Whale Rider Study Guide Film Education:

Ageism in Youth Studies Gayle Kimball, 2017-05-11 Ageism is prevalent in a great deal of current scholarship in the social sciences as scholars fault youth for being delinquent or politically apathetic Researchers ignore young people's actual voices despite their leadership in recent global uprisings some of which unseated entrenched dictators Neoliberalism must be exposed in its focus on youth sub cultures and styles rather than economic barriers caused by growing inequality and rising youth unemployment rates Ageism in Youth Studies also discusses the debate about Generation We or Me and if Millennials are narcissistic Resources about global youth studies are included along with the results of the author's surveys and interviews with over 4 000 young people from 88 countries

The Library Screen Scene Renee Hobbs, Liz Deslauriers, Pam Steager, 2019 In the past two decades several U S states have explored ways to mainstream media literacy in school curriculum However one of the best and most accessible places to learn this necessary skill has not been the traditional classroom but rather the library In an increasing number of school public and academic libraries shared media experiences such as film screening learning to computer animate and video editing promote community and a sense of civic engagement The Library Screen Scene reveals five core practices used by librarians who work with film and media viewing creating learning collecting and connecting With examples from more than 170 libraries throughout the United States the book shows how film and media literacy education programs library services and media collections teach patrons to critically analyze moving image media uniting generations cultures and communities in the process
