Brown, 2020-09-03 Contemporary scholars of Chinese philosophy often presuppose that early China possessed a naturalistic worldview devoid of any non natural concepts such as transcendence Challenging this presupposition head on Joshua R Brown and Alexis McLeod argue that non naturalism and transcendence have a robust and significant place in early Chinese thought This book reveals that non naturalist positions can be found in early Chinese texts in topics including conceptions of the divine cosmogony and apophatic philosophy Moreover by closely examining a range of early Chinese texts and providing comparative readings of a number of Western texts and thinkers the book offers a way of reading early Chinese Philosophy as consistent with the religious philosophy of the East and West including the Abrahamic and the Brahmanistic religions Co written by a philosopher and theologian this book draws out unique insights into early Chinese thought highlighting in particular new ways to consider a range of Chinese concepts including tian dao li and you wu and conceptual clarity Against the Spiritual Turn Sean Creaven, 2014-04-08 The argument presented in this book is that the recent spiritual trajectory of Roy Bhaskar's work upon which he first embarked with the publication of his From East to West undermines the fundamental achievements of his earlier work. The problem with Bhaskar's new philosophical system Transcendental Dialectical Critical Realism or simply Meta Reality from the critical realist Marxist perspective endorsed here is that it marks both a departure from and a negation of the earlier concerns of Bhaskar to develop a realist philosophy of science and under labour for an emancipatory materialist socio historical science. The end result is a meta philosophy which is irrealist speculative under theorized internally self contradictory and which cannot provide philosophical guidance to liberatory social practices. In opposition to theist ontological logics more generally including the rather more rational theism presented by Margaret Archer, Andrew Collier and Doug Porpora, the argument of this book is that the earth bound materialist dialectics of the classical Marxist tradition and the naturalistic humanism these dialectics under labour on the terrain of socio historical being offer a much more promising way forward for critical realist theory and for liberatory politics and ethics.

Epistemics of Divine Reality Domenic Marbaniang, 2017-08-18 What Knowledge Claims of God Involve This book investigates the various traditions like monism, polytheism, pantheism, panentheism and approaches such as foundationalism, fideism, pragmatism and rational fideism. This book was originally the PhD thesis of the writer submitted to ACTS Academy in 2007.

Immanent Transcendence Patrice Haynes, 2012-08-23 Over the last twenty years, materialist thinkers in the continental tradition have increasingly emphasized the category of immanence. Yet the turn to immanence has not meant the wholesale rejection of the concept of transcendence but rather its reconfiguration in immanent or materialist terms: an immanent transcendence. Through an engagement with the work of Deleuze, Irigaray and Adorno, Patrice Haynes examines how the notion of immanent transcendence can help articulate a non-reductive materialism by which to rethink politics, ethics and theology in exciting new ways. However, she argues that contrary to what some might expect, immanent accounts of matter and transcendence are ultimately unable to do justice to material finitude. Indeed, Haynes concludes by suggesting that a theistic understanding of divine transcendence offers ways to affirm fully material immanence, thus pointing towards the idea of a theological materialism.

Energy Justice Across Borders Gunter Bombaerts, Kirsten Jenkins, Yekeen A. Sanusi, Wang Guoyu, 2019-10-18 This book is open access under a CC BY 4.0 license. We must find new and innovative ways of conceptualizing transboundary energy issues of embedding concerns of ethics or justice into energy policy and of operationalizing response to them. This book stems from the emergent gap, the need for comparative approaches to energy justice and for those that consider ethical traditions that go beyond the classical Western approach This edited volume unites the fields of energy justice and comparative philosophy to provide an overarching global perspective and approach to applying energy ethics We contribute to this purpose in four sections setting the scene practice applying theory to practice and theoretical approaches Through the chapters featured in the volume we position the book as one that contributes to energy justice scholarship across borders of nations borders of ways of thinking and borders of disciplines The outcome will be of interest to undergraduate and graduate students studying energy justice ethics and environment as well as energy scholars policy makers and energy analysts A Christian Perspective of Postmodern Existentialism John D.

