What Is Structural Analysis In Poetry:

Structural Analysis of Biblical and Canaanite Poetry Willem van der Meer, 1988-12-01 Structural Analysis of Biblical and Canaanite Poetry introduces a new method of structural analysis of biblical and Canaanite poetry pioneered by Pieter van der Lugt This method incorporates translation and textual criticism divides the texts into poetical verses identifies internal parallelisms and produces a concordance of all words used in a passage Contributors to this Structural Analysis of Biblical and Canaanites Poetry apply critique and engage van der Lugt s methodology The Structure of Classical Hebrew Poetry: Isaiah 40-55 M.C.A. Korpel, Johannes de Moor, 2021-11-15 Exegesis starts with the delimitation of the pericope to be interpreted Yet the principles for selecting passages which form the part of departure for the exegete are seldom made explicit and if one compares various commentaries and Bible translations it soon becomes apparent that this lack of methodical transparency gives rise to a lot of confusion and dissent In this work the authors make use of text divisions found in ancient Hebrew Greek and Syriac manuscripts of Isaiah 40 55 Deutero Isaiah For the first time the poetic structure of the text is based on controllable evidence which is roughly 500 1000 years older than the medieval Masoretic manuscripts on which all modern editions are based The results are astonishing and raise the question why this type of evidence has been largely neglected thus far Form and Structure in the Poetry of Al-Mu'tamid Ibn 'Abbad Scheindlin, 2023-09-20 A Structural Analysis of Pound's Usura Canto Christine Brooke-Rose, 2019-05-20 No detailed description available for A Structural Analysis of Pound s Usura Canto God's Good Covenant Loren F. Bliese, 2021-06-29 In this study of Hosea Loren Bliese documents his current research into how the poetics of the Hebrew Bible were enhanced by arranging the counts of words and structures in order to beautify the message The two words good and covenant are the only words that come once each in the five parts of the book They point to a structural theme of the book that God s covenant is good in contrast to idolatrous relationships that lead to disaster Hosea s symbolic numbers are derived from both twenty two of the Hebrew letters and from twenty six the value of the divine name YHWH along with other numbers related to the name Plays on the word repent or return have a build up of repetitions to the end where the plea Return Israel to the LORD your God is prominent Each of these words is marked by numeric significance The book is a discourse analysis of Hosea s whole text focusing on features of prominence including symbolic numbers The study analyzes thirty of the forty five poems in Hosea with the form of metrical chiasmus pointing to a central peak Bliese has developed this in previous writings Abundant chi square probability calculations support his analysis Delimitation Criticism M.C.A. Korpel, Joseph Oesch, 2021-12-28 The first volume of the new Pericope series Delimitation Criticism contains the papers read at a workshop of the Pericope Group during the First Meeting of the European Association for Biblical Studies held at Utrecht The Netherlands 6 9 August 2000 The volume highlights the importance of the long ignored unit delimitation markers in ancient manuscripts for the interpretation of Scripture Much of the data presented here has never been published before and opens up fresh vistas for biblical scholarship The new series Pericope aims at providing Bible translators and exegetes with the raw data concerning unit delimitation in the ancient manuscripts of the Hebrew Bible the Septuagint the Peshitta and the Vulgate It will contribute significantly to our understanding of the meaning of Scripture as it was written and understood in Antiquity Pericope is directed by an international editorial board of distinguished specialists The series will comprise monographs and collaborative volumes on unit delimitation in Antiquity primarily in biblical manuscripts and lectionaries but also in other texts relevant to biblical studies The series will also incorporate exegetical studies which seek to demonstrate the impact of delimitation criticism on various branches of biblical scholarship From the Contents M C A Korpel Introduction to the Series M van Amerongen Structuring Division Markers in Haggai R de Hoop Lamentations The Qinah Metre Questioned K D Jenner The Unit Delimitation in the Syriac Text of Daniel and their Consequences for the Interpretation M C A Korpel Pericope Division in the Book of Ruth J C de Moor Micah 7 1 13 The Lament of a Disillusioned Prophet J M Oesch Skizze einer synchronen und diachronen Gliederungskritik im Rahmen der alttestamentlichen Textkritik J Renkema The Literary Structure of Obadiah P Sanders Ancient Colon Delimitations 2 Samuel 22 and Psalm 18 E Tov The Background of the Sense Divisions in the Biblical Texts Inner Worlds Albert Kamp, 2021-11-22 In the dynamic interchange between authors texts and readers that occurs during the reading process readers are stimulated by the author to create complex inner representations of the reality presented in a text The cognitive linguistic approach outlined in the first part of Inner Worlds offers a set of analytical tools that can be instructively applied to the book of Jonah to examine how the text presents its own reality to the reader Retranslated with an eye to the distinct nuances in the Hebrew the text of Jonah reveals a range of suggestive dynamic patterns that show the irony of Jonah's limited perspectives on his misfortunes compared with the transcendent perspective of a gracious God Ancient Israelite and Early Jewish Literature Vriezen, Adam van der Woude, 2005-09-01 Ancient Israelite and Early Jewish Literature offers more than simply an introduction to the Old Testament Hebrew Bible The Hebrew Bible remains not only the primary quantitative source for our knowledge of the literature of Ancient Israel it also enjoys decisive religious and cultural significance for both Judaism and Christianity However increased interest in Early Judaism as successor to the religion of Ancient Israel and background to the New Testament demands an introduction that guides the reader through the maze of Jewish literature dating from the Hellenistic and Early Roman periods This introduction primarily offers a literary and historical critical approach to the material it treats Given the nature of certain Ancient Israelite inscriptions the books of the Hebrew bible and the texts of Early Judaism however it contains some religious historical or theological explanations where