. Hierbij wordt krediet niet enkel als een financiële techniek en economisch fenomeen bestudeerd, maar is er tevens getracht de traditionele schotten tussen de sociaal economische en de cultuur en mentaliteitsgeschiedenis te doorbreken. Zo wordt ruime aandacht besteed aan de rol van krediet als cement of conflictelement binnen de bestaande sociale verhoudingen en de representatie van krediet in de populaire literatuur. Antwerp, Story of a Metropolis Jan van der Stock, 1993
