Twofold Use Of The Law Gospel:

Richard Hooker, Reformer and Platonist W.J. Torrance Kirby, 2016-04-08 This book explores key aspects of Richard Hooker's philosophical and theological discourse in the context of currents of thought prevalent in the Magisterial Reformation of the sixteenth century Hooker's treatment of natural law his dependence upon the philosophical discourse and traditional cosmology of Christian Neoplatonism and his appeal to the authority of patristic sources are all closely examined Challenging the received exceptionalist model of much of the twentieth century interpretation of Hooker in particular the concept of his supposed defence of the English Reformation as striking a via media between Rome and mainstream Protestant reform W J Torrance Kirby argues that Hooker adheres to principles of magisterial reform while building upon the assumptions of a distinctively Protestant version of Platonism

Philip Melancthon, Speaker of the Reformation

Timothy J. Wengert, 2024-10-28 The studies in this volume illuminate the thought and life of Philip Melancthon one of the most neglected major figures in Reformation history and theology Melancthon was one of the most widely published and respected thinkers in his own day who authored some of the sixteenth century's most important books on Latin and Greek grammar rhetoric dialectics and history to say nothing of his theological output which included the first overview of Protestant theology the first Protestant commentaries on Romans 1 2 Corinthians and John He was also the chief drafter of the Augsburg Confession and wrote its defense the Apology These essays written over the past twenty years commemorate the 450th anniversary of Melancthon's death in 2010 The articles provide a wide ranging picture of Melancthon's thought and life with topics including his view of free will approaches to biblical interpretation his perspective on the church fathers and world history and comparisons to other important figures of the age including Calvin Luther and Erasmus

Martin Luther's Theology Bernhard Lohse, 1999-01-01 This definitive analysis of the theology of Martin Luther surveys its development during the crises of Luther's life then offers a systematic survey by topics Containing a wealth of quotations from less known writings by Luther and written in a way that will interest both scholar and novice Lohse's magisterial volume is the first to evaluate Luther's theology in both ways Lohse's historical analysis takes up Luther's early exegetical works and then his debates with traditions important to him in the context of the various controversies leading up to his dispute with the Antinomians The systematic treatment shows how the meaning of ancient Christian doctrines took their place within the central teaching of justification by faith

Recovering the Ecumenical Bonhoeffer Javier A.

Garcia, 2019-10-14 In Recovering the Ecumenical Bonhoeffer Javier Garcia explores the possibilities for Dietrich Bonhoeffer's theology to revitalize interest in the ecumenical movement and Christian unity today Although many commentators have lamented the waning interest in the ecumenical movement since the 1960s the celebration of the 500th anniversary of the Protestant Reformation in 2017 coupled with recent inroads such as the ecumenical efforts of Pope Francis have opened new possibilities for the ecumenical project In this context Garcia presents Bonhoeffer as a helpful model for contemporary ecumenical dialogue He finds important points of convergence between Bonhoeffer and Calvin thereby establishing potential areas of rapprochement between the Lutheran and Reformed traditions Beyond examining the state of ecumenism and unfolding the ecumenical promise of Bonhoeffer's thought Garcia assesses the future of ecumenical engagement in a secular age Altogether he proposes a recovery of the ecumenical Bonhoeffer for envisioning new possibilities for church unity in our day

The Oxford Handbook of Evangelical Theology Gerald R. McDermott, 2013-12 This volume surveys the state of the discipline on topics of greatest importance to evangelical theology The authors critically assess the state of the question from both classical and evangelical traditions and propose a future direction for evangelical thinking on the subject

Martin Luther's Two Ways of Viewing Life and the Educational Foundation of a Lutheran Ethos Leonard S. Smith, 2011-01-01 Like Leonard Smith's larger study Religion and the Rise of History this essay Martin Luther's Two Ways of Viewing Life asserts that Luther's well known at the same time simul or paradoxical way of viewing life does not capture Luther's thought as a whole because it does not represent his deeply incarnational and dynamic mystical and holistic particularizing and historical way of viewing life based on the power of the Word and the Spirit of God either in his own life or in human history Smith contends 1 that the best way to capture Luther's second basic way of thinking and of viewing life is through the connected prepositions connected especially for Lutherans in with and under 2 that this second basic way was based primarily on the Gospel of John and its great Prologue which shows how God is acting creating and redeeming and how Jesus is the Word become flesh and 3 that understanding both of Luther's ways of viewing life is helpful for understanding Lutheran education and a Lutheran ethos since the sixteenth century Since this brief essay is written primarily for a general audience it can easily be used as a text or supplementary reading for a class seminary or group discussion

Life in Christ Mark A. Garcia, 2008-04-01 In three wide ranging case studies Mark A Garcia offers a comprehensive yet focused analysis of the centrality of union with Christ in Calvin's thought It explains not only the distinctive nature of Calvin's response to Rome on justification but why this response must be carefully distinguished from that of his Lutheran counterparts The fruit of these investigations is the first extensive demonstration that Calvin's exposition of union with Christ in relating justification and sanctification points to an emerging Reformed theology of justification that diverges from the Lutheran tradition Calvin's exegetical and theological model of union with Christ accents the importance in the early Reformed tradition of the relationship between Christology and salvation

