Time Maps Eviatar Zerubavel, 2004-11 As Eviatar Zerubavel demonstrates in Time Maps we cannot answer questions such as these without a deeper understanding of how we envision the past In a pioneering attempt to map the structure of our collective memory Zerubavel considers the cognitive patterns we use to organize the past in our minds and the mental strategies that help us string together unrelated events into coherent and meaningful narratives as well as the social grammar of battles over conflicting interpretations of history Drawing on fascinating examples that range from Hiroshima to the Holocaust from Columbus to Lucy and from ancient Egypt to the former Yugoslavia Zerubavel shows how we construct historical origins how we tie discontinuous events together into stories how we link families and entire nations through genealogies and how we separate distinct historical periods from one another through watersheds such as the invention of fire or the fall of the Berlin Wall Time Maps Eviatar Zerubavel, 2004 Time Maps Eviatar Zerubavel, 2003 Book Review: Time Maps: Collective Memory and the Social Shape of the Past Tomaz Zerubaveled, 2005 Historical Consciousness and Practical Life Paul Zanazanian, 2024-11-30 Historical Consciousness and Practical Life introduces a novel approach to examining how people construct and employ historical knowledge in their daily lives In viewing history as an embodied cultural practice that constitutes the background to our meaning making the book demonstrates how researchers and others can investigate the ways in which people make sense of time s flow in their now moment engagements with the world and use that information to position themselves regarding key social problems with historical roots The book provides a glimpse at how humans enter historically embedded thinking problems seeking to resolve them Paul Zanazanian draws on a study of the community leaders of English speaking Quebec to illustrate the practical life methodology s workings In looking at their different uses of history for strengthening their group s vitality in the province he identifies five key stances these leaders employ for positioning their sense of purpose and responsibility for securing English speaking Quebec s future Ultimately Historical Consciousness and Practical Life argues that community leaders who complicate and problematize their uses of history are the best positioned to make positive transformations for their group Violence and Genocide in Kurdish Memory Eren Yldırım Yetkin, 2022-07-11 Kurdische Erinnerungen an den Genozid an den Armeniern stellen die systematische Leugnung durch die t rkischen Staatsstrukturen in Frage und er ffnen neue M glichkeiten der Vergangenheitsbew ltigung Dieses Buch untersucht kurdische Biografien insbesondere aus Van in der T rkei und erforscht die Dynamik der miteinander verflochtenen Erinnerungsregime in Bezug auf die politische Gewalt an Armeniern und syrischen Christ innen der osmanischen kaiserlichen Untertanen und an kurdischen B rger innen der T rkei Diese Lebensgeschichten beleuchten die Komplexit t des Erinnerens einschlie lich kollektiver und individueller Erinnerungsvorstellungen ber Gewalt T terschaft und Opferrolle in Vergangenheit und Gegenwart Urgent Archives Michelle Caswell, 2021-05-19 Urgent Archives argues that archivists can and should do more to disrupt white supremacy and hetero patriarchy beyond the standard liberal archival solutions of more diverse collecting and more inclusive description Grounded in the emerging field of critical archival studies this book uncovers how dominant western archival theories and practices are oppressive by design while looking toward the the radical politics of community archives to envision new liberatory theories and practices Based on more than a decade of ethnography at community archives sites including the South Asian American Digital Archive SAADA the book explores how members of minoritized communities activate records to build solidarities across and within communities trouble linear progress narratives and disrupt cycles of oppression Caswell explores the temporal representational and material aspects of liberatory memory work arguing that archival disruptions in time and space should be neither about the past nor the future but about the liberatory affects and effects of memory work in the present Urgent Archives extends the theoretical range of critical archival studies and provides a new framework for archivists looking to transform their practices The book should also be of interest to scholars of archival studies museum studies public history memory studies gender and ethnic studies and digital humanities

