The Icon Painter's Handbook Ian Knowles, 2023-06-01 This handbook is an in depth introduction to the theory and practice of Byzantine icon painting in egg tempera The aim is to help all students aspire to create icons that are both sound theologically while being aesthetically beautiful This volume focuses on the Face of Christ especially in the Mandolin icon and covers all the basics of icon painting Subsequent volumes are planned which will look at the figure and the Kyykotissa icon the design of festal icons backgrounds and buildings This handbook uses dozens of precisely chosen clear illustrations gives precise recipes for colours and mixtures provides step by step instructions to follow and links directly to video demonstrations which show some of the most difficult processes close up It puts the practical aspects of icon painting in a clear historical and theological framework introducing the application of the timeless principles on which the aesthetics of icon painting are built As art for the Church s Liturgy icon painting calls for the highest aesthetic standards and this book aims to help make that achievable for the average committed student Icon painting is presented here as a vocation rather than a hobby or an interesting artistic technique though this handbook will be of interest to anyone drawn to the world of the Byzantine liturgy and its icons By encouraging students to do more than simply copy good examples from the past but to understand how the medieval Christian artist understood what he or she was doing and how they put that into practice this handbook brings the world of the Byzantine artist back to life Icon painting is opened up as a living art form for today s Church The author who has theology degrees from Oxford University and Heythrop College in London has many years of icon teaching experience founding the Bethlehem Icon School in 2010 at the Emmanuel Greek Catholic Monastery in Bethlehem where he continues to teach from time to time This handbook began as handouts for his students on the Prince s School of Traditional Arts icon painting course while that was being run at the Bethlehem Icon Centre in Palestine and has finally emerged as a companion to the online Academy Course in Icon Painting and for members of the Arbor Vitae Icon Academy which the author established during the Covid pandemic Praying with Icons, Third Revised Edition Forest, Jim, 2025-06-25 Guide to New Church's Teaching Series Linda Grenz, 2000-01-25 A Guide to The New Church s Teaching Series by educator Linda L Grenz offers practical suggestions for using the books of the series in the diocese or congregation A complete reference for clergy and lay leaders teachers and small group facilitators the guide provides a brief overview of each book and contains suggestions for additional activities to enhance learning It surveys a wide variety of church groups and formats for using the series from adult forums and Bible study groups to retreats and vestry meetings and recommends volumes of the series that would be most helpful in each context Finally the guide offers specific guidelines for recruiting teaching and leading small groups in a chapter describing how to create and maintain a learning environment for adults Late Antique Portraits and Early Christian Icons Andrew Paterson, 2022-06-30 This book focuses on the earliest surviving Christian icons dated to the sixth and seventh centuries which bear many resemblances to three other well established genres of sacred portrait also produced during late antiquity namely Roman imperial portraiture Graeco Egyptian funerary portraiture and panel paintings depicting non Christian deities Andrew Paterson addresses two fundamental questions about devotional portraiture both Christian and non Christian in the late antique period Firstly how did artists visualise and construct these images of divine or sanctified figures And secondly how did their intended viewers look at respond to and even interact with these images Paterson argues that a key factor of many of these portrait images is the emphasis given to the depicted gaze which invites an intensified form of personal encounter with the portrait s subject The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history theology religion and classical studies

Anti-Portraits: Poetics of the Face in Modern English, Polish and Russian Literature (1835-1965) Kamila Pawlikowska, 2015-10-05 Anti Portraits Poetics of the Face in Modern English Polish and Russian Literature 1835 1965 is a study of a physiognomic descriptions of the face It demonstrates that writers such as George Eliot Leo Tolstoy Edgar Allan Poe Nicolay Gogol Virginia Woolf and Witold Gombrowicz vigorously resisted the belief that facial features reflect character While other studies tend to focus on descriptions which affirm physiognomy this book examines portraits which question popular face reading systems and contravene their common premise the surface depth principle Such portraits reveal that physiognomic formula is a cultural construct invented to abridge organise and regulate legibility of the human face Most importantly strange and unreadable fictional faces frequently expose the connection between physiognomic judgement and stereotyping prejudice and racism

Sacred Images and Sacred Power in Byzantium Gary Vikan, 2024-10-28 In these studies Gary Vikan has opened new perspectives on the daily life and material culture of Late Antiquity more specifically on icons and relics and on objects revealing of the world of pilgrimage the early cult of saints and marriage He contextualizes these familiar categories of object in the patterns of belief and ritual extracted from contemporary texts and the objects themselves in order to understand their meaning within the everyday lives of those by whom and for whom they were made The studies give a nuanced delineation of the inherently ambiguous boundary between conventional religion and magic noting repeatedly those instances wherein the two are invoked in the same breath and by way of the same art object toward the same end From this historically constructed matrix of art belief and ritual the author derives an anthropologically defined paradigm of charisma and pilgrimage applied in one essay as an intriguing parallel to deconstructing the world of a contemporary secular saint Elvis Presley The Christ of the Apocalypse: Contemplating the Faces of Jesus in the Book of Revelation Msgr. A. Robert Nusca, 2018-06-30 That the Apocalypse of John is a Revelation of Jesus Christ Rev 1:1 is a fact too often overlooked by interpreters of this last book of the Bible As Msgr A Robert Nusca's The Christ of the Apocalypse Contemplating the Faces of Jesus in the Book of Revelation proposes beyond predictions of earthquakes and falling stars St John articulates from start to finish a multifaceted and compelling portrait of Jesus Christ Nusca offers an exegetical reading of selected verses of the Book of Revelation incorporating rich spiritual and pastoral reflections The Christ of the Apocalypse above all affirms that St John's God and Christ centered symbolic universe offers our contemporary world a spiritual place to stand amid the shifting sands of postmodernity As Cardinal Thomas Collins Archbishop of Toronto writes in his Foreword Now as in the first century Christians face martyrdom and those who are not called to die for Christ are called to live for Christ in a world which in many ways rejects the Gospel More than ever we need the apocalyptic vision to have our own vision of reality clarified and to be strengthened in our evangelical witness Reading Cusanus Clyde Lee Miller, 2003 Each of the readings reveals how

Nicholas project of learned ignorance is played out in striking metaphors for God and the relation of God to creation
