Description :

*A Common Core Exemplar Text by an award-winning author-illustrator team*Tom's is a son of migrant workers. Every summer he and his family follow the crops north from Texas to Iowa, spending long, arduous days in the fields. At night they gather around to hear Grandfather's wonderful stories. But before long, Tom knows all the stories by heart. "There are more stories in the library," Pap Grandetells him. The very next day, Tom meets the library lady and a whole new world opens up for him. Based on the true story of the Mexican-American author and educator Tom's Rivera, a child of migrant workers who went on to become the first minority Chancellor in the University of California system, this inspirational story suggests what libraries--and education--can make possible. Liminal Spaces in Children's and Young Adult Literature Mark I. West, 2024-03-12 Scholars in the field of children s literature studies began taking an interest in the concept of liminal spaces around the turn of the 21st century For the first time Liminal Spaces in Children s and Young Adult Literature Stories from the In Between brings together in one volume a collection of original essays on this topic by leading children s literature scholars The contributors in this collection take a wide variety of approaches to their explorations of liminal spaces in children's and young adult literature Some discuss how children's books portray the liminal nature of physical spaces such as the children's room in a library Others deal with more abstract portrayals such as the imaginary space where Max goes to escape the reality of his bedroom in Maurice Sendak's Where the Wild Things Are All of the contributors however provide keen insights into how liminal spaces figure in children's and young adult literature Crash Course in Family Literacy Programs Rosemary Chance, Laura Sheneman, 2012-03-08 This book collects the research on literacy information regarding the importance of reading to children sources of funding and places to find information about literacy programs in the 50 states all in a single volume Family literacy programs can be remarkably effective in helping families who struggle in various areas of literacy or supporting their children's academic needs Crash Course in Family Literacy Programs provides an introduction and an overview of this critical subject defining what literacy family literacy and family literacy events are and covering critical topics such as sources of funding conclusions of recent research and bilingual family literacy The first half of the book is focused on laying out background information about family literacy while the remainder provides practical how to information for public and school libraries to develop their own family literacy programming The book shows perspectives of public librarians school principals children's book store owners and school personnel who have successfully implemented a family literacy program Planning sheets and lesson templates are included making it easy to develop a family literacy program Celebrate Reading!, 1995 An integrated reading language arts program which includes a diversity of genres and award winning selections such as Regina's big mistake Emma's dragon hunt Frog and toad are friends The book of piggericks Eddy B pigboy The relatives came Helping out Soccer Sam Nessa's fish Higher on the door The lost lake The tub people

The Documented Child Maya Socolovsky, 2025-02-04 Immigration is at once a personal immediate and urgent issue that plays a central role in the United States perception of itself In The Documented Child scholar Maya Socolovsky demonstrates how the portrayal of Latinx children has shifted over the first two decades of the twenty first century in literary texts aimed at children and young adults and looks at how these shifts map onto broader changes in immigration policy and discourse Through a critical inquiry into picture books and middle grade and young adult literature Socolovsky argues that the literary documentations of and for U S Latinx children have shifted over the decades from an emphasis on hybrid transnationalism to that of a more American oriented self Socolovsky delves into texts written from 1997 to 2020 a period marked by tremendous changes in U S immigration policies amplified discourses around nationhood and an increasingly militarized border The author shows how children's and young adult books have shifted their depictions of the border personal and national identity and sovereignty For students scholars and educators of Latinx studies and children's literature this work shows how the creators of children's literature reflect new strategies for representing the undocumented Latinx child protagonist While earlier books document the child as a transnational sometimes global subject later books document her as both a transnational and U S national subject The Documented Child explores this change as a necessary survival strategy reflecting current awareness that cultural hybridity and transnational identity are not sufficient stand ins for the stability and security of legal personhood All Around the Neighborhood, Grades PK - K Pressnall,2010-05-18 There s a huge world for students in grades PK K to explore and All Around the Neighborhood provides the perfect place for them to start Teachers use the reproducible building fronts and vehicles to create a familiar neighborhood setting then let students imaginations do the rest Students add buildings from their own homes to fire stations to construction sites This 176 page book teaches social awareness in conjunction with a variety of concepts and vocabulary words that draw upon students interests It includes 10 mini books 7 file folder games more than 60 reproducible patterns more than 80 literature links and a wealth of cross curricular activities that reinforce each new concept The book supports NCSS and NAEYC standards Roots and Wings, Revised Edition Stacey York,2003-06-01
