Identification Manual: Reptilia. Amphibia. Pisces ,1995 Mergent International Manual ,2001 The Things We Carry Courtney Adams Wooten,Jacob Babb,Kristi Murray Costello,Kate Navickas,2020-10-01 Emotional labor is not adequately talked about or addressed by writing program administrators The Things We Carry makes this often invisible labor visible demonstrates a variety of practical strategies to navigate it reflectively and opens a path for further research Particularly timely this collection considers how writing program administrators work when their schools or regions experience crisis situations The book is broken into three sections one emphasizing the WPA s own work identity one on fostering community in writing programs and one on balancing the professional and personal Chapters written by a diverse range of authors in different institutional and WPA contexts examine the roles of WPAs in traumatic events such as mass shootings and natural disasters as well as the emotional labor WPAs perform on a daily basis such as working with students who have been sexually assaulted or endured racist sexist homophobic and otherwise disenfranchising interactions on campus The central thread in this collection focuses on preserving by acknowledging that emotions are neither good nor bad and that they must be continually reflected upon as WPAs consider what to do with emotional labor and how to respond Ultimately this book argues for more visibility of the emotional labor WPAs perform and for WPAs to care for themselves even as they care for others The Things We Carry extends conversations about WPA emotional labor and offers concrete and useful strategies for administrators working in both a large range of traumatic events as well as daily situations that require tactical work to preserve their sense of self and balance It will be invaluable to writing program administrators specifically and of interest to other types of administrators as well as scholars in rhetoric and composition who are interested in emotion more broadly Virginia Woolf James Acheson,2017-03-09 This collection of original essays on Virginia Woolf by leading scholars in the field opens up new debates on the work of one of the foremost modernists of the 20th century The collection also looks at some of Woolf's own essays discussing her theory of fiction and devotion to stream of consciousness writing. Its thirteen contributors place this discussion of Woolf's artistic theory and practice within the context of her association with the Bloomsbury Group and her interest in spirituality, feminism, homosexuality, pacifism, and psychoanalysis.