appropriate In particular the literary historical analysis found in this volume underlines the canonical character of the Hebrew Bible The book concludes with a helpful appendix that briefly explains technical concepts and exegetical methods Gender in Solomon's Song of Songs Alastair Ian Haines, 2016-12-14 The thesis shows that the Song of Songs can be read as a circular sequence of sub poems that follow logically from one another if they are understood as contributing to two main points made in a woman's voice. The woman urges men to take romantic initiative to be committed exclusively and for life and urges women three times to wait until they are approached by such men. If this reading is the best explanation of the text of the Song then the Song is a unified work centered on a woman singing about human romantic love from a woman's perspective. Matthew, Poet of the Beatitudes H. Benedict Green, 2001-03-01 Green argues that the Beatitudes in Matthew's version are a carefully constructed poem exhibiting a number of the characteristics of Hebrew poetry as we know it from the Old Testament but as certain of these such as rhyme and alliteration cannot survive translation what we have here is an original composition in Greek. This is shown to be no isolated phenomenon in the gospel: a series of texts found at specially significant points in it disclose similar characteristics. The findings cut across conventional source attributions and reveal the creative hand of the evangelist. By studying the individual beatitudes in their relation to each other as revealed by the formal structure fresh light is thrown upon their meaning and their background in the scriptures of the Old Testament. Poetry, Print, and the Making of Postcolonial Literature Nathan Suhr-Sytsma, 2017-07-10 Poetry Print and the Making of Postcolonial Literature reveals an intriguing history of relationships among poets and editors from Ireland and Nigeria as well as Britain and the Caribbean during the mid twentieth century era of decolonization. The book explores what such leading anglophone poets as Seamus Heaney, Christopher Okigbo and Derek Walcott had in common: peripheral origins and a desire to address transnational publics without expatriating themselves. The book reconstructs how they gained the imprimatur of both local and London based cultural institutions. It shows furthermore how political crises challenged them to reconsider their poetry's publics. Making substantial use of unpublished archival material Nathan Suhr-Sytsma examines poems in print often the pages on which they first appeared in order to chart the transformation of the anglophone literary world. He argues that these poets' achievements cannot be extricated from the transnational networks through which their poems circulated and which they in turn remade. Antithetic Structure in Biblical Hebrew Poetry Joze Krasovec, 2014-09-03 Preliminary material Joze Krasovec Introduction The Definition of Antithesis in Literature and its Place in the Hebrew Bible Joze Krasovec Chapter One Epic Literature Joze Krasovec Chapter Two Psalmic Literature Joze Krasovec Chapter Three Prophetic Literature Joze Krasovec Chapter Four Didactic Literature Joze Krasovec Appendix Joze Krasovec Conclusions Joze Krasovec Selected Bibliography Joze Krasovec Jonah, Second Edition Kevin J. It found its most radical and controversial exponent in the celebrated panegyrist to the courts of al Ma'mun and al Mu'tasim Ab Tammam Habīb ibn Aws Al T The present study offers a reevaluation of the Arabic literary dispute over Ab Tammam and bad It then proposes a redefinition of his diwan and of his major anthology the Ham saḥ as a metapoesis that served to decode the poetic tradition of the pre Islamic desert for the Islamic Abasid caliph and his urbane and urban courtiers and subjects and conversely to encode contemporary Arab Islamic political experiences in classical form This book is extensively illustrated with original translations Rhetorical Criticism of the Bible Watson, Alan J. Al-Nowaihi, 2023-11-27 This study is an attempt to identify and describe the distinctive features of the poetic style of the acclaimed medieval Andalusian poet Ibn Khafajah who has been credited with starting a new school of poetry in Andalus and elsewhere. It offers a close reading of his poetry concentrating on the three basic elements of style: imagery, rhetorical devices and structural patterns. It shows how Ibn Khafajah creatively uses the poetic tradition available to him to form new images and scenes, create multi-layered poems and bestow different levels of unity and coherence on his poems. The study demonstrates some of the ways by which the various elements of style are combined and interrelated to produce original, meaningful and highly moving poems in the Khafajian style.

Sound-Emotion Interaction in Poetry Reuven Tsur, Chen Gafni, 2022-06-03. This book is a collection of studies providing a unique view on two central aspects of poetry: sounds and emotive qualities, with emphasis on their interactions. The book addresses various theoretical and methodological issues related to topics like sound symbolism, poetic prosody and voice quality in recited poetry. The authors examine how these sound-related phenomena contribute to the generation of emotive qualities and how these qualities are perceived by readers and listeners. The book builds upon Reuven Tsur's theoretical research and supplements it from an experimental angle. It also engages in methodological debates with prevalent scientific approaches. In particular, it emphasises the importance of proper theory in empirical literary studies and the role of the personal traits of the reader in literary analysis. The intended readership of this book consists mainly of literary scholars, but it might also appeal to researchers from disciplines such as linguistics, psychology and brain science. The Provenance of Deuteronomy 32 Paul Sanders, 2021-11-15. This study offers an extensive survey of previous literature dealing with the provenance of the song in Deuteronomy 32, a renewed discussion of its text and language as well as an analysis of its poetic structure with the help of a new method. The author tests the tenability of older theories and proposes a new theory based on systematic research into the intertextual links with other parts of the Hebrew Bible and extra-biblical literature of the Ancient Near East. Separate sections are dedicated to the song's descriptions of the relationship between YHWH and the gods and to the identity of the hostile people to which the song refers. The author concludes that a pre-exilic date is extremely likely for the song in its entirety.
