Explorations in Ecocriticism William Wordsworth and the Ecology of Authorship Scott Hess, 2012-04-12 In William Wordsworth and the Ecology of Authorship Scott Hess explores Wordsworth's defining role in establishing what he designates as the ecology of authorship a primarily middle class nineteenth century conception of nature associated with aesthetics high culture individualism and nation Instead of viewing Wordsworth as an early ecologist Hess places him within a context that is largely cultural and aesthetic The supposedly universal Wordsworthian vision of nature Hess argues was in this sense specifically male middle class professional and culturally elite factors that continue to shape the environmental movement today

Postcolonial Green Bonnie Roos, Alex Hunt, 2010-09-23 Postcolonial Green brings together scholarship bridging ecocriticism and postcolonialism Since its inception ecocriticism has been accused of being inattentive to the complexities that colonialism poses for ideas of nature and environmentalism Postcolonial discourse on the other hand has been so immersed in theoretical questions of nationalism and identity that it has been seen as ignoring environmental or ecological concerns This collection demonstrates that ecocriticism and postcolonialism must be understood as parallel projects if not facets of the very same project a struggle for global justice and sustainability The essays in this collection span the globe and cover such issues as international environmental policy land and water rights food production poverty women's rights indigenous activism and ecotourism They consider all manner of texts from oral tradition to literary fiction to web discourse Contributors bring postcolonial theory to literary traditions such as that of the United States not typically seen in this light and conversely bring ecocriticism to literary traditions such as those of India and China that have seen little ecological analysis Postcolonial Green boasts a global geographical breadth diversity of critical approach and increasing relevance to the issues we face on a world stage Contributors Neel Ahuja University of North Carolina Chapel Hill Pavel Cenkl Sterling College Sharae Deckard University College Dublin Ursula K Heise Stanford University Jonathan Highfield Rhode Island School of Design Alex Hunt West Texas A M University Upamanyu Pablo Mukherjee Warwick University Patrick D Murphy University of Central Florida Bonnie Roos West Texas A M University Caskey Russell University of Wyoming Rachel Stein Siena College Sabine Wilke University of Washington Laura Wright Western Carolina University Sheng yen Yu National Taipei University of Technology Gang Yue University of North Carolina Chapel Hill Xiamen University

Michigan Quarterly Review, 2007 Framing the World Paula Willoquet-Maricondi, 2010-08-06 films Book Jacket Wild Dog Dreaming Deborah Bird Rose, 2011-03-04 Wild Dog Dreaming explores what constitutes an ethical relationship with nonhuman others Deborah Bird Rose asks whether we as humans are capable of loving and caring for the animals and plants that are disappearing in a cascade of extinctions An inspiration for Rose and a touchstone throughout her book is the

Westernness Alan Bacher Williamson,2006 A first person meditation on the literary and visual arts of the American West Westernness A Meditation explores how this region has developed its own distinct culture in literature and painting from the point of view of someone who has been at different times in his life both a westerner and an easterner An engaging and astute reader and observer Alan Williamson uses his poetic lens to examine the new connections notably with the Far East that have been forged in the West but also the fear anxiety and sense of cultural vacancy that western artists have had to overcome in confronting their new landscape much as the writers of the American Renaissance did a century earlier Writing as a displaced easterner with significant western roots Williamson looks at writers and poets such as Cather Lawrence Steinbeck Jefferes Silko and Snyder as well as artists such as the Yosemite painters Georgia O Keeffe and Wayne Thiebaud to show how despite the inflated optimism of many western patriots the work of these individuals relates to the anxieties suffered by their eastern predecessors By revealing what he sees as the repetition of the evolution of American literature in the rise of western literature Williamson provides us with a fresh vantage point from which we can appreciate western literature art and culture and simultaneously dismantle the literary war between East and West A tribute to the author s lifelong engagement with a particular landscape and its writers Westernness speaks to the general reader who is curious about his or her native place and relationship to it as well as to scholars in literary and ecocritical studies

American Book Publishing Record ,2006 Out of the Shadow Rinda West,2007 In western culture the separation of humans from nature has contributed to a schism between the conscious reason and the unconscious dreaming psyche or internal human nature Our increasing lack of intimacy with the land has led to a decreased capacity to access parts of the psyche not normally valued in a capitalist culture In Out of the Shadow Ecopsychology Story and Encounters with the Land Rinda West uses Jung s idea of the shadow to explore how this divorce results in alienation projection and often breakdown Bringing together ideas from analytical psychology environmental thought and literary studies West explores a variety of literary texts including several by contemporary American Indian writers to show through a sort of geography of the psyche how alienation from nature reflects a parallel separation from the nature that constitutes the unconscious Through her analysis of narratives that offer images of people confronting shadow reconnecting with nature and growing psychologically and ethically West reveals that when characters enter into relationship with the natural world they are better able to confront and reclaim shadow By writing from the shadows West argues that contemporary writers are exploring ways of being human that have the potential for creating more just and honorable relationships with nature and more sustainable communities For ecocritics conservation activists scholars and students of environmental studies and American Indian studies and ecopsychologists Out of the Shadow offers hope for humans wishing to reconcile with themselves with nature and with community
