Manual de los puertos operados por la Empresa Portuaria de Chile, 1979 Empirically Based Interventions Targeting Social Problems John S. Wodarski, Laura M. Hopson, 2019-11-12 This unique volume demonstrates the effectiveness of applying an evidence based practice process to the solution of selected social problems It focuses on social work interventions addressing family community and societal factors Research indicates that reinforcement for positive behavior at the group organizational and community levels as opposed to interventions focusing on the individual are more likely to result in meaningful improvement in well being Chapters address issues such as child maltreatment educationally disadvantaged children violence in schools adolescent sexuality substance abuse crime urban decline and homelessness unemployment marital conflict and chronic medical problems Empirically Based Interventions Targeting Social Problems is a relevant resource for practitioners and counseling professionals whose work involves interventions with children and families as well as communities It also is a useful text for graduate students in social work as well as students preparing for other helping professions including psychology sociology marital and family counseling and child development Quantitative Human Rights Measures and Measurement Mark Gibney, Peter Haschke, 2023-05-29 In this edited volume leading experts of human rights measurement address the challenges scholarship of human rights face as well as explore approaches and means to overcoming them The book seeks to further answer three specific and related questions First what do existing measures of human rights conditions tell us about the state of human rights Are conditions improving or deteriorating Second how might scholars improve their measurement efforts and observe states human rights practices given efforts by governments to hide human rights abuses and to make them essentially unobservable Finally what challenges might scholars encounter in the future as the conceptualization of human rights develops and changes and as new methods and technologies e g natural language processing machine learning are introduced into the study of human rights This book will be of interest to students and scholars of human rights politics power development and governance The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Journal of Human Rights Understanding Conflict and Change in a Multicultural World H. Roy Kaplan, 2014-05-09 Learning about the history of cultural conflict helps teachers reduce it in classrooms This book shows our common origins and reviews sources of conflict in the former Yugoslavia Northern Ireland and the Middle East It reveals how prejudice and stereotypes about racial and religious minorities create problems in our schools Beginning with the human exodus out of Africa 60 000 years ago tension arose among ethnic groups separated by geographic barriers Changes in population immigration work and the role of religion are creating clashes in society and schools Students from different cultural backgrounds are being thrown together as mass transportation and telecommunications shrink our world Inclusive classrooms with respectful learning environments can be achieved when we identify the sources of tension that separate and divide us Students are more alike than different Knowing about our common origin and challenges will help teachers become more effective

Trade and Development Report 2023 United Nations Conference on Trade and Development (UNCTAD), 2023-10-04 The Trade and Development Report 2023 analyses current economic trends and major policy issues of international concern and makes suggestions for addressing these issues at various levels The report warns that the global economy is stalling with growth slowing in most regions compared with last year and only a few countries bucking the trend The global economy is at a crossroads where divergent growth paths widening inequalities growing market concentration and mounting debt burdens cast shadows on the future The prospect of meeting the Sustainable Development Goals SDGs by 2030 is fading as a combination of rising interest rates weakening currencies and slowing export growth squeezes the fiscal space needed for governments to fight climate change and provide for their people The report calls for a change in policy direction including by leading central banks and accompanying institutional reforms promised during the COVID 19 crisis to avert a lost decade It urges global financial reforms more pragmatic policies to tackle inflation inequality and sovereign debt distress and stronger oversight of key markets The report proposes actions to get the global economy moving in the right direction by using a balanced policy mix of fiscal monetary and supply side measures to achieve financial stability boost productive investment and create better jobs Part I of the report launches on 4 October 2023 with part II expected in November

Innovation Through Cooperation Georg Weiers, 2013-09-26 Many people have great ideas Without the necessary skills and means most never get to realize them If they could cooperate with competent firms and entrepreneurs together both could achieve much and this is increasingly happening Mechanisms are being established making a division of labour between inventors and implementers a reality This is changing the nature of innovation from an internal R D or purely entrepreneurial attempt to a more cooperative innovation An Idea Economy emerges where anyone has the possibility to profit from their ideas and everyone will benefit from more and better innovation This book presents us the emergence and structure of the Idea Economy by extending the seminal concepts of Entrepreneurial Society and Open Innovation Part I describes the big picture on how innovation is evolving where we are today and what an Idea Economy will look like Part II points the way forward discussing in detail on how cooperation in the innovation process works and why this is only recently becoming possible

U.S. Industrial Directory, 1983 Population Studies, 1948 Commentaries on Selected Model Investment Treaties Chester Brown, 2013-01-17 The existing literature on the substantive and procedural aspects of bilateral investment treaties BITs relies heavily on investment treaty arbitration decisions as a source of law What is missing is a comprehensive analytical review of state practice This volume fills this gap providing detailed analyses of the investment treaty policy and practice of nineteen leading capital exporting states and emerging market economies The authors are leading experts in government academia and private legal practice and their chapters are largely based on primary source materials Each chapter provides a description of the regulatory or policy framework governing foreign investment both inflows and outflows with a historical presentation of the state's Model BIT an examination of internal government processes and practices relating to treaty negotiation conclusion ratification and record keeping and a detailed article by article analytical commentary of the state s Model BIT elucidating the policy behind each provision and highlighting the ways in which the actual investment treaty practice of that state deviates from this standard text This commentary is supplemented by the case law relevant to that state s investment treaties This commentary will be of immense assistance to counsel and arbitrators engaged in arguing and determining the proper interpretation of BITs and investment chapters in Free Trade Agreements and to government officials and scholars engaged in BIT policy formulation and implementation It will serve as a standard resource for legal practitioners scholars policy makers and other stakeholders in the field of international investment policy law and arbitration Fertility Behaviour in the Context of Development World Fertility Survey, United Nations.
