To Live In Peace Biblical Faith And The Changing Inner City:

To Live in Peace Mark R. Gornik, 2002-09-17 Building on both the perspective of God's new creation and the view from the neighborhood To Live in Peace shows how the life of the church the strategies of community development and the practices of peacemaking can make a transformational difference

Faith as a Way of Life Christian Scharen, 2008-06-03 Christian ministry is deeply concerned with proclaiming the transforming power of God's gift of faith in the daily lives of disciples How is it then that so often Christian faith fails to orient our lives Christian Scharen offers the compelling argument that such a way of life needs communities and leaders that build and communicate faith as foundation Pastors will be able to impart this vision of faith he cautions only if they themselves are compelled by it and if their parishioners find that the model helps them make sense of life as a whole Faith as a Way of Life is one response to this call for reflection on Christian faith as an orienting force impacting every aspect of daily life Scharen examines the powerful languages that can replace faith language emotion driven therapeutic and results driven managerial models and shows how their domination leads to faith becoming a weak sibling He directly engages the problems these languages often lead to with the hope of fostering pastoral leadership grounded in a vision of faith as a way of life Faith as a Way of Life is an engaging and encouraging examination of how pastoral leaders can model and mediate faith as the beating heart pumping life blood through every sphere of life

African Voices Israel Oluwole Olofinjana, 2017-08-30 Introducing an emerging academic field known as African British Theologies this publication explores the significant presence of African Christianity in Britain Featuring contributions from twelve scholarly African pastors engaged in ministry and theology in Britain this book is a unique expression of theology from African Christians contextualizing the gospel for a multicultural British society Under three key areas of missiology contextual constructive theology and transformative practical theology the contributors interact with topics such as reverse missiology African pneumatology prosperity gospel and urban mission This book rigorously examines new contexts of Christianity and articulates new theological perspectives that are required to understand twenty first century ministry not only in urban Britain but also across the world

Cultivating an Evangelistic Character Christopher James Schoon, 2018-04-24 This project explores the relationship between worship discipleship and evangelism within the missional church movement Engaging contributions from liturgical theology Christian ethics and post Christendom evangelism the book proposes a missional approach to worship that when integrated with a praxis oriented discipleship cultivates Jesus character among God's people Along the way the project attends to the Holy Spirit's transformative presence the liturgical rhythms of remembering and anticipating and the practices of hospitality and compassion In the end Cultivating an Evangelistic Character contends that the Spirit works through the integration of worship and discipleship to form God's people In other words God's people become evangelistic or as Newbigin said the hermeneutic of the gospel

Dismissing Jesus Douglas M. Jones, 2013-05-07 What is the way of the cross Why does it create resistance How do we answer objections to it The revival of interest in Christ's kingdom and radical discipleship has produced a wave of discussions but sometimes those discussions are scattered This book aims to pull together in one place the core claims of the way of the cross It aims to examine the deeply cherished assumptions that hinder us from hearing Jesus's call When we do that we'll see that the gospel of Christ is not primarily about getting into heaven or about living a comfortable individually pious middle class life It is about being free from the ancient pervasive and delightful oppression of Mammon in order to create a very different community the church an alternative city kingdom here and now on earth by means of living and celebrating the way of the cross the reign of joyful weakness renunciation self denial sharing foolishness community and love overcoming evil

Speaking Church I. Ross Bartlett, 2019-01-03 Language is the gift by which we shape our understanding and tell our story But if we cannot see ourselves and our context in our language our lives can be confused and our witness weakened through a kind of cognitive dissonance created when the only vocabulary available to us fails to match our lived situation Urban and suburban congregations live this disconnect when the language and imagery often employed in hymns prayers imagery and liturgies reflect a rural ideal far from the experience of believers The irony is revealed when we recognize that the Bible is a book deeply and profoundly urban in nature Christianity's earliest history gives both authorization and resources for helping urban and suburban congregations find their unique voice

