The Contemporary History Play Benjamin Poore,2024-05-30 Something exciting is happening with the contemporary history play New writing by playwrights such as Jackie Sibblies Drury Samuel Adamson Hannah Khalil Cordelia Lynn and Lucy Kirkwood makes powerful theatrical use of the past but does not fit into critics familiar categories of historical drama In this book Benjamin Poore provides readers with tools to name and critically analyse these changes The Contemporary History Play contends that many history plays are becoming more complex and layered in their aesthetic approaches as playwrights work through the experience of being surrounded by numerous and varied forms of historical representation in the twenty first century For theatre scholars this book offers a means of interpreting how new writing relies on the past and notions of historicity to generate meaning and resonance in the present For playwrights and students of playwriting the book is a guide to the history play s recent past and to the state of the art what techniques and formulas have been popular the tropes that are widely used and how artists have found ways of renewing or overturning established conventions J.B. Priestley Maggie B.

Gale,2008-03-03 J B Priestley is the first book to provide a detailed and up to date analysis of the enormous contribution made by this playwright novelist journalist and critic to twentieth century British theatre Priestley was often criticised for being either too populist or too experimental and this study unpicks the contradictions of a playwright and theatre theorist popular with audiences but too often dismissed by critics describing and analysing in detail not only his plays but also their specific historical and contemporary productions Using a combination of archive review and critical materials the book re locates Priestley as a theatre theorist of substance as well as a playwright who challenged theatre conventions and assumptions about audience expectations at a time when theatre was considered both conservative and lacking in innovation
