U 47 In Scapa Flow The Sinking Of Hms Royal Oak 1939 Raid:

U-47 in Scapa Flow Angus Konstam, 2015-10-20 At the outset of World War II Scapa Flow was supposed to be the safe home base of the British Navy nothing could penetrate the defences of this bastion So how in the dead of night was Gunther Prien s U 47 able to slip through the line of protective warships to sink the mighty Royal Oak This book provides the answer with an account of one of the most daring naval raids in history Drawing on the latest underwater archaeological research this study explains how Prien and his crew navigated the North Sea and Kirk Sound to land a devastating blow to the British It reveals the level of disrepair that Scapa Flow had fallen into and delves into the conspiracy theories surrounding the event including an alleged cover up by the then First Sea Lord Winston Churchill

British Submarine vs Italian Torpedo Boat David Greentree, 2016-06-16 As the war in North Africa escalated Axis war efforts became increasingly dependent on supply lines across the Mediterranean To try to cut off these lines of supply the British deployed submarines from the besieged island of Malta with the directive to sink as much merchant convoy tonnage as possible Italy responded by sending her Torpedo boats to protect and escort Axis convoys Featuring specially commissioned full colour artwork and carefully chosen archive photographs this engaging study assesses the evolving battle between Britain's submarines and Italy's torpedo boats in the struggle for primacy in the Mediterranean at the height of World War II The Silent Service John Parker, 2013-02-28 One of the great untold stories of the British services is that of the Royal Navy Submarine Service which entered the fray in World War I with 100 underwater craft Through World War II where submariners prospects of returning safely from a mission were only 50/50 the Falklands conflict and the sinking of the Belgrano to present day elite machines the Silent Service has played an enormous part in British defence John Parker's in depth investigation is very much personality led with diaries from the early part of the century to substantial first person testimony from survivors of wartime heroics when many VCs were won

Alexander Niven Kim Emmerson, 2015-05-25 Set in the late 1800s this well researched biography takes us into the heart of newly settled Upper Canada and the rich beginnings of Haliburton County Ontario We get a thoughtful and thorough look at the history of the area as we meet Alexander Niven surveyor politician farmer adventurer educator and influential businessman in a blossoming locale We meet Niven's contemporaries who alongside this versatile surveyor formed and shaped this back woods settlement into the beautiful area we are familiar with today This very informative and entertaining biography will immerse you in the exciting and sometimes trying times of the period and paint a picture of early settlement in Haliburton County Axis Warships Roy M. Stanley, 2011-10-05 For his latest book Colonel Roy Stanley presents aerial photographs of the German and Italian fleets that were selected as important six decades ago and have long lain dormant unindexed and unexplained Extensive use of aerial and other Intelligence imagery from long retired files would be enough to make this book a must for those intrigued by World War II intelligence and naval history But it is the author's commentary that makes this work truly unique thanks to his aerial photo interpretation experience ability to provide Intelligence analysis and academic background Meticulously researched for ship identification the eye of an experienced PI sees things others might miss and the author tells us what he sees Some of these photos may have appeared in contemporary documents but never with the insight presented in this book We see warships under attack at sea and in harbor as captured by photo reconnaissance Analysis of selective enlargements adds to the understanding Even the most devout follower of warships will learn something One Day in August David O'Keefe, 2020-11-05 A lively and readable account Spectator A fine book well written and well researched Washington Times In less than six hours in August 1942 nearly 1 000 British Canadian and American commandos died in the French port of Dieppe in an operation that for decades seemed to have no real purpose Was it a dry run for D Day or perhaps a gesture by the Allies to placate Stalin's impatience for a second front in the west Historian David O'Keefe uses hitherto classified intelligence archives to prove that this catastrophic and apparently futile raid was in fact a mission set up by Ian Fleming of British Naval Intelligence as part of a pinch policy designed to capture material relating to the four rotor Enigma Machine that would permit codebreakers like Alan Turing at Bletchley Park to turn the tide of the Second World War A fast paced and convincing book that clears up decades of misinformation about the ignoble raid Toronto Star A War Without Ground MICHAEL CANN,2018-05-10 Fly high above the clouds sail deep down to the ocean bottom and see how a nation demilitarized begins to achieve world dominance from above and below without a need to keep their boots on the ground Faces of HMS Royal Oak Dilip Sarkar,2023-12-30 On 14 October each year a White Ensign is placed on the stern of an upturned warship by Royal Navy divers This act commemorates the 835 men of HMS Royal Oak who died in 1939 when the battleship was sunk at anchor in Scapa Flow by the German U boat U 47 The sinking of the veteran First World War Revenge class Royal Oak shocked not only the Admiralty but the whole nation Though Scapa Flow was far from being impregnable as a base for the Royal Navy s Home Fleet it was surrounded by a ring of islands separated by shallow channels subject to fast racing tides While it was recognized that it was not impervious to enemy submarines measures had been put in place to minimize any such threat Blockships had been sunk at potentially vulnerable points and anti submarine booms deployed across the wider channels The outbreak of war in September 1939 saw additional anti submarine measures put in hand Despite these increased precautions German aerial reconnaissance had spotted weaknesses which were exploited on the night of 13 14 October 1939 by Kapit nleutnant G nther Prien in U 47 The German submarine was able to slip into Scapa Flow undetected and fire three torpedoes towards Royal Oak Only one torpedo found its mark A second salvo was fired and this time all three hit the battleship igniting a magazine causing massive damage Within thirteen minutes HMS Royal Oak had turned over and sank In Faces of HMS Royal Oak Dilip Sarkar not only reveals the tragic and moving stories of many of those who died but also some of the 399 who survived the sinking of the first Royal Navy battleship lost in the Second World War Through their photographs and in some cases words the horrors of those fateful few minutes as Royal Oak rolled and slid into the cold dark waters of Scapa Flow are relived in startling clarity