A New Vision, a New Heart, a Renewed Call David Claydon, 2005

Asians in Diaspora and Diasporas in Asia Sam George, Bulus Galadima, Jeanne Wu, 2025-03-31 Asians are everywhere They move for education and economic betterment while others are forcibly displaced Home to nearly two thirds of the world's population it is inevitable that this region sends out and receives a large share of global migrants There are few corners of the world devoid of the presence and influence of this far reaching diaspora This collection of essays from leading scholars and seasoned practitioners explores the journeys of modern Asian diasporas from a Christian perspective Addressing relevant issues contextually the authors cover pertinent topics such as justice amongst migrant workers immigration policies and climate migration while simultaneously reflecting on the biblical perspective of diaspora Timely and practical this book reveals how God moves with Asian people making himself known amongst them and through them Transition and Transformation in Hungary Krisztina Oláh, 2025-07-31 Moving from communist regimes to democratically elected governments in 1990 initiated radical political economic and cultural transition in Central and Eastern Europe Emerging from the shadows of communist rule in Hungary visible in the widespread presence of corruption autocratic leadership and counter economy how can personal Christian values bring lasting change to the work leadership and business activities of individuals and their organizations Bridging the gap between secular and sacred in philosophy theology and business studies Krisztina Oláh seeks to define how the integrated life of those Christians in business can be the solution to widespread corruption With academic rigor and interdisciplinary scope Oláh's qualitative interviews and survey data present empirical insight from experienced Christian business leaders as well as authentic perspectives on ethical leadership to lay out practical tools in overcoming the challenges they face This exploration of post communist transformation in the Hungarian context will have relevance to any scholar practitioner or Christian business leader who longs to see the practice of biblical values reshape their environment

Toward a Prophetic Youth Ministry Fernando Arzola Jr., 2008-02-18 Fernando Arzola Jr addresses the gap in the literature of youth ministry resources conceived and realized in an urban setting He brings together three dominant paradigms traditional liberal and activist to create an approach that is informed by Scripture and the contemporary realities of adolescent development in an urban setting Fully Engaged James R. Krabill, Stanley W. Green, 2015-07-01 Does your church look and sound and feel like mission Mission happens when congregations fully align themselves with God's purposes As the missional church movement matures Anabaptists bring a time honored theological tradition a contemporary spiritual vitality and practical stories of witness to the conversation How are churches and individuals living out Christ's call to engage locally and globally And how is it changing them in the process Featuring the voices of missional Mennonite leaders Fully Engaged offers stories and analysis about how mission is taking shape in local congregations and contexts A diverse chorus of Anabaptist pastors and laypeople explores the roots tools and applications of the missional movement From nurturing church planting to creating a missional culture to preaching for missional engagement Fully Engaged offers insights and ideas for churches looking for direction Hopeful Realism in Urban Ministry Barry K. Morris, 2016-05-20 What pray tell does a faithful urban ministry require if not a triadic relationship of prayer justice and hope Could such a theologically conjunctive relationship of prayer justice and hope fortify urban ministry and challenge students and practitioners to ponder and practice beyond the box Frequently justice is collapsed to charity hope into wishful thinking or temporarily arrested despair and prayer a grasp at quick fix interventions An urban ministry's steadfast public and prophetic witness longs for the depth and width of this triad Via three countries decades of endeavors one chapter brainstorms urban ministry practices while another's literature survey signals crucial convictions Amid many seminal theologians are summoned to ground urban ministry intimations and implications Niebuhr on justice Moltmann on hope and Merton on contemplative prayer Evident is passion that fuels compassion in the service of justice hope that engages despair and prayer that draws from the contemplative center of it all thankful resources for long haul ministry The triad presses to illumine a concrete ministry's engagement of relentless forced option issues yet with significant networks resourcing Contrast awareness animates endurance The summary exegetes the original grace based serenity prayer Hence hope vitally balances realism's temptation to cynicism Realism saves hope from irrelevancy

Reconciling Places Paul A. Hoffman, 2020-08-12 Jesus said Blessed are the peacemakers but in our increasingly polarized communities and nation where can a person of faith begin In Reconciling Places pastor and scholar Paul Hoffman introduces laypeople and ministry leaders to a theology of reconciliation that equips Christians to act as reconcilers and bridge builders wherever they are and whatever issues divide their communities

The Father and Son Timothy Keller, 2013-08-20 Timothy Keller renowned pastor and New York Times bestselling author examines Jesus' ascension into Heaven and why this act is an important resource for Christians in The Father and Son the ninth installment in his Encounters with Jesus eBook series Jesus' ascension into Heaven the end of his earthly life is one of the most puzzling moments in the Gospels It marks the moment when Jesus was no longer limited to a specific point in space and time In The Father and Son Timothy Keller pastor of New York's Redeemer Presbyterian Church and New York Times bestselling author of The Reason for God explains why this means our encounters with Jesus can be richer now that he is available to us in all times and places

