Till End Time Historical Romance:

The Historical Romances of Georg Ebers Georg Ebers, 2020-09-28 God grant it exclaimed the young man I have heard nothing from my family for two months That is hard Pleasures smile along every path and I like my profession of soldier but it often grieves me sorely to hear so little from home Oh if one were only a bird a sunbeam or a shooting star one might if only for the twinkling of an eye learn how matters go at home and fill the soul with fresh gratitude or if it must be but I will not think of that In the valley of the Saale the trees are blossoming and a thousand flowers deck all the meadows just as they do here and did there two years ago when I left home for the second time After my father s death I was the heir but neither hunting nor riding to court neither singing nor the clinking of beakers could please me I went about like a sleep walker and it seemed as if I had no right to live without my father Then it is now just two years ago a messenger brought from Weimar a letter which had come from Italy with several others addressed to our most gracious sovereign it contained the news that our lost brother was still alive lying sick and wretched in the hospital at Bergamo A kind nun had written for him and we now learned that on the journey from Valencia to Livorno Louis had been captured by corsairs and dragged to Tunis How much suffering he endured there with what danger he at last succeeded in obtaining his liberty you shall learn later He escaped to Italy on a Genoese galley His feet carried him as far as Bergamo but he could go no farther and now lay ill perhaps dying among sympathizing strangers I set out at once and did not spare horseflesh on the way to Bergamo but though there were many strange and beautiful things to be seen on my way they afforded me little pleasure the thought of Louis so dangerously ill saddened my joyous spirits Every running brook urged me to hasten and the lofty mountains seemed like jealous barriers When once beyond St Gotthard I felt less anxious and as I rode down from Bellinzona to Lake Lugano and the sparkling surface of the water beyond the city smiled at me like a blue eye forgot my grief for a time waved my hat and sung a song In Bergamo I found my brother alive but enfeebled in mind and body weak and without any desire to take up the burden of life again He had been in good hands and after a few weeks we were able to travel homeward this time I went through beautiful Tyrol Louis s strength daily increased but the wings of his soul had been paralyzed by suffering Alas for long years he had dug and carried heavy loads with chains on his feet beneath a broiling sun Chevalier von Brand could not long endure this hard fate but Louis while in Tunis forgot both how to laugh and weep and which of the two can be most easily spared

Historical Romance Fiction Lisa Fletcher, 2016-04-22 The first book length study of romance novels to focus on issues of sexuality rather than gender Historical Romance Fiction moves the ongoing debate about the value and appeal of heterosexual romance onto new ground testing the claims of cutting edge critical theorists on everything from popular classics by Georgette Heyer to recent bodice rippers to historical fiction by John Fowles and A S Byatt Beginning with her nomination of I love you as the romance novel s defining speech act Lisa Fletcher engages closely with speech act theory and recent studies of performativity The range of texts serves to illustrate Fletcher s definition of historical romance as a fictional mode dependent on the force and familiarity of the speech act I love you and permits Fletcher to provide a detailed account of the genre s history and development in both its popular and literary manifestations Written from a feminist and anti homophobic perspective Fletcher s subtle arguments about the romantic speech act serve to demonstrate the genre s dependence on repetition Romance can only quote and the shaky ground on which the romance s heterosexual premise rests Her exploration of the subgenre of cross dressing novels is especially revealing in this regard With its deft mix of theoretical arguments and suggestive close readings Fletcher s book will appeal to specialists in genre speech act and performativity theory and gender studies

The Parterre of Poetry and Historical Romance ,1835 The Historical Romances of Louisa Mühlbach: Joseph the Second and his court Luise Mühlbach, 1914 The Forged

Note (Historical Romance Series) Oscar Micheaux, 2022-01-04 The Forged Note is a semi autobiographical novel that shows how Oscar Micheaux's property as a real life Black pioneer in Dakota was acquired through forgery by his father in law through the life story of the protagonist Sidney Wyeth. However in the world of fiction there is still a possibility of love. Mildred awaits Sidney's return even after the revelation of the dark secret that tore them asunder. Will the two star crossed lovers ever meet again? Keep reading. Excerpt: He sat at a desk in the small office he had taken. Before him were papers and bills unpaid and letters too he had not opened while to one side were others he had read and had typed replies thereto. He had paused in his work and was gazing stupidly at the litter before him. His name was Sidney Wyeth and his home was away off in the great northwest in a strip of territory known as the Rosebud Country. As we meet him now however he is located on the fifth floor of an office building slightly toward the outskirts of the business district of one of our great American cities. He is by profession an author which might explain his presence at a desk. It happens however that he is not there this time as a weaver of dreams but attending to matter in connection with the circulation of his work for he is his own publisher.