History of the Second World War, 1973 The Encyclopedia of Military History from 3500 B.C. to the Present

Richard Ernest Dupuy, Trevor Nevitt Dupuy, 1986 Here is the world's military history from ancient times to the present. Each time period has highlights, outstanding leaders, unusual developments, etc. The Phantom of Scapa Flow Alexandre Korganoff, 2022-02-21 On the night of 13-14 October 1939 the German commander of U-boat U-47 Günther Prien steered past the sunken block ships and chains which inadequately protected the British naval base at Scapa Flow in the Orkney Islands. The U-boat sank the old British World War I battleship HMS Royal Oak and then escaped into the North Sea. The loss of the Royal Oak was insignificant in naval terms though over 800 men perished with her; however, this was a bitter blow to British morale. Soldiers Lost at Sea James E. Wise (Jr.), Scott Baron, 2004 Heroism, tragedy, devotion to duty and scandal are just a few of the ingredients that make up this dramatic account of troopship losses in wartime. International in scope, the book offers a compilation of stories about historic troopship disasters caused by torpedoes, aerial attacks, mines, surface fire, foul weather, friendly fire, and poor planning by military decision makers. Board of inquiry hearings, action reports, survivor debriefings, and personal correspondence collected from archives in Germany, Italy, Russia, Australia, Britain, and the United States help tell the stories of the fifty vessels described in the book. An introductory chapter provides an overview of troopship evolution and losses at sea, beginning with the age of galley warfare. The first to provide a sweeping survey of the subject, this book pays long overdue tribute to the soldiers who lost their lives in vast oceans far from home. War at Sea, 1939-1945 John Hamilton, 1986 The Rise and Fall of the British Navy Richard Humble, 1986 Hensigten med udarbejdelsen af bogen her var i 1986 at argumentere for en udvidelse af Royal Navy frem for at planlægge yderligere reduktioner. Bogen tager derfor et historisk tilbageblik for sin argumentation og vurderer herunder især flådens udvikling i perioden 1945-85. Falklandskampagnens erfaringer tages ikke medregnet især til indtægt for argumentationen for en større flåde.