The Community of the Weak Hans-Peter Geiser, 2013-03-28 Social postmodernism and systematic theology can be considered the new pair in some of the most creative discussions on the future of theological method on a global scale Both in the academy and in the public square as well as in the manifold local and pastoral moments of ministry and community social activism the social the postmodern and the theological intermingle in engaging and border crossing ways The Community of the Weak presents a new kind of jazzy fundamental theology with a postmodern touch using jazz as a metaphor writing ethnographically messy texts out of the personal windows of lived experiences combining fragments of autobiography with theological reconstruction A comparative perspective on North American and European developments in contemporary systematic theology serves as a hermeneutical horizon to juxtapose two continents in their very different contexts The author proposes a systematic and fundamental theology that is more jazzy global and narrative deeply embedded in pastoral ministry to tell its postmodern story

Shalom: God's Ultimate Purpose for the World Dae-Young Lee, 2021-06-23 What is our preconception about Muslims Do we continue to practice medical missions in a way that is no longer considered an effective means of presenting the gospel to the unreached Is our gospel message biblically balanced and firmly contextualized in the context that we try to serve There are numerous questions that we may ask ourselves when we desire to share God's love with people who are still alienated from it Christian cross cultural missions should reconsider the strategies and attitudes that no longer reflect biblical principles This book brings a lot of insightful thoughts and suggestions from the author's medical ministry experience in the Arab world to those who want to reach out to the unreached. The theology of shalom enables us to deeply understand God's ultimate purpose toward the world that he created and to devote our lives to bring people to his kingdom in the humble way that Jesus has presented throughout his life on earth when he was with us. This book demonstrates how Christian medical missions can be manifested in a more biblical way and can serve people who have been physically injured and emotionally broken more effectively.

The Chinese Exodus Li Ma, 2018-07-02 This book offers a sociological analysis as well as a theological discussion of China's internal migration since the marketization reform in 1978. It documents the social and political processes that encompass the experiences of internal migrants from the countryside to the city during China's integration into the global economy. Informed by sociological analysis and narratives of the urban poor, this volume reconstructs the political, economic, social, and spiritual dimensions of this urban underclass in China who made up the economic backbone of the Asian superpower.

Where Justice Dwells Jill Jacobs, 2011 Jewish tradition compels us to protect the poorest, weakest, and most vulnerable among us. But discerning how to make meaningful and effective change through social justice work, whether in community or on your own, is not always easy.

The Lines Between Us Lawrence Lanahan, 2019-05-21 A masterful narrative with echoes of Evicted and The Color of Law that brings to life the structures, policies, and beliefs that divide us. Mark Lange and Nicole Smith have never met, but if they make the moves they are contemplating, Mark, a white suburbanite, to West Baltimore and Nicole, a black woman, from a poor city neighborhood to a prosperous suburb, it will defy the way the Baltimore region has been programmed for a century. It is one region but separate worlds. And it was designed to be that way. In this deeply reported, revelatory story, duPont Award-winning journalist Lawrence Lanahan chronicles how the region became so highly segregated and why its fault lines persist today. Mark and Nicole personify the enormous disparities in access to safe housing, educational opportunities, and decent jobs. As they eventually pack up their lives and change places, bold advocates and activists in the courts and in the streets struggle to figure out what it will take to save our cities and communities. Put money into poor, segregated neighborhoods. Make it possible for families to move into areas with more opportunity. The Lines Between Us is a riveting narrative that compels reflection on America's entrenched inequality and on where the rubber meets the road, not in the abstract but in our own backyards. Taking readers from church sermons to community meetings to public hearings to protests to the Supreme Court to the death of Freddie Gray, Lanahan deftly exposes the intricacy of Baltimore's hypersegregation through the stories of ordinary people living it, shaping it, and fighting it day in and day out. This eye-opening account of how a city creates its black and white places, its rich and poor spaces, reveals that these problems are not intractable but they are designed to endure until each of us, despite living in separate worlds, understands we have something at stake.