Church and State John R. Stumme, Robert W. Tuttle, In an age marked by controversy over public support of religious schools federal encouragement of religious providers of social services and sexuality education the whole arena of church state relations appears in flux In this volume seven experts probe the meaning of religion in public life for Christians when the Protestant establishment has given way to pervasive religious pluralism and a growing secularism Working specifically out of Lutheran traditions the authors probe the deeper legal moral and religious questions at issue in the current debate They not only rethink classical sources about law and gospel and two kingdoms theory but also resurrect neglected resources for Christian civil resistance They then look to contemporary developments and show how functional interaction of church and state is compatible with their strong institutional separation Finally three chapters probe the most hotly contested First Amendment questions religious liberty education and land use Bishop Hopkin's Doctrine of the Two Covenants ... Revised by Josiah Pratt Ezekiel HOPKINS (successively Bishop of Raphoe and of Derry.),1809 The Pastoral Luther Timothy J. Wengert,2017-03-17 Sixteen church historians here examine Martin Luther in an uncommon waynot as Reformer or theologian but as pastor Luther s work as parish pastor commanded much of his time and energy in Wittenberg After first introducing the pastoral Luther including his theology of the cross these chapters discuss Luther s preaching and use of language including humor investigate his teaching ministry in depth especially in light of the catechism and explore his views on such things as the role of women the Virgin Mary and music The book finally probes Luther s sentiments on monasticism and secular authority Contributors Charles P Arand James M Estes Eric W Gritsch Robert Kolb Beth Kreitzer Robin A Leaver Mickey L Mattox Ronald Rittgers Robert Rosin Reinhard Schwarz Jane E Strohl Christoph Weimer Dorothea Wendebourg Timothy J Wengert Vftor Westhelle H S Wilson The Paradoxical Vision Robert Benne,1995 What are the implications of a person s faith for Christian social ethics Robert Benne elaborates a basic theological ethical framework for engaging the Christian vision with its surrounding public environment political ethical cultural and intellectual He offers practical ways in which religious traditions do in fact engage the public environment Did the Reformers Misread Paul? Aaron O'Kelley,2014-02-01 In this study Aaron O Kelley argues that the new perspective on Paul rests on a faulty hermeneutical presupposition namely that covenantal nomism could not have served as a foil for Paul in the development of a doctrine of justification that resembles that of the Reformation

COMMENDATIONS Carefully researched and argued Aaron O Kelley s monograph offers a refreshing engagement of New Testament scholarship from the perspective of historical and systematic theology Kevin W McFadden Cairn University USA

The Lord's Prayer, And, the Doctrine of the Two Covenants Ezekiel Hopkins,1846 The Lord's Prayer; And, The Doctrine of the Two Covenants Ezekiel HOPKINS (successively Bishop of Raphoe and of Derry.),1846 Welfare and Religion in 21st Century Europe Per Pettersson,2011 This book considers the changing nature of both religion and welfare in Europe It is the second of two volumes Together they examine the function of majority churches as agents of social welfare in eight European societies Sweden Finland Norway England Germany France Italy and Greece Volume 2 explores the connections between religion and welfare from three perspectives sociology gender and theology The authors ask new questions about the religious and the secular and the implications of each for the process known as secularization Looking carefully at the gendered nature of care Unity and Continuity in Covenantal Thought Andrew Woolsey,2012-12-06 Over the years some scholars have argued for competing streams of covenantal thought within the reformed tradition For instance

some have pitted Calvin against the Calvinists some have tried to detect unilateral and bilateral approaches to the covenant and still others have set federalism against predestinarianism In this landmark survey of covenant theology Andrew A Woolsey assesses the reformed tradition and finds that the development of diverse formulas actually maintained substantial agreement on the basic contours of covenantal thought Unity and Continuity in Covenantal Thought examines the historiographical problems related to the interpretation of the Westminster Standards delving into the issue of covenantal thought in the Westminster Standards followed by an exhaustive analysis of nineteenth and twentieth century scholarship on covenant After surveying patristic and medieval backgrounds Woolsey s study looks in detail at a representative list of writers who contributed to the early development of federal thought Luther Oecolampadius Zwingli Bullinger Calvin and Beza The final part of his study explores the early orthodox approach to covenant and the rise of emphasis on the covenants of works and grace in the thought of Heidelberg theologians Ursinus and Olevianus the English Puritans Cartwright Fenner and Perkins and Scottish divines Knox Rollock and Howie Here is a substantial contribution to the study of reformed thought on covenant from its reformation origins to the more detailed formulations of the early to mid seventeenth century

A History of Biblical Interpretation, Vol. 2 Alan J. Hauser,Duane F. Watson,2009-11-10 History of Biblical Interpretation provides detailed and extensive studies of the interpretation of the Scriptures by Jewish and Christian writers throughout the ages Written by internationally renowned scholars this multivolume work comprehensively treats the many different methods of interpretation the many important interpreters from various eras and the many key issues that have surfaced repeatedly over the long course of biblical interpretation This second installment contains essays by fifteen noted scholars discussing major methods movements and interpreters in the Jewish and Christian communities from the beginning of the Middle Ages until the end of the sixteenth century Reformation The authors examine such themes as the variety of interpretive developments within Judaism during this period the monumental work of Rashi and his followers the achievements of the Carolingian era and the later scholastic developments within the universities beginning in the twelfth century

Two Kingdoms and Two Cities Robert C. Crouse,2017-07-15 The recent emergence of two kingdoms and two cities approaches to Christian social thinking are shown to have a key and often unacknowledged connection to Luther s reshaping of the Augustinian paradigm The project works for a better understanding of Luther s own thought to help understand the convergences and divergences of Christian political theology in the twentieth century and today In particular Luther's two kingdom thinking issued forth in a strong distinction of law and gospel that was also worked out in twofold pairs of Israel and church general and special revelation creation and redemption and especially the outward and inward life The work traces this legacy through acceptance and modification by Niebuhr and Bonhoeffer Lutheran and Catholic neoconservatives Reformed two kingdom proponents Augustinian liberals and finally Oliver O'Donovan The conclusion reflects on both the historical narrative and its connection to an account of modern liberalism as well as a theological reflection on hermeneutical decisions of the twoness of Christian theology
