State Terrorism and Political Identity in Indonesia Ariel Heryanto, 2006-04-07 Approximately one million innocent Indonesians were killed by their fellow nationals neighbours and kin at the height of an anti communist campaign in the mid 1960s This book investigates the profound political consequences of these mass killings in Indonesia upon public life highlighting the historical specificities of the violence and comparable incidents of identity politics in more recent times Mixing theory with empirically based analysis the book examines how the spectre of communism and the trauma experienced in the latter half of the 1960s remain critical in understanding the dynamics of terror coercion and consent today Heryanto challenges the general belief that the periodic anti communist witch hunts of recent Indonesian history are largely a political tool used by a powerful military elite and authoritarian government Despite the profound importance of the 1965 6 events it remains one of most difficult and sensitive topics for public discussion in Indonesia today State Terrorism and Political Identity in Indonesia is one of the first books to fully discuss the mass killings shedding new light on a largely unspoken and unknown part of Indonesia s history State Terrorism and Neoliberalism Ruth Blakeley, 2009-04-03 This book explores the complicity of democratic states from the global North in state terrorism in the global South It evaluates the relationship between the use of state terrorism by Northern liberal democracies and efforts by those states to further incorporate the South into the global political economy and to entrench neoliberalism Most scholarship on terrorism tends to ignore state terrorism by Northern democracies focusing instead on terrorist threats to Northern interests from illiberal actors The book accounts for the absence of Northern state terrorism from terrorism studies and provides a detailed conceptualisation of state terrorism in relation to other forms of state violence The book explores state terrorism as used by European and early American imperialists to secure territory to coerce slave and forced wage labour and to defeat national liberation movements during the process of decolonisation It examines the use of state terrorism by the US throughout the Cold War to defeat political movements that would threaten US elite interests Finally it assesses the practices of Northern liberal democratic states in the War on Terror and shows that many Northern liberal
