

Compare and Contrast a Story

Remember, when comparing, you are looking for things that are the same. When contrasting, you are looking for things that are different. In the following two fables, there are things that are the same and things that are different. Read each of them carefully and begin to compare and contrast the two versions of the fable titled The Wolf in Sheep's Clothing.

Version 1: The Wolf In Sheep's Clothing

A certain Wolf could not get enough to eat because of the watchfulness of the Shepherds. But one night he found a sheep skin that had been cast aside and forgotten. The next day, dressed in the skin, the Wolf strolled into the pasture with the Sheep. Soon a little Lamb was following him about and was quickly led away to slaughter.

That evening the Wolf entered the fold with the flock. But it happened that the Shepherd took a fancy for mutton broth that very evening, and, picking up a knife, went to the fold. There the first he laid hands on and killed was the Wolf.

Moral: The evil doer often comes to harm through his own deceit.

Version 2: The Wolf In Sheep's Clothing

Night after night a wolf prowled around a flock of sheep looking for one of them to eat, but the shepherd and his dogs always chased him away.

But one day the wolf found the skin of a sheep that had been thrown aside. He pulled the skin carefully over him so that none of his fur showed under the white fleece. Then he strolled among the flock in this disguise. The shepherd, thinking that the wolf was one of his sheep, allowed the wolf to graze on the lush grass in the pasture, and even let him sleep in the warm barn with the sheep.

For many days and nights, the wolf ate and slept better than he ever had. But one day the shepherd decided to sell one of his flock at the market. He chose the biggest, fattest sheep he could find and brought him into town. Can you guess who it was? It was the wolf!

Moral: Things are not always as they seem; and, if you pretend to be what you are not, you might end up losing in the end.
