Together for the Common Good Nicholas Sagovsky, Peter McGrail, 2015-03-31 How can we work together for the common good today Thirteen contributors Christian Jewish Muslim non religious discuss the common good from a wide range of viewpoints How have thinkers like Aristotle and Edmund Burke talked about the common good in the past Catholic Social Teaching has a lot to say about the common good what does the common good mean for the world s great religious traditions today How can we usefully talk about the common good in a plural society What responsibility has the state for the common good Can the market serve the common good If we care about the common good what should we think and do about immigration education the NHS inequality and freedom This book starts from the example of David Sheppard and Derek Worlock the Anglican Bishop and Roman Catholic Archbishop who famously worked together for the good of the city of Liverpool in the 1980s The contributors call for a national conversation about how despite our differences we can work together locally nationally internationally for the common good A Companion to Public Theology, 2017-01-23 Winner of the 2017 Choice Outstanding Academic Title Award Public theology has emerged in the twentieth and twenty first centuries as theologians have increasingly entered the public square to engage complex issues This Companion to Public Theology brings a much needed resource to this relatively new field The essays contained here bring a robust and relevant faith perspective to a wide range of issues as well as foundational biblical and theological perspectives which equip theologians to enter into public dialogue Public theology has never been more needed in public discourse whether local or global In conversation across disciplines its contribution to the construction of just policies is apparent in this volume as scholars examine the areas of political social and economic spheres as well as issues of ethics and civil societies and draw on contexts from six continents Contributors are Chris Baker Andrew Bradstock Luke Bretherton Lisa Sowle Cahill Letitia M Campbell Claudio Carvalhaes Katie Day Frits de Lange Jolyon Mitchell Elaine Graham Paul Hanson Nico Koopman Sebastian Kim Esther McIntosh Clive Pearson Scott Paeth Larry L Rasmussen Hilary Russell Nicholas Sagovsky Dirk J Smit William Storrar David Tombs Rudolf von Sinner Jenny Anne Wright and Yvonne Zimmerman Mending the World? Niclas Blader, Kristina Helgesson Kjellin, 2017-06-16 Religion has played a major role in history affecting the course of events and influencing individuals Today one frequently hears the expression the return of religion but opinions differ as to how this return is to be understood It is clear that modernity and postmodernity have not meant that religion is dead or relegated to society s backyards Religion is still of vital importance for many people It has to some extent changed shape but has not lost its legitimacy and attractiveness to broad groups Religion is public visible and has sought for voice but it is also wrestling with extremism ignorance and preconceptions Just like ideologies religions are capable of activating diametrically opposite traits in humans It is this dual tension that is implicit in the question mark in this book s title Mending the World This book s aim is to help explore whether how and in what ways religion church and theology can contribute constructively to the future of a global society In thirty one chapters researchers from around the world address the relation between religion and society

Religion in Diverse Societies Pauline Kollontai, Sue Yore, 2024-11-11 Religion in Diverse Societies Crossing the Boundaries of Prejudice and Distrust contributes to existing cutting edge research on the constructive way in which religion can support the promotion of respect dignity and justice for all people considered as essential features in shaping sustainable diverse and peaceful societies Through a combination of theoretical perspectives and theological analysis applied to real life contexts the diverse contributions examine the role of religion in helping to achieve this and thereby challenge the attitudes and practices that create walls of prejudice and distrust This timely volume provides a critical discussion of the complex role of religions in the public and political spheres in a range of global contexts and furthers the inter religious international and interdisciplinary understanding of how religion can contribute to promoting and helping create inclusive and diverse societies

The Common Gaze Eric Stoddart, 2021-01-29 Our political spheres are riven with micro targeted political advertising that degrades the possibilities and incentive for shared respectful debate We are producers as well as consumers of data when we record our physical and sometimes our spiritual exercise on smartphone apps The algorithms which identify us granting us access to state and corporate provision are not objective but often deeply discriminatory against people of colour and those lower on socio economic scales Offering a ground breaking new perspective on one of the great concerns of our time Eric Stoddart examines everyday surveillance in the light of concern for the common good He reveals the urgent need to challenge data gathering and analysis that weakens the social fabric by dividing people into categories largely based on inferred characteristics and interprets surveillance in relation to God s preferential option for those who are poor The Common Gaze is a call not only for revised surveillance but for better ways of understanding how God sees

