Hollywood by Hollywood Steven Cohan, 2019 The backstudio picture or the movie about movie making is a staple of Hollywood film production harking back to the silent era and extending to the present day What gives backstudios their coherence as a distinctive genre Steven Cohan argues in Hollywood by Hollywood is their fascination with the mystique of Hollywood as a geographic place a self contained industry and a fantasy of fame leisure sexual freedom and modernity Yet by the same token if backstudio pictures have rarely achieved blockbuster box office success what accounts for the film industry's interest in continuing to produce them The backstudio picture has been an enduring genre because aside from offering a director or writer a chance to settle old scores in branding filmmaking with the Hollywood mystique the genre solicits consumers strong investment in the movies Whether inspiring the movie crazy fan girls of the early teens and twenties or the wannabe filmmakers of this century heading to the West Coast after their college graduations backstudios have given emotional weight and cultural heft to filmmaking as the quintessential American success story But more than that a backstudio picture is concerned with shaping perceptions of how the film industry works with masking how its product depends upon an industrial labor force including stardom and with determining how that work's value accrues from the Hollywood brand stamped onto the product Cohan supports his well theorized and well researched claims with nuanced discussions of over fifty backstudios some canonical and well known and others obscure and rarely seen Covering the hundred year timespan of feature length film production Hollywood by Hollywood offers an illuminating perspective for considering anew the history of American movies

The Last Word Justin Gautreau,2021 The Last Word argues that the Hollywood novel opened up space for cultural critique of the film industry at a time when the industry lacked the capacity to critique itself While the young studio system worked tirelessly to burnish its public image in the wake of celebrity scandal several industry insiders wrote fiction to fill in what newspapers and fan magazines left out Throughout the 1920s and 1930s these novels aimed to expose the invisible machinery of classical Hollywood cinema including not only the evolving artifice of the screen but also the promotional discourse that complemented it As likeminded filmmakers in the 1940s and 1950s gradually brought the dark side of the industry to the screen however the Hollywood novel found itself struggling to live up to its original promise of delivering the unfilmable By the 1960s desperate to remain relevant the genre had devolved into little more than erotic fantasy of movie stars behind closed doors perhaps the only thing the public couldn t already find elsewhere Still given their unique ability to speak beyond the institutional restraints of their time these earlier works offer a window into the industry s dynamic creation and re creation of itself in the public imagination detectives were once able watchdogs until their role in policing became diluted by patrol strategies ranging from stop and frisk to community policing Reppetto argues against these current policing systems and calls for a return to the primacy of the detective in criminal investigations