Soviet Space Mythologies Slava Gerovitch,2015-06-18 From the start the Soviet human space program had an identity crisis Were cosmonauts heroic pilots steering their craft through the dangers of space or were they mere passengers riding safely aboard fully automated machines Tensions between Soviet cosmonauts and space engineers were reflected not only in the internal development of the space program but also in Soviet propaganda that wavered between praising daring heroes and flawless technologies Soviet Space Mythologies explores the history of the Soviet human space program within a political and cultural context giving particular attention to the two professional groups space engineers and cosmonauts who secretly built and publicly represented the program Drawing on recent scholarship on memory and identity formation this book shows how both the myths of Soviet official history and privately circulating counter myths have served as instruments of collective memory and professional identity These practices shaped the evolving cultural image of the space age in popular Soviet imagination Soviet Space Mythologies provides a valuable resource for scholars and students of space history history of technology and Soviet and post Soviet history States of Memory David C. Yates, 2019-05-29 The Persian War was one of the most significant events in ancient history It halted Persia's westward expansion inspired the Golden Age of Greece and propelled Athens to the heights of power From the end of the war almost to the end of antiquity the Greeks and later the Romans recalled the battles and heroes of this war with unabated zeal The resulting monuments and narratives have long been used to reconstruct the history of the war itself but they have only recently begun to be used to explore how the conflict was remembered over time States of Memory focuses on the initial recollection of the war in the classical period down to the Lamian War 480-322 BCE Drawing together recent work on memory theory and a wide range of ancient evidence Yates argues that the Greek memory of the war was deeply divided from the outset Despite the panhellenic scope of the conflict the Greeks very rarely recalled the war as Greeks Instead they presented themselves as members of their respective city states What emerged was a tangled web of idiosyncratic stories about the Persian War that competed with each other fiercely throughout the classical period It was not until Philip of Macedonia and Alexander the Great dealt a devastating blow to the very notion of the independent city state at the battle of Chaeronea that anything like a unified memory of the Persian War came to dominate the tradition Diversity in the East-Central European Borderlands Eleonora Fedor, Julie Narvselius, 2021-11-16 Built on up to date field material this edited volume suggests an anthropological approach to the palimpsest like milieu of Wrocław Lviv Chernivtsi and Chişinău In these East Central European borderline cities the legacies of Nazism Marxism Leninism and violent ethno nationalism have been revisited in recent decades in search of profound moral reckoning and in response to the challenges posed by the post transitional period Present shapes and contents of these urban settings derive from combinations of fragmented material environments cultural continuities and political ruptures present day heritage industries and collective memories about the contentious past expressive architectural forms and less conspicuous meaning making activities of human actors In other words they evolve from perpetual tensions between choices of the past and the burden of the past A novel feature of this book is its multi level approach to the analysis of engagements with the lost diversity in historical urban milieus full of post war voids and ruptures In particular the collected studies test the possibility of combining the theoretical propositions of Memory Studies with broader conceptualizations of borderlands cosmopolitan sociality urban mythologies and hybridity The volume's contributors are Eleonora Narvselius Bo Larsson Natalia Otrishchenko Anastasia Felcher Juliet D Golden Hana Cervinkova Paweł Czajkowski Alexandr Voronovici Barbara Pabjan Nadiia Bureiko Teodor Lucian Moga and Gaele Fisher Fractured Fifties Christine Sprengler, 2023 The 1950s as a cultural concept has surged with astonishing force over the last half century Cultural and political investment in the postwar era has been heavily determined by the desires anxieties ideologies and technologies of the contexts in which they surface In this book author Christine Sprengler explores how contextualizing factors shaped the 1950s in different ways and how cinematic representations spearheaded challenged or intervened in our cultural memories of the era Fractured Fifties The Cinematic Periodization and Evolution of a Decade presents a two pronged argument that cinema helped define the 1950s by contributing in considerable and meaningful ways to the process of periodization and subsequently a common conception of the decade and that cinema itself has fractured our understanding of the 1950s Fractured Fifties challenges a reductive and fairly cohesive set of tropes with a complex amalgam of representations that also intervene in debates about historiography historicity cultural memory mediation nostalgia and periodization Ultimately Sprengler posits that cinema has complicated our sense of the 1950s yielding in the process a series of 1950s types or kinds e g The Leave it to Beaver Fifties The Jukebox Fifties and The Cold War Fifties The Retromediated Fifties as well as a wealth of critical insights into myriad pasts presents and the evolving relationships between them
