West Hollywood Images Of America:

Images of American Living Alan Gowans,1976 The Women's West Susan Armitage,Elizabeth Jameson,1987 Uses selections from diaries public records letters interviews and fiction to describe the experiences of women in the West including Indians servants waitresses prostitutes and farmers The Annotated Big Sleep Raymond Chandler,2018-07-17 The first fully annotated edition of Raymond Chandler s 1939 classic The Big Sleep features hundreds of illuminating notes and images alongside the full text of the novel and is an essential addition to any crime fiction fan s library One of The Atlantic s Great American Novels of the Past 100 Years A masterpiece of noir Raymond Chandler s The Big Sleep helped to define a genre Today it remains one of the most celebrated and stylish novels of the twentieth century This comprehensive annotated edition offers a fascinating look behind the scenes of the novel bringing the gritty and seductive world of Chandler s iconic private eye Philip Marlowe to life The Annotated Big Sleep solidifies the novel s position as one of the great works of American fiction and will surprise and enthrall Chandler s biggest fans Including Personal letters and source texts The historical context of Chandler s Los Angeles including maps and images Film stills and art from the early pulps An analysis of class gender sexuality and ethnicity in the novel The American West: A New Interpretive History Robert V. Hine,John Mack Faragher,Jon T. Coleman,2017-08-08 A fully revised and updated new edition of the classic history of western America The newly revised second edition of this concise engaging and unorthodox history of America s West has been updated to incorporate new research including recent scholarship on Native American lives and cultures An ideal text for course work it presents the West as both frontier and region examining the clashing of different cultures and ethnic groups that occurred in the western territories from the first Columbian contacts between Native Americans and Europeans up to the end of the twentieth century Hollywood's West Peter C. Rollins,John E. O'Connor,2005-11-11 An excellent study that should interest film buffs academics and non academics alike Journal of the West Hollywood s West examines popular perceptions of the frontier as a defining feature of American identity and history Seventeen essays by prominent film scholars illuminate the allure of life on the edge of civilization and analyze how this region has been represented on big and small screens Differing characterizations of the frontier in modern popular culture reveal numerous truths about American consciousness and provide insights into many classic Western films and television programs from RKO s 1931 classic Cimarron to Turner Network Television s recent made for TV movies Covering topics such as the portrayal of race women myth and nostalgia Hollywood s West makes a significant contribution to the understanding of how Westerns have shaped our nation s opinions and beliefs often using the frontier as metaphor for contemporary issues Reconstructing American Historical Cinema J.E. Smyth,2006-10-27 In Reconstructing American Historical Cinema From Cimarron to Citizen Kane J E Smyth dramatically departs from the traditional understanding of the relationship between film and history By looking at production records scripts and contemporary reviews Smyth argues that certain classical Hollywood filmmakers were actively engaged in a self conscious and often critical filmic writing of national history Her volume is a major reassessment of American historiography and cinematic historians from the advent of sound to the beginning of wartime film production in 1942 Focusing on key films such as Cimarron 1931 The Public Enemy 1931 Scarface 1932 Ramona 1936 A Star Is Born 1937 Jezebel 1938 Young Mr Lincoln 1939 Gone with the Wind 1939 Stagecoach 1939 and Citizen Kane 1941 Smyth explores historical cinema s connections to popular and academic historiography historical fiction and journalism providing a rich context for the industry s commitment to American history Rather than emphasizing the divide between American historical cinema and historical writing Smyth explores the continuities between Hollywood films and history written during the first four decades of the twentieth century from Carl Becker s famous Everyman His Own Historian to Howard Hughes s Scarface to Margaret Mitchell and David O Selznick s Gone with the Wind Hollywood s popular and often controversial cycle of historical films from 1931 to 1942 confronted issues as diverse as frontier racism and women s experiences in the nineteenth century South the decline of American society following the First World War the rise of Al Capone and the tragic history of Hollywood s silent era Looking at rarely discussed archival material Smyth focuses on classical Hollywood filmmakers adaptation and scripting of traditional historical discourse and their critical revision of nineteenth and twentieth century American history Reconstructing American Historical Cinema uncovers Hollywood s diverse and conflicted attitudes toward American history This text is a fundamental challenge the prevailing scholarship in film history and cultural studies The Othering of Women in Silent Film Barbara Tepa Lupack,2023-11-06 In The Othering of Women in Silent Film Cultural Historical and Literary Contexts Barbara Tepa Lupack explores the rampant racial and gender stereotyping depicted in early cinema demonstrating how those stereotypes helped shape American attitudes and practices Using social cultural literary and cinema history as a focus this book offers insights into issues of Othering including discrimination exclusion and sexism that are as timely today as they were a century ago Lupack not only examines the ways that dominant cinema of the era imprinted indelible and pejorative images of women including African Americans Native Americans Asians Hispanics and New Women Suffragists but also reveals the ways in which a number of pioneering early filmmakers and performers attempted to counter those depictions by challenging the imagery interrogating the stereotypes and re politicizing the familiar narratives Scholars of film gender history and race studies will find this book of particular interest American Photo ,1995-05 Ed Ruscha and the Great American West Karin Breuer,D.J. Waldie,Ed Ruscha,2016-07-12 The renowned artist Ed Ruscha was born in Nebraska grew up in Oklahoma and has lived and worked in Southern California since the late 1950s Beginning in 1956 road trips across the American Southwest furnished a conceptual trove of themes and motifs that he mined throughout his career The everyday landscapes of the West especially as experienced from the automobile gas stations billboards building facades parking lots and long stretches of roadway are the primary motifs of his often deadpan and instantly recognizable paintings and works on paper as well as his influential artist books such as Twentysix Gasoline Stations and All the Buildings on the

