young Audrey Malone Frayer has unfinished business which she needs tending to and it appears she's chosen them to help her. In this second novel by Jason Medina, author of No Hope for the Hopeless at Kings Park, we are treated to a special story that ties an adolescent girl's troubled times of the 1970s with the lives of four young people in the present, particularly the character named Jay who feels especially attached to Audrey's spirit. Somehow he forms a bond with her while reading her diary, which takes control of him, making him obsessed with trying to help her take care of her unfinished business. He feels like there is a connection between them that he cannot ignore, although the meaning of that connection remains a mystery to him. It begins to haunt him almost immediately from the moment he first made contact with her spirit. Will he be able to figure out the connections between the past and the present in time before it is too late? Someone's life may very well depend upon it, and it could be his own.

Neal Powers, 2010-06 The sequel to Millie's Honor An interesting unpredictable true to life story. Kaye Trout Midwest Book Review In this sequel to Millie's Honor the town of Raleigh is still reeling from the devastation caused by a madman. In the midst of the chaos Sheriff Bud Oswald uncovers a drug ring with ties to Indianapolis. Two longtime friends, a grocer Wally Grayson and a drunk Raymond Thornton, join him to investigate, but their decision will cost them dearly. In the meantime, a series of bizarre events begins to occur: A senior senator from Missouri unexpectedly resigns, a troublemaker meets a disturbing end, fish die in Lake Osage, the local dry cleaner suddenly becomes wealthy, and a plane disappears in the middle of the night. The only link among all the strange events is the world's worst attorney, Garrett Stilton, also known as Tiltin Stilton, who has unfortunately realized there is more money in crime than in practicing law. After Tiltin's grandiose schemes draw big city crime to Raleigh, Sheriff Bud rallies the law enforcement community, and for further help, turns to Raymond, war hero, journalist, and alcoholic, who is still grieving for his wife, Millie. As time begins to run out, Raymond manages to pull himself together and wonders what he should do with his letters to Millie. Just as he arrives at a decision, he reveals the secret of Millie's legacy.
