

Trimester 1

One-Grade Level: BBBB

This semester, students began the new year working on building good reading habits. Working as word detectives, students use many different strategies as they decode text. The students have progressed in decoding sounds and words by tapping out tricky words, a concept learned in Fundamentals Phonics. _____ is progressing in recognizing first grade sight words with automaticity. Practice with memorizing sight words will help _____ improve his reading fluency, allowing him to scoop words more easily and read with expression. Reading with fluency will aid in reading comprehension. I am encouraging _____ to practice comprehension strategies during guided reading, which includes taking a picture walk, asking questions, and doing a retelling after reading a book. In writing, _____ is able to plan a small coherent story to write on each page independently. With teacher support and encouragement, he is able to create a fully completed piece of writing. Recently, he is writing how-to stories. I will continue to coach him to build his writing independence and confidence. I am encouraging _____ to check his writing independently for standard spelling, capitalization, letter formation, and punctuation. I look forward to watching _____ continue to grow throughout the rest of his first grade year!
