Justice examines the greatest challenge currently facing the global trading system the large and growing divide between the First World and the Third World This schism threatens to tear apart the GATT WTO system Eclectic in both its theme and methodology Trade and Development positions itself as a moderate book in both substance and tone In a world of loud and sometimes violent protests about globalization and its effects on poor countries this book offers a reasoned and empathetic approach Using five arguments Marxist Origins Capitalist Growth Models Organizing Trade Rules Special and Differential Treatment Rules and Trade Rules and Social Justice this text advances the thesis that international trade law neither is as unjust toward poor countries as critics of the GATT and WTO claim nor is the law as just toward them as GATT WTO defenders contend Bhala uses tools from economic development theory specifically from the Marxist Leninist critique of trade and from the capitalist models of economic growth constructed by leading economists The book also uses tools from theology specifically Catholic and Islamic concepts and principles of social justice Additionally Trade Development and Social Justice proposes specific improvements to make international trade law more socially just This book is part of the Studies on Globalization and Society Series edited by Raj Bhala Rice Distinguished Professor The University of Kansas School of Law This particular assessment is a long overdue analysis of how many participants view the entrenched framework for modern international trade For anyone seeking balance this work is a venerable presentation of how nations talk past each other in the supposed world trade dialogue between the Haves and Have Nots American Society of International Law Newsletter March 2004 International Books in Print ,1991 International Human Rights Law Enforcement: THE INCONGRUOUS VOICES THAT PREVAIL MacDonald I J Mopho,2023-09-06 It is to everyone s benefit for us to have a world of peace and for that reason we must individually seek to identify and confront whatever threatens the prospects of our continuous existence in peace irrespective of how far it might be from us at the time The rights enshrined in treaties as individual human rights in various covenants of the United Nations such as the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights ICCPR 1966 and International Covenant on Economic Social and Cultural Rights ICESCR 1966 are meant to protect and secure people within the territories and governments of the States parties that rectified those covenants with the United Nations Most people today might have forgotten that just about 400 years ago the European nations fought a thirty years religious war 1618 1648 that ended with the treaty of Westphalia Consequently what is now manifesting as acts of gross human rights violations and crimes against humanity perpetrated by States that are democratic governments as well as States that are operating religious nationalism with a menace to the peace and security of the international committee is watched with passive interest by those who are yet to be affected Whether it is the United States leading NATO to invade and destroy Libya and render its citizens victims of gross human rights violations or Russia invading Ukraine in a war of intentional act of aggression and human rights violations or the Taliban in Afghanistan stripping off the women and girls of Afghanistan of their human rights the threat to the International Community should be a matter of concern for all The United Nations Security Council and General Assembly have a responsibility to devise a means of attending to these threats under the provisions of its Charter The Sacred Paths Theodore M.
