Ugly Things Stacey Lynn,2021-04-19 One moment A single decision an accident Cost me six years of my life All of my hopes and dreams vanished Until I was given back my freedom and the opportunity to start over doing whatever I could to survive in a world much different than the one I knew before I was working on my degree and waiting tables when my fate changed An older man with silver hair and a fancy suit walked in looking like he wanted to save me He came for pie But he offered me a job When I turned him down he sent his son Hudson The arrogant sex on a stick wore me down I took the job I accepted his friendship And slowly over time I began to feel things for this man I knew I shouldn t They gave me a home A family And then it was all ripped away Now nothing can erase all the ugly things
