Forms of Persuasion Alex J. Taylor, 2022-03-15 Forms of Persuasion is the first book length history of corporate art patronage in the 1960s After the decline of artist illustrated advertising but before the rise of museum sponsorship this decade saw artists and businesses exploring new ways to use art for commercial gain Where many art historical accounts of the sixties privilege radical artistic practices that seem to oppose the dominant values of capitalism Alex J Taylor instead reveals an art world deeply immersed in the imperatives of big business These projects unfolded in Madison Avenue meeting rooms and MoMA galleries but as the most creative and competitive corporations sought growth through global expansion they also reached markets all around the world From Andy Warhol's commissions for packaged goods manufacturers to Richard Serra's work with the steel industry Taylor demonstrates how major artists of the period provided brands with forms of persuasion that bolstered corporate power prestige and profit Drawing on extensive original research conducted in artist gallery and corporate archives Taylor recovers a flourishing field of promotional initiatives that saw artists advertising creatives and executives working around the same tables As museums continue to grapple with the ethical dilemmas posed by funding from oil companies military suppliers and drug manufacturers Forms of Persuasion returns to these earlier relations between artists and multinational corporations to examine the complex aesthetic and ideological terms of their enduring entanglements

The Artist as Reader: On Education and Non-Education of Early Modern Artists

,2012-12-03 Reading is apparently the greatest proof of refinement when viewed within the context of the social climb of the visual artist It is only as reader that the artist can participate in the exclusive culture of clerics humanists rulers and courtiers How did it come about that such a figure was integrated into the general history of knowledge context of research on the early modern period in order to outline what artists reading specifically entails Based on the history of knowledge the contributions to this volume will then correspondingly elucidate various aspects of how in the early modern period artists education knowledge reading and libraries were related to the ways in which they presented themselves The volume endeavours at long last to go beyond merely publishing inventories by investigating the problem of artists libraries with a fundamentally stronger emphasis on a discourse analytical and history of knowledge approach Contributors include Rainer Bayreuther Maria Berbara C cile Beuzelin Heiko Damm Annette de Vries Kelly Donahue Wallace Angela Dressen Lex Hermans Eckhard Leuschner Alexander Marr Martin Papenbrock Tico Seifert Eva Struhal Michael Thimann Huub van der Linden Elsje van Kessel Iris Wenderholm and Claus Zittel