Carter,2021-06-08 The Western Humanism originating in classical Greek philosophy where the capacity of human reason became the dominant means for perceiving a worldview based in reality reigned in Western philosophy until the onset of Postmodern Existentialism in the mid twentieth century Plato s Theory of Forms prepared the Western gentile mind to accept the rationality of a transcendent ultimate reality and in so doing steered the gentile mind from its bent to pantheistic deities The apostle Paul boldly proclaimed to the Athenians that their unknown god was indeed the transcendent God of Abraham Isaac and Jacob Christianity prevailed in Western philosophy until the Enlightenment which was the result of the unprecedented success of the scientific method began to turn the Western mind to the existentialistic idea of the relativity of moral truth The Reconstruction of the Christian Revelation Claim Stuart C. Hackett,2009-01-07 Dr Hackett provides in digestible form a comprehensive systematic and pervasively philosophical apologetic for the Christian revelation claim Although the approach is seriously philosophical the text is free as possible of the earmarks of technical scholarship reflecting the author s aspiration to reach the common person who has a deep interest in such questions Thus although positions arguments and counter arguments are discussed of necessity these are set forth without distracting encumbrances Specifically this book is designed as a substantial textbook for college and seminary courses in apologetics In his thorough introduction Philosophical Prolegomena a firm base for the whole study is established by initiating the reader firmly in epistemology and the concept of revelation The main divisions are Christiainity and the Revelation Cosmos A Philosophical Case for a Theistic Metaphysic Christianity and the Revelational Person An Historical Critical Case for the Incarnation of God in Jesus Christ Christianity and the Revelational Word The Propositional Expression of Revelation in Scripture Dr Hackett includes on every page parallel marginal summaries and outlines to guide the reader and to facilitate ready reference

The Infinity of God Benedikt Paul Göcke,Christian Tapp,2018-12-30 Two questions regarding contemporary theological and philosophical studies are often overlooked Is God infinite or finite and What does it mean to say that God is infinite In The Infinity of God Benedikt Paul G cke and Christian Tapp bring together prominent scholars to discuss God s infinitude from philosophical and theological perspectives Each contributor deals with a particular aspect of the infinity of God employing the methods of analytic theology and analytic philosophy The essays in the first section examine historical issues from a systematic point of view The contributors focus on the Cappadocian Fathers Thomas Aquinas Leibniz Kant Hegel Bolzano and Cantor The second section deals with particular issues concerning the relation between God's infinity and both the finitude of the world and the classical attributes of God eternity simplicity omnipresence omnipotence omniscience and moral perfection There are some books that deal with the notion of infinity in mathematics and in general philosophy but no single text brings together the best analytic philosophers and theologians tackling the various aspects of the infinity of God and the correlated problems This book will interest students and scholars in philosophy of religion theology and metaphysics

Foucault, Christianity and Interfaith Dialogue

Henrique Pinto, 2020-11-25 Foucault Christianity and Interfaith Dialogue develops a new model for interfaith dialogue using the work of the French historian of ideas Michel Foucault The author argues that it is the injustice done to the Other by Roman Catholic Protestant and other centred and unitary models of religious pluralism that allows the introduction of Foucault's de-centring of transcendence and human reason as an alternative model for understanding religious diversity and the role it ought to play in the constitution of the self and the making of society This Foucaultian approach provides a new direction for interfaith dialogue in the modern world and leads to an ethical rather than a nihilistic position while fostering a non-unitary theology of religious pluralism and an open textured process of self-transformation The author's original and imaginative application and expansion of Foucault's concept of the More from The Archaeology of Knowledge 1969 makes important and original contributions to academic work on Foucault and contemporary theology

Janusz Korczak and Yitzhak Katzenelson

Moshe Shner, 2020-12-07 The twentieth century left humanity in despair Two World Wars caused the death of more than seventy million people The Holocaust of the Jews and genocide against other groups left us the images of factories of death and names of unimaginable cruelty Humanity learned about its unlimited ability to inflict suffering and death Hell appeared as a human-made reality Two educators the Polish Jewish educator and children's rights advocate Janusz Korczak murdered in Treblinka in 1942 and Yitzhak Katzenelson a Bible teacher dramatist and a poet murdered in Auschwitz in 1944 shared the same historical reality but responded in very different ways A comparative study of their legacies leads explores questions of identity leadership and the educators role in the face of totalitarianism terror and genocide The book may appeal to teachers in all disciplines who deal with their identity as educators and to historians and civic rights activists in any society culture or nationality

Happiness and Benevolence Robert Spaemann, 2005-03-16 Christian philosopher Robert Spaemann takes the reader on a quest for the fundamental principles of ethics Writing in a clear style accessible to non specialists drawing both on ancient and modern philosophy from Aristotle Plato and Aquinas to Kant and Hegel he discovers the intimate relationship between ethics and ontology the science of being This book is written for theologians as well as philosophers indeed for anyone who is concerned with the meaning of a life well lived with good and evil and the search for happiness

Searching for the Light H. Bruce May, 2016-08-31 We are all searching for the Light knowingly or not The most fundamental truths about the human condition can only be found within your own personal experience of the world Light reveals the world to human consciousness at the same time that it also reveals our true nature as spiritual beings When you search for the Light you follow the paths of countless others who have found how to invite transcendence into their lives by following their own personal journey to the Light The truths revealed by this journey transcend all cultures places times and religions The Search for the Light recounts the author's own personal journey offering a simple explanation of transcendent experience and the deeper experience of liberation well known in Eastern religions The Ox Herding pictures famous in Zen literature help explain the nature of this journey This same experience can also be found in the life of Jesus as revealed in the Gospel of Thomas