A Faithful Presence Hilary Russell, 2015-10-30 Together for the Common Good T4CG is a national initiative that encourages people of goodwill especially from different Christian traditions to work together for the common good across political and belief traditions Its growing network comprises people of all Christian denominations along with other faith traditions and secular allies and includes on the ground social action practitioners clergy lay people political thinkers academics theologians commentators and policy makers The project is guided by an independent ecumenical steering group inspired by the partnership between Bishop David Sheppard Archbishop Derek Worlock and Free Church leaders in Liverpool a generation ago In A Faithful Presence Working Together for the Common Good Hilary Russell a founder member of T4CG explores how faith based collaboration works best for the common good This is a short accessible book written in non technical language designed to be of interest to practitioners clergy and lay especially those who create manage and implement social justice initiatives It contains lots of illustrative examples of the ways in which churches are working together for the common good to strengthen civil society through social action service provision community building prayer and advocacy As well as making use of her other experience Hilary draws on the findings of T4CG s 12 month research process which explored these issues

State without Religion? Jeroen Jans, 2022-12-07 In recent decades the Netherlands and Flanders have faced challenges in how to deal with a multicultural society. As far as worldviews are concerned the question arises whether the state should guarantee a maximum level of choice concerning religion and humanism to individuals or leave a free space to the religious and humanist communities. This study explores in how far committed Catholic Protestant Muslim and humanist youth agree with different models of the relationship between worldviews and the state against the backdrop of their religious and humanist beliefs as well as social determinants. It does so by drawing on quantitative and qualitative empirical research. The analyses show that overall most religious and humanist youth prefer the state to guarantee a maximum level of choice to individuals but also want the state to respect a substantial free space for communities. Above all they want the state to treat worldviews equally before the law. Their religious and humanist beliefs are the most significant determinants. Jeroen Jans 1990 works at the Diocese of Hasselt and is a visiting researcher at Radboud University. He performed his doctoral research at the Faculty of Philosophy Theology and Religious Studies.

Theological Reflection: Methods, 2nd Edition Elaine Graham, Heather Walton, Frances Ward, 2019-02-27 Theological Reflections Methods offers a comprehensive collection of models of theological reflection. By bringing this diverse collection together in one place the editors create a unique reference work that allows a clear and visible contrast and comparison as each model is treated formally and in a standard format. Throughout each chapter the distinguishing features of the model are examined the genealogy and origins are discussed worked examples of the model applied to contemporary theology are provided and critical commentary future trends and exercises and questions are provided. Now firmly established as an essential text on theological reflection this new edition has been revised and updated with a new introduction updated examples and refreshed bibliographies.

12 Rules for Christian Activists Ellen Loudon, 2020-04-30 If you've ever browsed the self-help sections of any bookshop you'd be forgiven for thinking that all we need to do in order to have a better life is to work hard take exercise and get thin. Yet Christian activism calls us to a bigger vision of what life is for. It dares to suggest that Christians change the world for the better. In 12 Rules for Christian Activists Ellen Loudon and a host of contributors present 12 accessible and practical principles to encourage a new generation to create a movement for positive social change. Each chapter combines clear theological insight with inspiring stories told by activists and practitioners including Naomi Maynard activist researcher Richard Peers spiritual director Angus Ritchie Director Centre for Theology and Community and Nadine Daniel Church of England National Refugee Coordinator.

The Lyric Voice in English Theology Elizabeth S. Dodd, 2023-09-21 In this book Elizabeth S. Dodd traces the contours of a lyric theology through the lens of English lyric tradition. She addresses the dominance of narrative and drama in contemporary theological aesthetics by drawing on recent developments in lyric theory. Informed by the work of critics such as Jonathan Culler Dodd explores the significance of lyric for theological discourse. Lyric is presented here as a short musical expressive and personal form that is also fragmentary embodied socially located and performative The main chapters address key moments in English lyric tradition This selective approach aims to expand the theological gaze beyond the monochromatic features of the traditional canon It covers Anglo Saxon hymns medieval lullaby carols early modern sonnets and the prophetic poetry of Romanticism but also Grime and hip hop performance poetry social media poetry and Geoffrey Hill

Well-being, Personal Wholeness and the Social Fabric Doru Costache,Darren Cronshaw,2017-05-11 Well being is a familiar term in academic literature and public discourse It captures the imagination by addressing issues related to the social good and the quest for personal happiness It embraces a wide variety of concerns age gender sexuality ethnicity self esteem health class education institution and ecosystems among many issues Well being studies focus on the welfare of the world and its inhabitants bringing holistic and transformative perspectives to bear The Christian faith has been a powerful contributor to this tradition over the centuries Human beings made in the image of God are called to live transformed lives through the Spirit of Christ in communities of grace and reconciliation for the benefit of others caring for our planet in the expectation of God s new creation What difference does the study of well being from a Christian perspective make

