What Do They Believe? Andrew Rappaport, 2017-09-14 What do Jewish people believe What do Muslims believe Do you have answers ready for a Mormon or a Jehovah's Witness Have you ever wished that other religions had systematic theology resources Now there is one Using mostly original sources What Do They Believe will help you to get an accurate understanding of what other religions believe Michael Abd El Massih Founder and Executive Director of Arabic Bible Outreach Ministry I was glued to your description of Islam and its teaching and kept reading and reading Well done you are an excellent writer and a researcher I have read many books on Islam at least 40 books or so mostly in Arabic and I can testify that the subject is well researched This book will quote original sources accepted as authoritative in each of the major Western religions or material generally accepted by most in that religion People often study different religions in order to refute them This book will attempt to explain what the belief systems are within the context of the religion not the Christian context The areas of focus will include the following 1 View of Authority Scriptures This section will address those documents or people that the religion believes are authoritative Some of these authorities are considered to be God's Word We will examine how these religions acquired these authorities which may include the view of inspiration and how they believe God's Word is revealed The view of authority is the starting point for any study of religion because it gives the parameters of its belief system 2 View of God Trinity This section will address the nature and attributes of God in general and how they disagree with biblical Christianity More specifically it will address the issues of the Godhead and view of the Trinity The Trinity has become unique to Christianity in general however there are those that call themselves Christian that reject this doctrine 3 View of Jesus Christ Deity The view of Jesus Christ is the heartbeat of Christianity Jesus Christ as God is unique to Christianity However since the early years of Christianity there has been debate over both His deity and His humanity Many so called Christians argue these same issues today 4 View of Sin Man's Spiritual Condition The view of sin is essential to understanding a religion's view of salvation The core issue is man's spiritual condition Is man born spiritually dead or is he born neutral affected by his environment either to sin or to do good How one views sin answers the question of how one views the purpose of salvation 5 View of Salvation How Does One Go to Heaven The view of salvation is the essential doctrine that differentiates biblical Christianity from all other religions Therefore it is the most important topic in the book of world religions and cults Can a man work for his salvation 6 View of Eternal State Heaven and Hell The view of the eternal state is often the goal of salvation Concepts of heaven hell and any other final judgment differ greatly from one religion to another

Tillich and World Religions Robison B. James, 2003 The importance of Paul Tillich for understanding not only Christian faith but all religious systems is still being realized Tillich is widely recognized as the theologian of the modern age or as many would have it the postmodern age For a new age of preoccupation with interreligious encounters wherein tolerance may be the watchword but the quest for truth and faith maintains Robison James reintroduces Tillich as an effective pedagogue for dealing with such encounters and for discovering in the clamor of so many noisy insistent religious systems a voice of truth James has reread Tillich with the specific purpose of discovering how we may deal with the many kinds of interreligious encounters that have been growing in frequency and importance Such encounters James points out range from reading about another religion to visiting the other's observances to dialogue with its members to simply puzzling over how my faith or nonfaith relates to this or that religion Tillich's lifelong existential encounter with religious systems and his perceptive appraisal of those systems James concludes can lead us to the best attitude for our own quest for a way of faith and life among so many ways clamoring for our attention Tillich's theology James suggests may best be understood as a synthesis of dialectics and paradox Further James contends the attitude most characteristic of Tillich's thought reciprocal inclusivism is to be recommended as the best attitude for our own quest for the word of truth among so many noisy voices

Approaching the World's Religions, Volume 1 Robert Boyd, 2017-05-04 Philosophically Thinking about World Religions is different from other works in the discipline today It deviates from the typical approaches used for the study of world religions Its goal is to engage readers in thinking hard about world religions not about the data surrounding those traditions By focusing on philosophical questions each reader should be challenged to do their own investigations that may reveal the heart of these traditions Another stance that this project takes that distinguishes it from other texts in the discipline is that it advocates an inclusivist perspective regarding the world religions Pluralism which is the predominate assumption today ends either in contradiction or in the development of a metatheory that dismisses crucial distinctions between the various traditions or eliminates some ancient religions because they do not fit the metatheory By taking an open inclusivist approach all religious traditions may engage at the table of dialogue The final essay is about justice and social affairs While that discussion is couched within the context of a particular tradition each religious tradition must have the discussion But it must be more than an intrareligious dialogue it must become an interreligious dialogue
