Grace Gifts Dan Knight, 2011-10-31 Too many of us are burdened with the question What am I supposed to be doing We've tried doing what Jesus did WWJD but we've found walking on water and feeding the multitudes a little beyond our capabilities So we've settled for watching other Christians and imitating them Or worse we have taken the first job anyone offered us and stayed at it in frustration for years and years There's a better answer You are supposed to be doing what God has equipped you to do Knowing the gifts you have received lets you know what God expects you to do

Paul's Last Letter Mark Sweetnam, 2024-05-30 The Second Epistle to Timothy is by any standard a remarkable document Even as the apostle urges his friend and coworker hasten to Rome for a final meeting the intimacy and urgency of Paul's words make clear his awareness that Timothy might not arrive in time to say goodbye. This makes the epistle deeply personal. But Paul has a much larger purpose in view than just Timothy's consolation. The epistle vibrates with Paul's concern for Timothy's endurance in the apostle's mission after Paul's death. Paul is at pains to emphasize for Timothy the seriousness of his responsibility, the difficulty of the context in which that duty will be discharged, and the divine assistance that will allow him to preserve and transmit the apostolic deposit to faithful men. Even as he addresses Timothy, Paul is deliberately speaking beyond him to everyone who remains faithful to the apostolic gospel in the last days following the apostle's departure. This commentary provides a detailed but nontechnical treatment of 2 Timothy which interacts with contemporary scholarship on the epistle while providing a literary rhetorical and parennetic analysis of Paul's last letter.

A New Apostolic Reformation? R. Douglass Geivett, Holly Pivec, 2018-07-25. This critique provides a framework for understanding and interpreting the widespread but little-known New Apostolic Reformation movement. As the authors state in the preface, "We write this book with two major goals in mind: First, to give people an idea of the sheer size and reach of the

NAR movement And second to systematize its key teachings and practices and evaluate them on the basis of Scripture and careful reasoning In our judgment the NAR perspective crosses these boundaries that is certain broad parameters revealed in Scripture and practiced in the historical orthodox church and it does so in part because of flawed theology rooted in a flawed understanding of Scripture

Word and Power Gareth W. D. Stewart, 2015-02-16 Historically the Reformed and Charismatic streams have seemed to be almost mutually exclusive In recent years this exclusivity has been being challenged by a new generation of Reformed thinkers This work aims at considering the contribution of John Wimber the late leader of the Vineyard Churches to contemporary theological reflection within the Reformed tradition Taking into account John Wimber's unique theology of the radical middle which is somewhere between Pentecostal and Evangelical this book asks whether Wimber may be a possible alternative source for the contemporary Reformed Churches as they approach ministry and mission in the twenty first century Written from a confessional Presbyterian context in Northern Ireland Word and Power places Wimber in his theological context and asks whether Wimber's view of power evangelism discipleship formation and ministry training might be a model that Reformed Churches and Presbyterians in particular could adopt for their ecclesiology today

The Practice of Prophecy Li Ming Dennis Lum, 2018-03-26 The charisma of prophecy is found throughout the history of the global Pentecostal movement Within the movement prophecy is seen as the communication of an inspired spontaneous revelation bringing edification to the faith community Despite its prevalence academic research has mostly focused on the biblical theological aspect neglecting the actual contemporary practice This book addresses this gap with a study on the practice of prophecy within the Assemblies of God of Singapore The book investigates the nature purpose and significance of the phenomenon It also identifies theological variables that are correlated with its practice and explicates these relationships The investigation employs the empirical theological method of Johannes van der Ven utilizing both a qualitative and a quantitative study The results provide a rich description of the actual reception delivery and judging of prophecy Significant findings include relationships between prophecy and courage love personality types prayer types and