Faith in Higher Education Hirpo Kumbi,2024-11-06 The higher education sector currently faces a series of challenges from internationalisation inclusivity financial cost and quality assurance This book examines the church founded model of higher education and argues that this is a promising approach for establishing greater levels of provision in the future especially in developing countries This book contains three case studies undertaken at church founded universities in the UK Kenya and Nigeria founded by church organisations but operating without denominational bias These reveal that this model emphasises the wellbeing of their students over the pursuit of profit and the delivery of relevant courses over easily marketed but unapplicable subjects These studies culminate in a set of recommendations for good practice which will be of use to church leaders policy makers and anyone concerned with widening participation in higher education Ultimately this book encourages co operation between churches and governments when establishing future institutions of higher education for the benefit of all

Faith in Democracy Jonathan Chaplin,2021-04-30 What is the place of faith in public life in the UK Beyond secularism that seeks to relegate faith to the margins of public life and a Christian nation position that seeks to retain or even regain Christian public privilege there is a third way Faith in Democracy Framing a Politics of Deep Diversity calls for an approach that maximises public space for the expression of faith based visions within democratic fora while repudiating all traces of religious privilege It argues for a truly conversational space reflecting theologically on the contested concepts at the heart of the current debate about the place of faith in British public life democracy secularism pluralism and public faith

Weaving Theology in Oceania Beatrice Green,Keiti Ann Kanongata'a,2020-10-06 Clear assessment of our needs in a global society and sound creative solutions from an Oceanic perspective and beyond form the subject matter of this book Here the cries of suffering from women in violent relationships people yearning for growth and dignity others with mental and emotional trauma and mother Earth herself are heard and enlist support and direction from those whose energy and insight are centred in faith hope and love and firmly anchored in Christian professional academic endeavour The book is patterned after the woven mats roof and sails of the great ocean going canoe to image the diversity of content of this extraordinary gathering of hearts hands and minds While it reflects the global scholarly Christian concern and outreach indicative of our times and a theological approach that is interactive and interdependent it reveals a weaving that is unfinished because the voyage must continue onwards in an attitude of deep listening and open questioning As such the work gathered here represents an energetic contribution towards courageous engagement in the travail that characterises our extraordinary transitional era as we move towards a new consciousness and the book will be of particular interest to academic theologians educationalists Church authorities and pastoral workers from the Oceanic region However it will also inspire and inform comparable groups from other parts of the world simply because what is presented here has universal implications

Before and Beyond the 'Big Society' Joseph Forde, 2022-05-26 John Milbank's theology has shaped much modern political thinking both within and without the Church In Before and Beyond the Big Society Joseph Forde presents the first study devoted exclusively to John Milbank's theology of welfare and how it has influenced policy in the Church of England since 2008 By examining the favourable response the Church gave to the Big Society project in 2010-12 Forde shows that Milbank's Blue Socialist fingerprint increasingly dominates However this theology has not evolved in a vacuum and Forde expertly places it in its historical and theoretical context He offers a detailed critical discussion of Milbank's own critique of what has been the mainstream Temple Anglican theology of welfare in the Church of England since the 1940s and a fresh contribution to the assessment of Anglican social theology Finally he demonstrates how Milbank's ideas have been furthered by other influential Anglicans It is this influence that will carry the greatest implications for the Church of England's policy on welfare going forward making this study relevant to all who care about its contribution to the provision of welfare

Reimagining Mission From Urban Places Dr Anna Ruddick, 2020-03-31 Within a changing social and political context the role of the church in public life and the response of Christians to social issues has taken on renewed energy Churches have entered enthusiastically into community engagement projects such as foodbanks and night shelters with a broad understanding of this as mission Missional Pastoral Care offers much needed reflection about the nature of mission and about expectations for missional outcomes Using the stories of team members within the Eden Network which emphasises an incarnational approach to urban mission the book demonstrates that at its best mission happens in a shared life rather than being about us telling the listening world A timely and provocative call to churches missional groups and those training for ministry to reflect more deeply on their practice and theology the book insists that mission is about difference love locality and long term consistency and at its best is slow complicated and messy

Politics & Mission Martin Gainsborough, 2023-03-01 The Church is political because it tells a radically different story from the dominant political norms

The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts.

The Secret History is a exceptional and gripping novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
