Notting Hill Editions essay collection by the late Sir Roger Scruton with a new introduction by Douglas Murray Confessions of a Heretic is a collection of provocative essays by the influential social commentator and polemicist Roger Scruton. Each confession reveals aspects of the author's thinking that his critics would probably have advised him to keep to himself. In this selection covering subjects from art and architecture to politics and nature conservation, Scruton challenges popular opinion on key aspects of our culture. What can we do to protect Western values against Islamist extremism? How can we nurture real friendship through social media? Why is the nation state worth preserving? How should we achieve a timely death against the advances of modern medicine? This provocative collection seeks to answer the most pressing problems of our age. In his introduction, the bestselling author and commentator Douglas Murray writes of what it cost Scruton to express views considered unpalatable and of the importance of these ideas after Scruton's death.

A Critical Companion to Robert Zemeckis Adam Barkman, Antonio Sanna, 2020-10-15. A Critical Companion to Robert Zemeckis offers a comprehensive academic and detailed study of the works of Robert Zemeckis whose films include successful productions such as the Back to the Future trilogy 1985-90, Forrest Gump 1994, Contact 1997, Cast Away 2000, and The Polar Express 2004, but also lesser known films such as I Wanna Hold Your Hand 1978, Used Cars 1980, and Allied 2015. Most of Zemeckis' major productions were not only successful when they were first released but continue to enjoy popularity with critics and fans alike even today. This volume investigates several distinct areas of Zemeckis' works and addresses the different approaches: the philosophical, the artistic, the socio-cultural, and the personal. The methodologies adopted by the contributors differ significantly from each other, thus offering the reader a variegated and compelling picture of Zemeckis' oeuvre which includes nineteen films. Contrary to the few volumes published in the past on the subject, the chapters in this volume offer specific case studies that have been previously ignored or only partially mentioned by other scholars. A Critical Companion to Robert Zemeckis offers a great variety of interdisciplinary approaches to Zemeckis' films, illuminating, re-reading, and/or interpreting for the first time the entire career of the director from his first films to the most recent ones.

The Ridpath Library of Universal Literature John Clark Ridpath, 1899. The Month, 1894. The World of Myth David Adams Leeming, 1992-02-27. Hercules, Zeus, Thor, Gilgamesh: these are the figures that leap to mind when we think of myth. But to David Leeming, myths are more than stories of deities and fantastic beings from non-Christian cultures. Myth is at once the most particular and the most universal feature of civilization, representing common concerns that each society voices in its own idiom. Whether an Egyptian story of creation or the big bang theory of modern physics, myth is metaphor mirroring our deepest sense of ourselves in relation to existence itself. Now in The World of Myth, Leeming provides a sweeping anthology of myths ranging from ancient Egypt and Greece to the Polynesian islands and modern science. We read stories of great floods from the ancient Babylonians, Hebrews, Chinese, and Mayans; tales of apocalypse from India, the Norse, Christianity, and modern science; myths of the mother goddess from Native American Hopi culture and James Lovelock's Gaia. Leeming has culled myths from Aztec, Greek, African, Australian Aboriginal, Japanese, Moslem, Hittite, Celtic, Chinese, and Persian cultures, offering one of the most wide-ranging collections of what he calls the collective dreams of humanity More important he has organized these myths according to a number of themes comparing and contrasting how various societies have addressed similar concerns or have told similar stories In the section on dying gods for example both Odin and Jesus sacrifice themselves to renew the world each dying on a tree Such traditions he proposes may have their roots in societies of the distant past which would ritually sacrifice their kings to renew the tribe In The World of Myth David Leeming takes us on a journey not through a maze of falsehood but through a marvellous world of metaphor metaphor for the story of the relationship between the known and the unknown both around us and within us Fantastic tragic bizarre sometimes funny the myths he presents speak of the most fundamental human experience a part of what Joseph Campbell called the wonderful song of the soul s high adventure
