What Do I Say About That:

What Do I Say? Linda N. Edelstein, Charles A. Waehler, 2011-05-12 The must have guide to honestly and sensitively answering your clients questions Written to help therapists view their clients questions as collaborative elements of clinical work What Do I Say explores the questions some direct others unspoken that all therapists at one time or another will encounter from clients Authors and practicing therapists Linda Edelstein and Charles Waehler take a thought provoking look at how answers to clients questions shape a therapeutic climate of expression that encourages personal discovery and growth Strategically arranged in a question and answer format for ease of use this hands on guide is conversational in tone and filled with personal examples from experienced therapists on twenty three hot button topics including religion sex money and boundaries What Do I Say tackles actual client questions such as Can you help me Chapter 1 The Early Sessions Sorry I am late Can we have extra time Chapter 9 Boundaries I don t believe in all this therapy crap What do you think about that Chapter 3 Therapeutic Process Why is change so hard Chapter 4 Expectations About Change Will you attend my graduation wedding musical performance speech business grand opening Chapter 20 Out of the Office Where are you going on vacation Chapter 10 Personal Questions I gave your name to a friend Will you see her Chapter 9 Boundaries Should I pray about my problems Chapter 12 Religion and Spirituality Are you like all those other liberals who believe gay people have equal rights Chapter 13 Prejudice The power of therapy lies in the freedom it offers clients to discuss anything and everything It s not surprising then that clients will surprise therapists with their experiences and sometimes with the questions they ask What Do I Say reveals how these questions no matter how difficult or uncomfortable can be used to support the therapeutic process rather than derail the therapist client relationship What do I say next? Everyday Mental Health

Conversations in Primary Care Sophie Jadwiga Ball, Liz Moulton, 2024-08-30 A significant problem experienced by some GPs and many trainees and other primary care health professionals is the challenge of completing a useful and safe consultation with patients with mental health problems within the constraints of a standard length appointment These challenges may arise from a lack of specific expertise in this area poor training in the relevant skills and perhaps the attitude that there is not much that the primary care practitioner can do to help This new book focuses on enhancing the repertoire of communication skills available for mental health consultation providing a range of tools and techniques drawn from accepted models including cognitive behavioural therapy CBT transactional analysis TA motivational interviewing and acceptance commitment therapy ACT illustrating how to apply these within a typical 10 to 12 minute primary care consultation Key features enhances the repertoire of communication and consultation skills for primary care practitioners working in mental health consultations summaries and quick take home points aid rapid reference in the time constrained consultation setting whether in person or virtual offers worked through model consultations with a variety of patients showing how to apply the tools and techniques described demonstrates how such consultations can be completed safely and effectively within a normal consultation time frame Essential reading for all primary care practitioners in training and in practice the book equips readers with the confidence and knowledge to provide excellent mental health care for their patients What Do You Say? William Stixrud, PhD, Ned Johnson, 2021-08-17 A guide to effectively communicating with teenagers by the bestselling authors of The Self Driven Child If you're a parent you've had a moment maybe many of them when you've thought How did that conversation go so badly At some point after the sixth grade the same kid who asked why non stop at age four suddenly stops talking to you And the conversations that you wish you could have ones fueled by your desire to see your kid not just safe and healthy but passionately engaged suddenly feel nearly impossible to execute The good news is that effective communication can be cultivated learned and taught And as you get better at this so will your kids William Stixrud Ph D and Ned Johnson have 60 years combined experience talking to kids one on one and the most common question they get when out speaking to parents and educators is What do you say While many adults understand the importance and power of the philosophies behind the books that dominate the parenting bestseller list parents are often left wondering how to put those concepts into action In What Do You Say Johnson and Stixrud show how to engage in respectful and effective dialogue beginning with defining and demonstrating the basic principles of listening and speaking Then they show new ways to handle specific thorny topics of the sort that usually end in parent kid standoffs delivering constructive feedback to kids discussing boundaries around technology explaining sleep and their brains the anxiety of current events and family problem solving What Do You Say is a manual and map that will immediately transform parents ability to navigate complex terrain and train their minds and hearts to communicate ever more successfully *What Will People Say?