Sunset Strip His iconic word images declaring Adios Rodeo Wheels over Indian Trails and Honey I Twisted through More Damn Traffic to Get Here further underscore a contemporary Western sensibility Ruscha's interest in what the real West has become and Hollywood's version of it plays out across his oeuvre The cinematic sources of his subject matter can be seen in his silhouette pictures which often appear to be grainy stills from old Hollywood movies They feature images of the contemporary West such as parking lots and swimming pools but also of its historical past covered wagons buffalo teepees and howling coyotes Featuring essays by Karin Breuer and D J Waldie plus a fascinating interview with the artist conducted by Kerry Brougher this stunning catalogue produced in close collaboration with the Ruscha studio offers the first full exploration of the painter's lifelong fascination with the romantic concept and modern reality of the evolving American West Published in association with the Fine Arts Museums of San Francisco Exhibition dates de Young San Francisco July 16 October 9 2016

Patrick Tighe Architecture Patrick Tighe, 2016-08-20 This beautifully designed and illustrated monograph sets out Patrick Tighe's innovative diverse and wide ranging collection of contemporary work towards the post digital showing the reader a hyper detailed analytical investigation of digital forms and their practices It sets out how his architecture has brought a return to the real in an attempt to rethink the language and practice of architecture The book's many inspiring and intricate drawings render clear the ideas that show the palpable energy and momentum that exists in this practice In every instance this firm embraces dichotomy mining its potential to produce a more vital and consequential architecture The book's stunning imagery and nuanced narratives tell the story of Tighe's architecture across 35 projects spanning across the globe to help establish how his work draws from and builds upon existing polarities to find resolution and how tensions yield a more dynamic architecture The work is multiple and varied from the small scale residential to the urban scale from the United States to Europe to China to North Africa from high end villas for royalty to art installations to social housing projects This compelling collection of work follows the following five key themes CRAFT from the manufactured to the technological MATERIAL from the natural to the synthetic EXPERIENCE from the actual to the perceptual GEOMETRY from the simple to the complex and METHOD from the analog to the digital This distinguished monograph also includes an incisive introduction by Patrick Tighe and is augmented by two essays by Thom Mayne and Stephen Phillips who also provide clarity and insightful discourse on how Tighe's work is continuously in transition and evolving and how he's rethinking and engaging in a discourse to defamiliarize the familiar American Film History Cynthia Lucia, Roy Grundmann, Art Simon, 2015-09-08 This authoritative collection of introductory and specialized readings explores the rich and innovative history of this period in American cinema Spanning an essential range of subjects from the early 1900s Nickelodeon to the decline of the studio system in the 1960s it combines a broad historical context with careful readings of individual films Charts the rise of film in early twentieth century America from its origins to 1960 exploring mainstream trends and developments along with topics often relegated to the margins of standard film histories Covers diverse issues ranging from silent film and its iconic figures such as Charlie Chaplin to the coming of sound and the rise of film genres studio moguls and later the Production Code and Cold War Blacklist Designed with both students and scholars in mind each section opens with an historical overview and includes chapters that provide close careful readings of individual films clustered around specific topics Accessibly structured by historical period offering valuable cultural social and political contexts Contains careful close analysis of key filmmakers and films from the era including D W Griffith Charles Chaplin Buster Keaton Erich von Stroheim Cecil B DeMille Don Juan The Jazz Singer I Am a Fugitive from a Chain Gang Scarface Red Dust Glorifying the American Girl Meet Me in St Louis Citizen Kane Bambi Frank Capra's Why We Fight series The Strange Love of Martha Ivers Rebel Without a Cause Force of Evil and selected American avant garde and underground films among many others Additional online resources such as sample syllabi which include suggested readings and filmographies for both general specialized courses will be available online May be used alongside American Film History Selected Readings 1960 to the Present to provide an authoritative study of American cinema through the new millennium The Coen Brothers' America M. Keith Booker, 2019-05-24 For more than three decades Joel and Ethan Coen have produced some of the most unique and thought provoking works in modern cinema In broad comedies such as Raising Arizona violent thrillers like No Country for Old Men and black comedies such as Fargo the filmmakers have offered brilliant takes on a variety of film genres One of the most distinctive features of their movies is their skewed view of America itself In The Coen Brothers America M Keith Booker discusses feature films produced by the pair since their 1984 debut Blood Simple The author focuses on how the Coen brothers films engage with American cultural history and are embedded in specific geographical settings From New York to Los Angeles from Texas to Minnesota the Coens capture the essence of real locations from unusual angles which often make the films appear as if they are taking place in an alternate reality In addition many of the brothers films are steeped in America's cultural past from the deep south of the 1930s in O Brother Where Art Thou to the Greenwich Village of the 1960s in Inside Llewyn Davis. The Coens make particularly effective use of films from Hollywood's Golden Age producing their own updated versions of such genres as film noir The Man Who Wasn't There, the Western True Grit and screwball comedy The Hudsucker Proxy, not to mention their idiosyncratic depictions of Hollywood itself in Barton Fink and Hail Caesar. This book also explores how the Coens draw upon cultural phenomena outside of film including literature, music and television. Approaching each film within the framework of Ethan and Joel's overall vision, The Coen Brothers America provides an entertaining look at the pair's work that will appeal to scholars and fans alike.
