one of the foremost film scholars of our time Establishes cinema's distinction from the current enthusiasm over audio visual entertainment without relegating cinema to a single older mode Examines cinema's institutions and its social force through the qualities of key films Traces the history of an idea that has made cinema supremely alive to and in our times Realist Film Theory and Bicycle Thieves Hilary Neroni, 2023-05-18 The Film Theory in Practice series fills a gaping hole in the world of film theory By marrying the explanation of a film theory with the interpretation of a film the volumes provide discrete examples of how film theory can serve as the basis for textual analysis Realist Film Theory and Bicycle Thieves offers a concise introduction to realist film theory in jargon free language and shows how this theory can be deployed to interpret Vittorio De Sica's 1948 Italian neo realist masterpiece Bicycle Thieves Hilary Neroni explores the original realist film theorists from the 1940s Andr Bazin Siegfried Kracauer and Cesare Zavattini among others But rather than seeing realist film theory as simply a theory of the past to be moved beyond the book argues that the prevalence of realism in many different forms within practice and theory suggests the importance of updating this original realist film theory with an understanding of realism that would sustain its viability Throughout the book Neroni analyzes neorealist film movements such as Italian Neorealism Parallel Cinema of India and the Iranian New Wave that challenge mainstream realism with a more radical form that exposes the social order instead of hiding it Her in depth investigation of Bicycle Thieves provides a realist methodology that reveals the radicality of its combination of realist techniques a melodramatic story and humanist values A Social History of Iranian Cinema, Volume 3 Hamid Naficy, 2011 Covering the late nineteenth century to the early twenty first and addressing documentaries popular genres and art films this four volume set explains Iran's peculiar cinematic production modes as well as the role of cinema and media in shaping modernity and a modern national identity in Iran Page 4 of cover Chaplin in the Sound Era Eric L. Flom, 1997-01-01 Though Charles Chaplin is commonly remembered as a silent film comedian it is not widely recalled that he continued to make movies long after the introduction of sound His sound films have often been overlooked by historians despite the fact that in these films the essential character of Chaplin more overtly asserted itself in his screen images than in his earlier silent work Each of Chaplin's seven sound films City Lights 1931 Modern Times 1936 The Great Dictator 1940 Monsieur Verdoux 1947 Limelight 1952 A King in New York 1957 and A Countess from Hong Kong 1967 is covered in a chapter length essay here The comedian's inspiration for the film is given along with a narrative that describes the film and offers details on behind the scenes activities There is also a full discussion of the movie's themes and contemporary critical reaction to it The Celluloid Atlantic Saverio Giovacchini, 2025-02-01 Offers a fresh look at American and Italian cinema in the postwar period The Celluloid Atlantic changes the way we look at American and Italian cinema in the postwar period In the thirty years following World War II American and Italian film industries came to be an integrated transnational unit rather than two separate nation based entities Written in jargon free prose and based on previously unexplored archival sources this book revisits the history of

Neorealism World War II combat cinema the Western all Italiana and the career of John Kitzmiller the African American star who made Italy his home and was the first person of color to win the Best Actor Award at the Cannes Film Festival The Celluloid Atlantic makes the trailblazing argument that culturally hybrid genres like the so called spaghetti Western were less the exceptions than the norm Giovacchini argues that the waning of the Celluloid Atlantic in the early 1970s was due to the economic policies of the first Nixon administration specifically its important but largely neglected Revenue Act of 1971 as well as to the ideological debates between Europeans and Americans that intensified during the American intervention in Vietnam

Racial Blackness and Indian Ocean Slavery Parisa Vaziri,2023-12-26 Rethinking the history of African enslavement in the western Indian Ocean through the lens of Iranian cinema From the East African and Red Sea coasts to the Persian Gulf ports of Bushihr Kish and Hurmuz sailing and caravan networks supplied Iran and the surrounding regions with African slave labor from antiquity to the nineteenth century This book reveals how Iranian cinema preserves the legacy of this vast and yet long overlooked history that has come to be known as Indian Ocean slavery How does a focus on blackness complicate traditional understandings of history and culture Parisa Vaziri addresses this question by looking at residues of the Indian Ocean slave trade in Iranian films from the second half of the twentieth century Revealing the politicized clash between commercial cinema fi lmfa rsi and alternative filmmaking the Iranian New Wave she pays particular attention to the healing ritual z r which is both an African slave descendent practice and a constitutive element of Iranian culture as well as to cinematic s y h b z Persian black play Moving beyond other studies on Indian Ocean and trans Saharan slavery Vaziri highlights the crystallization of a singular mode of historicity within these cinematic examples one of absence that reflects the relative dearth of archival information on the facts surrounding Indian Ocean slavery Bringing together cinema studies Middle East studies Black studies and postcolonial theory Racial Blackness and Indian Ocean Slavery explores African enslavement in the Indian Ocean through the revelatory and little known history of Iranian cinema It shows that Iranian film reveals a resistance to facticity representative of the history of African enslavement in the Indian Ocean and preserves the legacy of African slavery s longue dur e in ways that resist its overpowering erasure in the popular and historical imagination Retail e book files for this title are screen reader friendly with images accompanied by short alt text and or extended descriptions

Architecture, Philosophy, and the Pedagogy of Cinema Nadir Lahiji,2021-05-26 Philosophers on the art of cinema mainly remain silent about architecture Discussing cinema as mass art they tend to forget that architecture before cinema was the only existing mass art In this work author Nadir Lahiji proposes that the philosophical understanding of the collective human sensorium in the apparatus of perception must once again find its true training ground in architecture

Building art puts the collective mass in the position of an expert critic who identifies themselves with the technical apparatus of architecture Only then can architecture regain its status as mass art and as the book contends only then can it resume its function as the only artform that is designed for the political pedagogy of masses which originally belonged to it in the period of modernity before the invention of cinema
