What Does China Think:

What Does China Think? Mark Leonard, 2008-04-29 We know everything and nothing about China We know that China is changing so fast that the maps in Shanghai need to be redrawn every two weeks We know that China has brought 300 million people from agricultural backwardness into modernity in just thirty years and that its impact on the global economy is growing at unprecedented speed We have an image of China as a dictatorship a nationalist empire that threatens its neighbors and global peace But how many people know about the debates raging within China What do we really know about the kind of society China wants to become What ideas are motivating its citizens We can name America's neo-cons and the religious right but cannot name Chinese writers thinkers or journalists what is the future they dream of for their country or for the world Because China's rise like the fall of Rome or the British Raj will echo down generations to come these are the questions we increasingly need to ask Mark Leonard asks us to forget everything we thought we knew about China and start again He introduces us to the thinkers who are shaping China's wide open future and opens up a hidden world of intellectual debate that is driving a new Chinese revolution and changing the face of the world China's Millions, 1878 Millard's China National Review Thomas Franklin Fairfax Millard, John Benjamin Powell, John William Powell, 1920 Vol 34 includes Special tariff conference issue Nov 6 1925 Millard's Review of the Far East, 1919 Vol 34 includes Special tariff conference issue Nov 6 1925 Report of the Committee Appointed to Inquire Into the Indian Currency Great Britain.
