Troubled Masculinities Reimagining Urban Men 2011 12 22:

Troubled Masculinities Ken Moffatt, 2011-12-22 In the contemporary urban environment the once dominant concept of a masculine identity is being replaced by alternative ideas of what it means to be a man Troubled Masculinities explores and theorizes the ways in which men who experience marginalization in urban settings reimagine and reconstruct their identities as males Through personal narratives and assessments of artistic expression the contributors present critical and inventive views of masculinity and how it is performed and interpreted in urban space Set against the backdrop of Toronto the essays engage with the global and transnational processes that affect identity and consider how the social hybridity of large cities allows individuals to work against fundamentalist and essentialist attitudes toward gender The contributors represent diverse backgrounds races ethnicities sexualities and gender orientations and they offer unique perspectives on conforming to and breaking away from traditional interpretations of masculinity The essays in this volume explore the effect of race on one's own understanding of gender identity the role of performance and visual art from screen printing to drag king shows in challenging hegemonic masculinities and the impact of space from bubble tea houses to punk rock clubs on expressions of masculinity Troubled Masculinities is an important contribution to the growing field of masculinity studies and a valuable assessment of the nature of gender in a modern Canadian urban setting The collected essays will appeal to a wide audience from social scientists and artists to activists and general readers

Masculinities and Femininities in Latin America's Uneven Development Susan Paulson, 2015-08-20 This book forges a new approach to historical and geographical change by asking how gender arrangements and dynamics influence the evolution of institutions and environments This new theoretical approach is applied via mixed methods and a multi scale framework to bring together unusually diverse phenomena Regional trends demonstrated with quantitative data include the massive incorporation of women into paid work demographic masculinization of the countryside and feminization of cities rapidly increasing gaps that favor women over men in education and life expectancy and extraordinarily high levels of violence against men Case studies in Mexico Chile and Bolivia explore changes influenced by gender practices and expectations that involve men in different ways than women they also highlight dissimilarities and power relations between differently positioned masculine groups Ethnographic studies of culturally diverse arrangements together with particular attention to subordinate versus dominant masculinities complicate the gender binaries that circumscribe so much research and policy Drawing attention to imbalances and conflicts generated by inappropriate models and uneven developments the book points to opportunities for experimenting with and adapting the sociocultural institutions that govern relations among humans and between humans and their environment

Black Men Teaching in Urban Schools Edward Brockenbrough, 2018-05-20 This volume follows eleven Black male teachers from an urban predominantly Black school district to reveal a complex set of identity politics and power dynamics that complicate these teachers' relationships with students and fellow educators It provides new and important insights into what it means to be a Black male teacher and suggests strategies for school districts teacher preparation programs researchers and other stakeholders to rethink why and how we recruit and train Black male teachers for urban K 12 classrooms Canadian Graphic Candida Rifkind,Linda Warley,2016-05-15 Canadian Graphic Picturing Life Narratives presents critical essays on contemporary Canadian cartoonists working in graphic life narrative from confession to memoir to biography The contributors draw on literary theory visual studies and cultural history to show how Canadian cartoonists have become so prominent in the international market for comic books based on real life experiences The essays explore the visual styles and storytelling techniques of Canadian cartoonists as well as their shared concern with the spectacular vulnerability of the self Canadian Graphic also considers the role of graphic life narratives in reimagining the national past including Indigenous settler relations both world wars and Quebec s Quiet Revolution Contributors use a range of approaches to analyze the political aesthetic and narrative tensions in these works between self and other memory and history individual and collective An original contribution to the study of auto biography alternative comics and Canadian print culture Canadian Graphic proposes new ways of reading the intersection of comics and auto biography both within and across national boundaries

Postmodern Social Work Ken Moffatt,2019-09-24 How should social workers adapt to a time of widespread instability and uncertainty How can social work practice account for the ever increasing infiltration of technology and media images into our daily lives and mental states In this book Ken Moffatt turns to postmodern philosophy s grappling with late capitalism and the omnipresence of technology in order to develop a new approach to reflective social work practice and critical pedagogy Postmodern Social Work attempts to reconcile postmodern thinkers with the realities of teaching social work to diverse student populations in a precarious era Moffatt advocates an ideal of reflective practice that allows social workers to combine direct experience social welfare and social justice Through a series of interlocking essays focused on the theoretical underpinnings of reflective practice in the context of social work education he explores the implications of postmodern theory for social work practice Drawing on thinkers such as Michel Foucault Judith Butler Julia Kristeva Gilles Deleuze and F lix Guattari Moffatt lays out a path forward for reflective social work providing new ways of thinking that collapse old categories and integrate direct practice with community engagement and social analysis Postmodern Social Work offers an approach to practice and teaching that considers the shifting landscape of social change while remaining true to social work s primary concerns of inclusion and justice Troubled Masculinities Kenneth James Moffatt,2012-01-01

Through personal narratives and assessments of artistic expression the contributors present critical and inventive views of masculinity and how it is performed and interpreted in urban space Set against the backdrop of Toronto the essays engage with the global and transnational processes that affect identity and consider how the social hybridity of large cities allows individuals to work against fundamentalist and essentialist attitudes toward gender Reimagining Black Masculinities Mark C. Hopson,Mika'il Petin,2020-10-14 Reimagining Black Masculinities Race Gender and Public Space addresses how

Black masculinities are created negotiated and contested in public spaces focusing on how theory meets praxis when mobilizing for social change Contributors disentangle complexities of the Black experience and reimagine the radical progressive work required for societal health and wellbeing forming a mental picture of what the world has the potential to be without excluding current realities for Black boys and men civic manhood maleness and the fluidity of masculinities These realities are acknowledged and interrogated across private and public contexts media education occupation and theoretical perspectives This book encourages readers to reenvision social identity as an ongoing phenomenon asserting that collective vision informs action and collective action informs possibilities for peace and freedom in the world around us Scholars of communication gender studies and race studies will find this book particularly interesting
