Twilight Zones Twilight Zones:

A Critical History of Television's The Twilight Zone, 1959-1964 Don Presnell, Marty McGee, 2015-07-11 Rod Serling's anthology series The Twilight Zone is recognized as one of the greatest television shows of all time. Always intelligent and thought provoking, the show used the conventions of several genres to explore such universal qualities as violence, fear, prejudice, love, death, and individual identity. This comprehensive reference work gives a complete history of the show from its beginning in 1959 to its final 1964 season, with critical commentaries, incisive analyses, and the most complete listing of casts and credits ever published. Biographical profiles of writers and contributors are included, followed by detailed appendices, bibliography, and index.

The Twilight Zone FAQ Dave Thompson, 2015-11-01 The Twilight Zone is among the most beloved shows in American television history, a pioneering fantasy behemoth that bridged the cultural gap between the 1950s and 1960s with thought provoking mystery, mind boggling theorems, and occasionally outright horror. The Twilight Zone FAQ takes the reader back to that halcyon era, looking back on the show and its impact as a force for societal change via reflections on the manifold topics and controversies that the show took on, from the space race to the Red Menace, from paranoia to madness, and beyond. Dave Thompson traces the history of the show from its earliest flowering in the mind of then unknown Rod Serling through its slow birth, shaky beginning, and breathless five season run, and he shows how it became the blueprint for so much of the fantasy television that has followed. Chapters deal with the comic books, novels, and many other spin offs, including the movie, the TV revamps, and even the amusement park ride. In addition, this FAQ offers a full guide to every episode, providing details on the cast and music, and pinpointing both the best and the worst of the series, all adding up to a brightly opinionated time machine that catapults the reader back to the true golden age of American television.

Stories from the Twilight Zone Rod Serling, 1986 Nineteen stories deal with a dreamworld, time travel, a hypochondriac, a gambler, an amnesia victim, an alien invasion, robots, an accomplished liar, and a group of desperate survivors.

The Twilight Zone and Philosophy Heather L. Rivera, Alexander E. Hooke, 2018-10-09 In The Twilight Zone and Philosophy, philosophers probe into the meaning of the classic TV series The Twilight Zone. Some of the chapters look at single episodes of the show, while others analyze several or many episodes. Though acknowledging the spinoffs and reboots, the volume concentrates heavily on the classic 1959-1964 series. Among the questions raised and answered are: What's the meaning of personal identity in The Twilight Zone? Number 12 Looks Just Like You: Person or Persons Unknown? As the distinction between person and machine becomes less clear, how do we handle our intimacy with machines? A question posed in the very first episode of The Twilight Zone, The Lonely: Why do our beliefs always become uncertain in The Twilight Zone? Where Is Everybody? Just where is the Twilight Zone? Sometimes it's a supernatural realm, but sometimes it's the everyday world of reality. What does the background music of The Twilight Zone teach us about dreams and imagination? Is it better to lose the war than to be damned? Still Valley: How far should we trust those benevolent aliens? To Serve Man: Where's the harm in media?
